Dear Sweet Kid - Good luck & Stay Sweet. We've had Good times, but they've Been so few & far between. All is for a Reason. You'll get over it. Your future is ahead of you. Love you next year

Tomorrow Begins Today

"Time rushes on and the leaves that are green turn to brown." Tomorrow's Trinity High School finds its foundation in the moments of solution to an algebra equation, the roar of Trojans as the spirit stick is thrust upward, and the sweeping of the sawdust from the completed Fine Arts Building. The traditions of tomorrow begin with the students of today - the time of now. The school loyalty, the desire to learn, the enthusiasm of today's Trojans set the pace for the future. Tomorrow begins today.

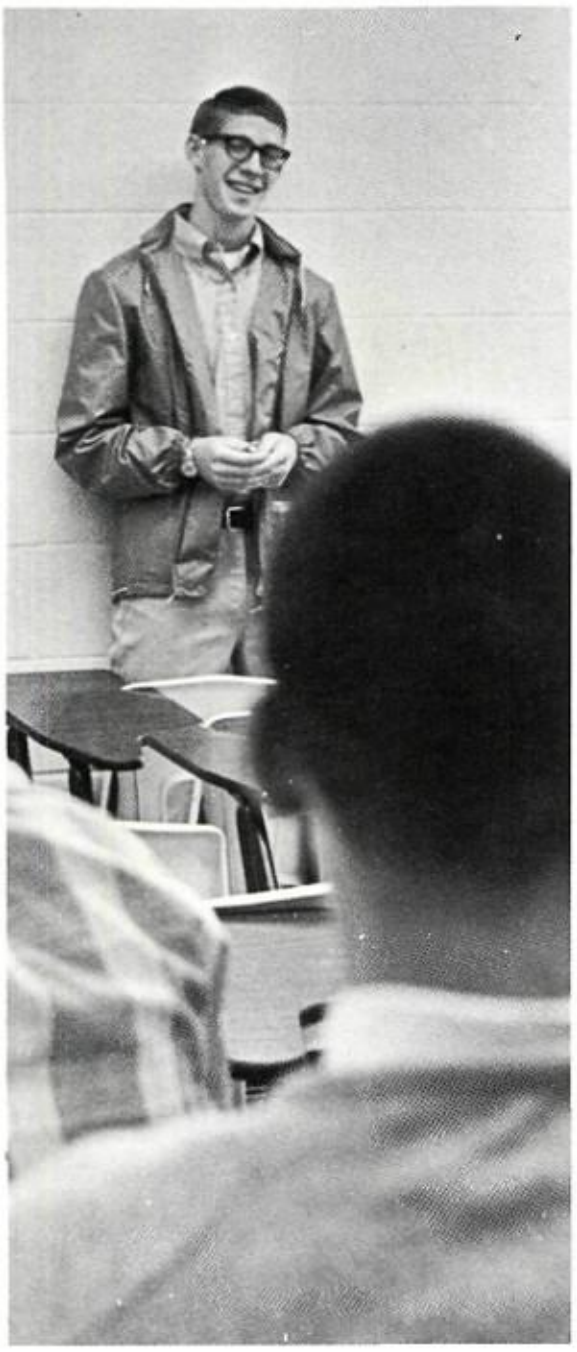
Today Is a Day of Beginning

The first day of class and new relationships have already begun.

Before construction ends, patriotism begins.



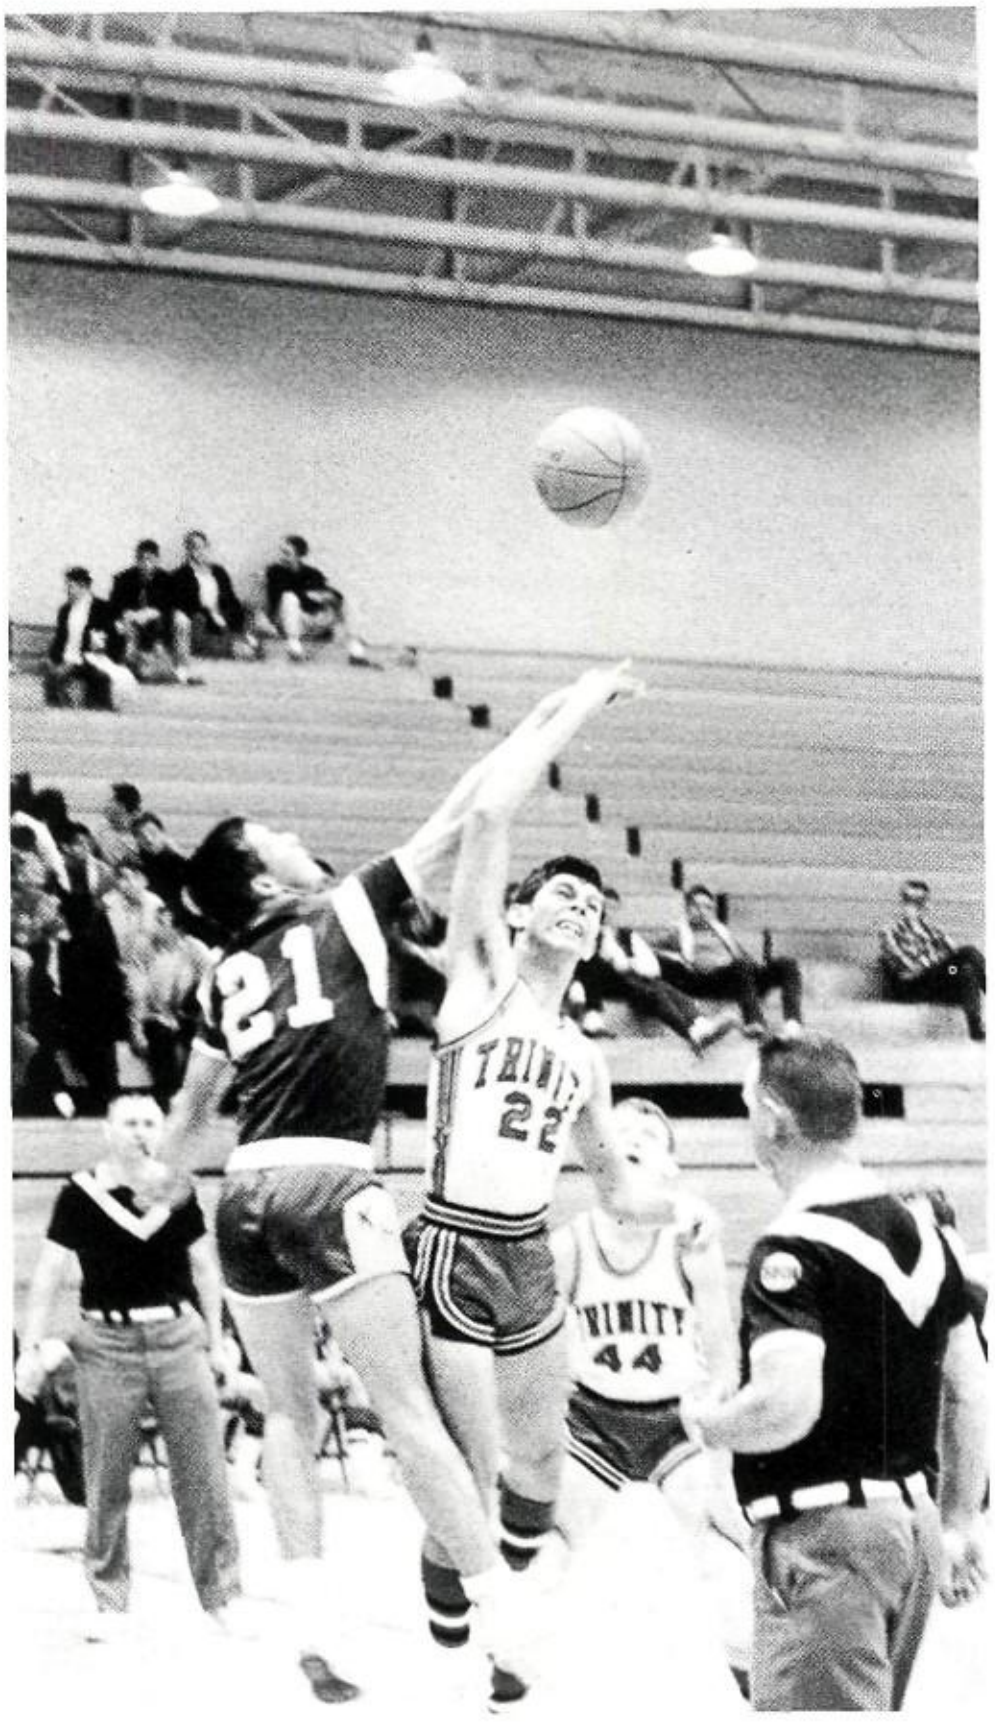
Student Council President, Clifton Sorrell assumes leadership.

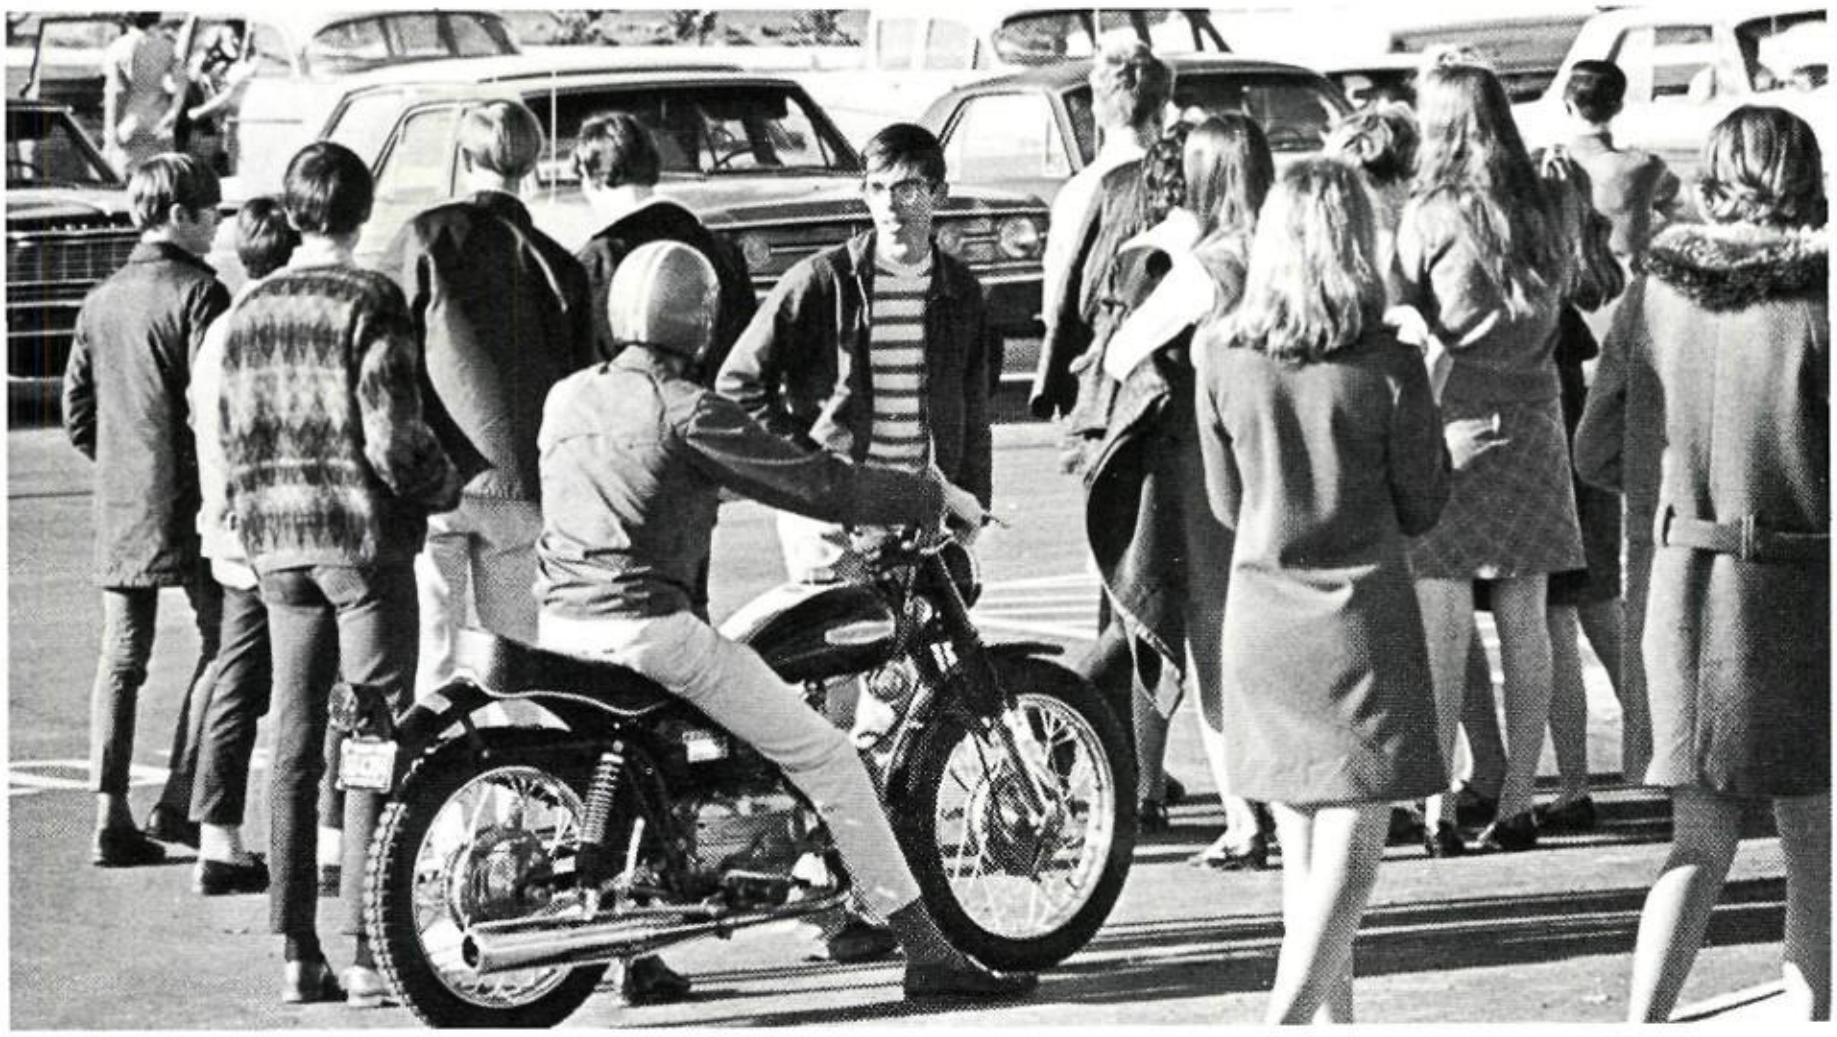
September 3rd ... a race between construction and completion.

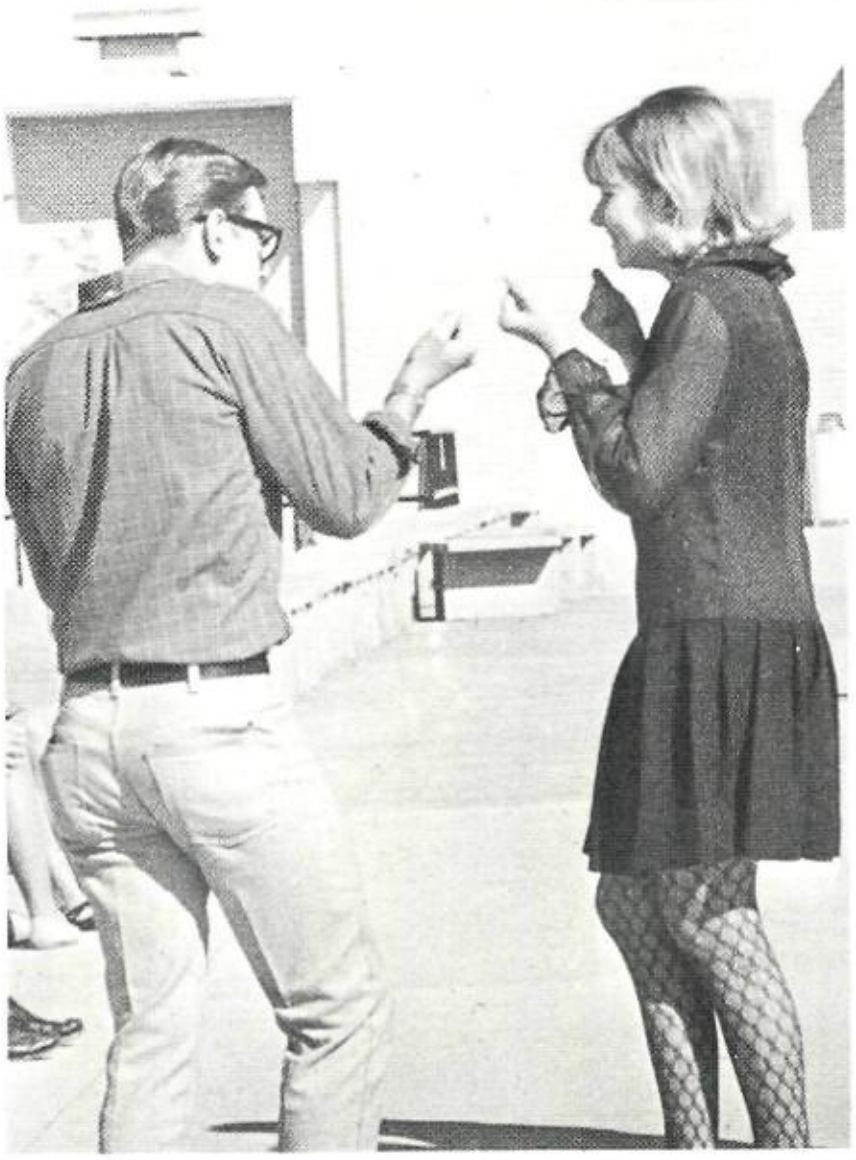
The beginning of construction work, the first day of class on a new campus, the organization of a student government, a first pep rally, the flag is raised for the first time - today is a time of beginning for Trinity High School.

Today Is a Day of Action

An atmosphere of action pervades the campus of an involved student body. The push and pull in a crowded hall scene, between class conversation, and the enthusiastic impulses expressed through Trojan spirit mark the pace in a changing setting. Students and teachers constantly strive to direct this action toward a worthwhile aim.







Today Is a Day of Achievement

The scope of achievement ranges from individual progress to group effort. Trojans find achievement in the relevance of personal value, the assurance of attaining the desired goal, and the day to day attempts to gain knowledge. The Trojan band found group recognition in a first place rating in marching competition, class favorites, and Mr. and Miss Trinity High received specific honor at the Valentine's Dance. These achievements of today motivate the action of tomorrow.

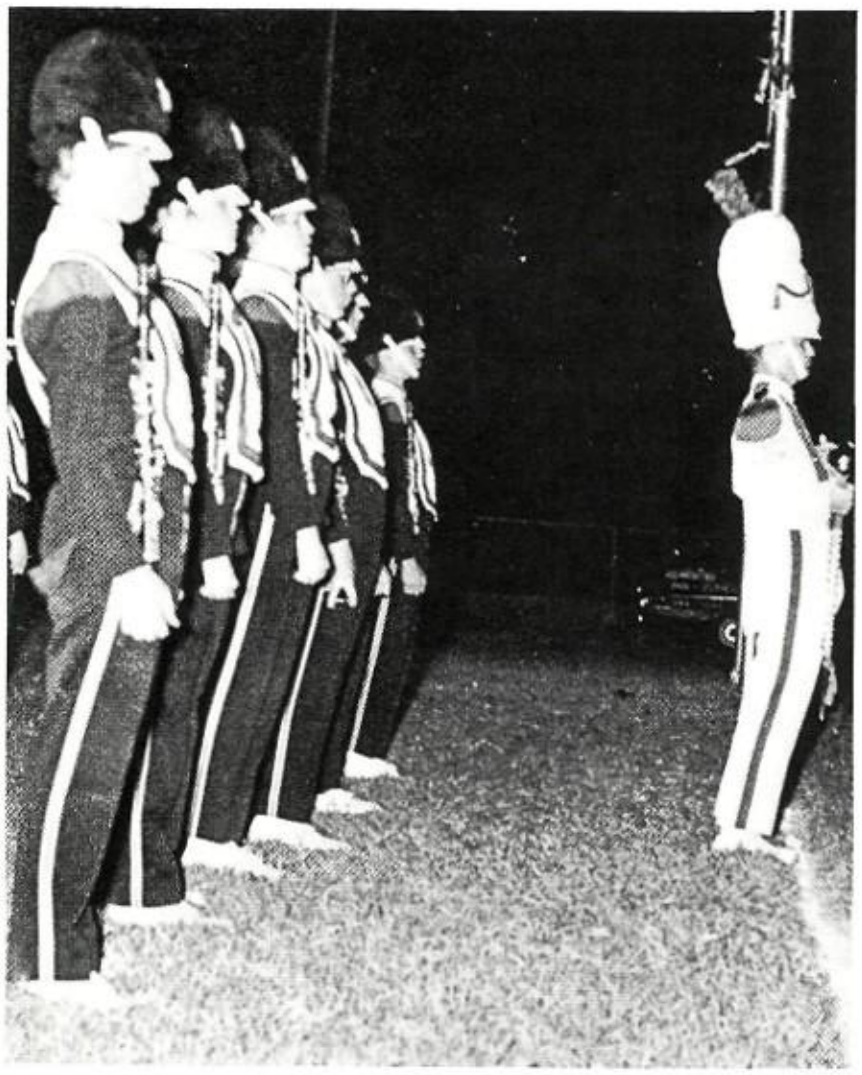
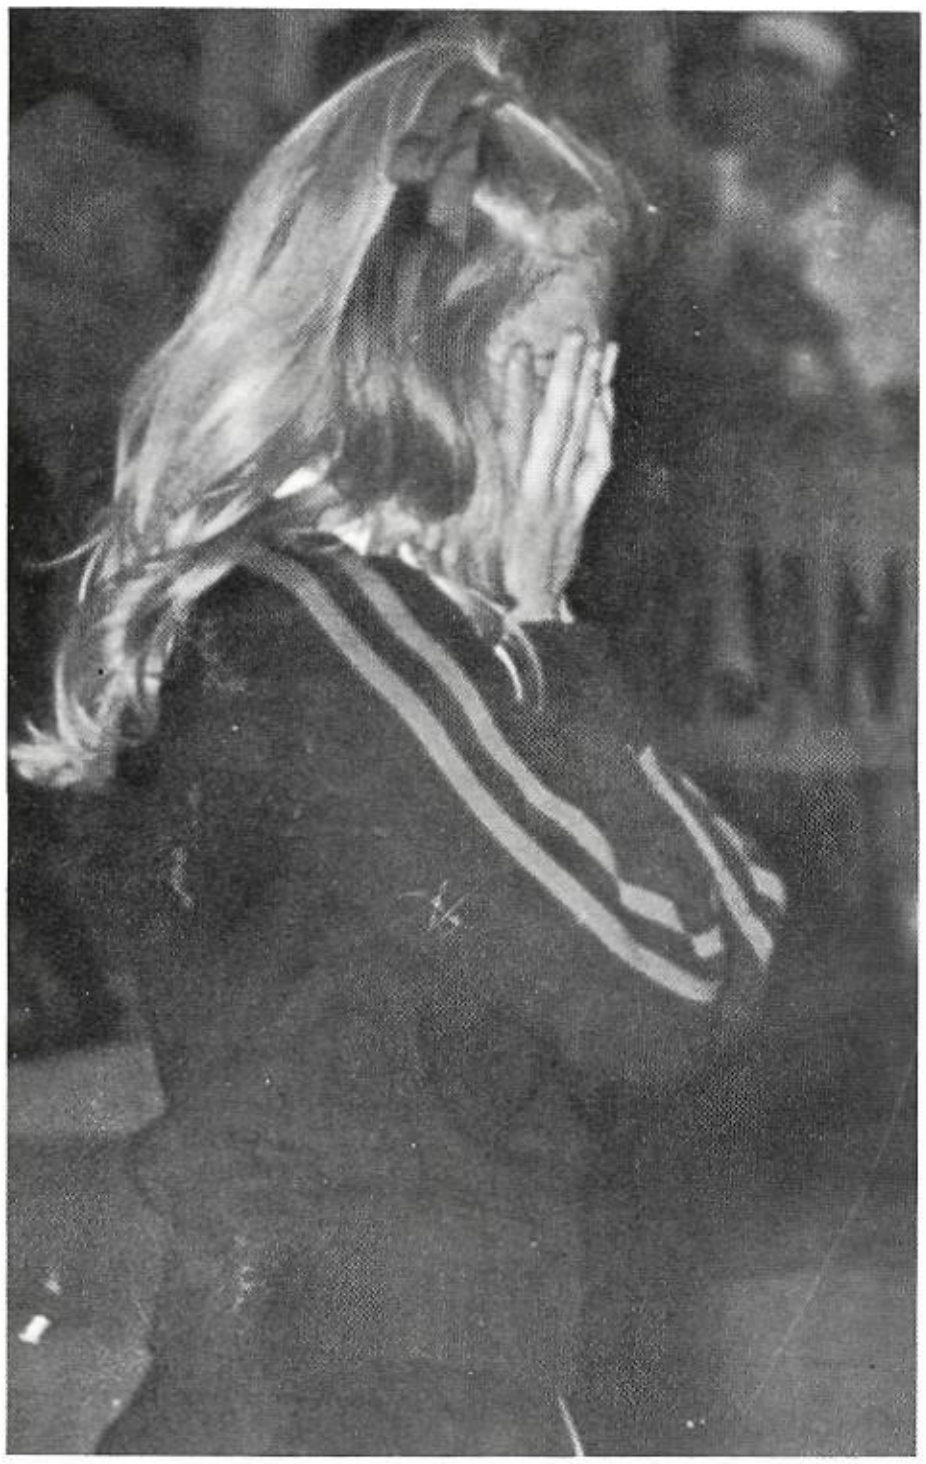
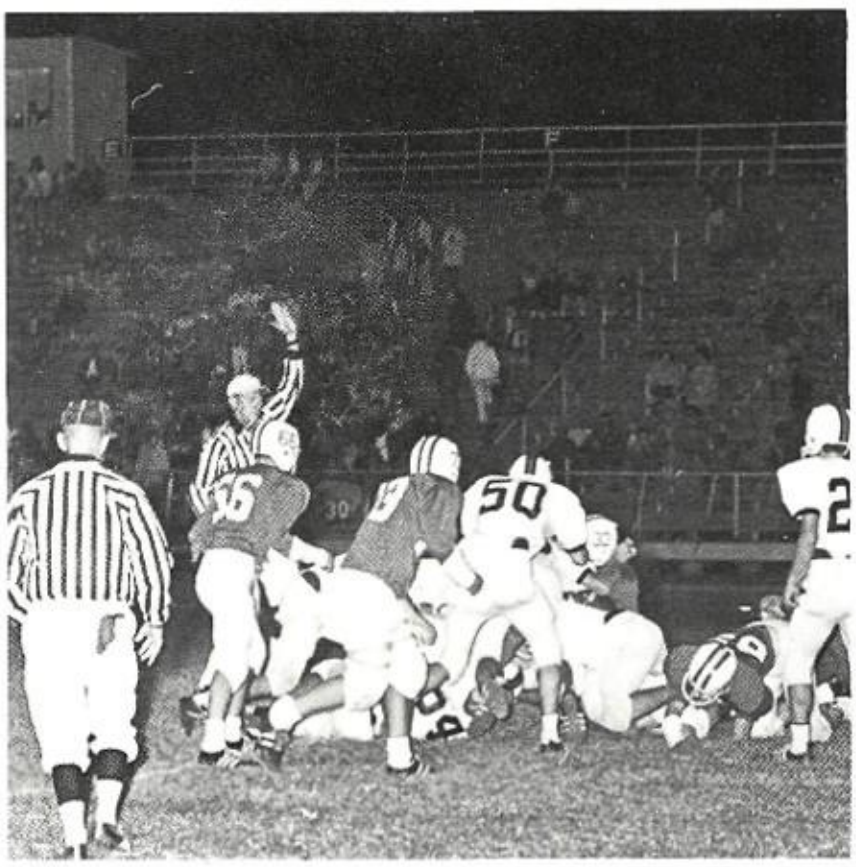
Football Activity



Trojan band anxiously awaits half time entertainment.



United we stand, divided we fall.



Football action begins with the opening kick-off as Trojans unite under a feeling of school pride. Throughout the game, students learn and promote school spirit by association with players, cheerleaders, band members, and Troy-Anns.

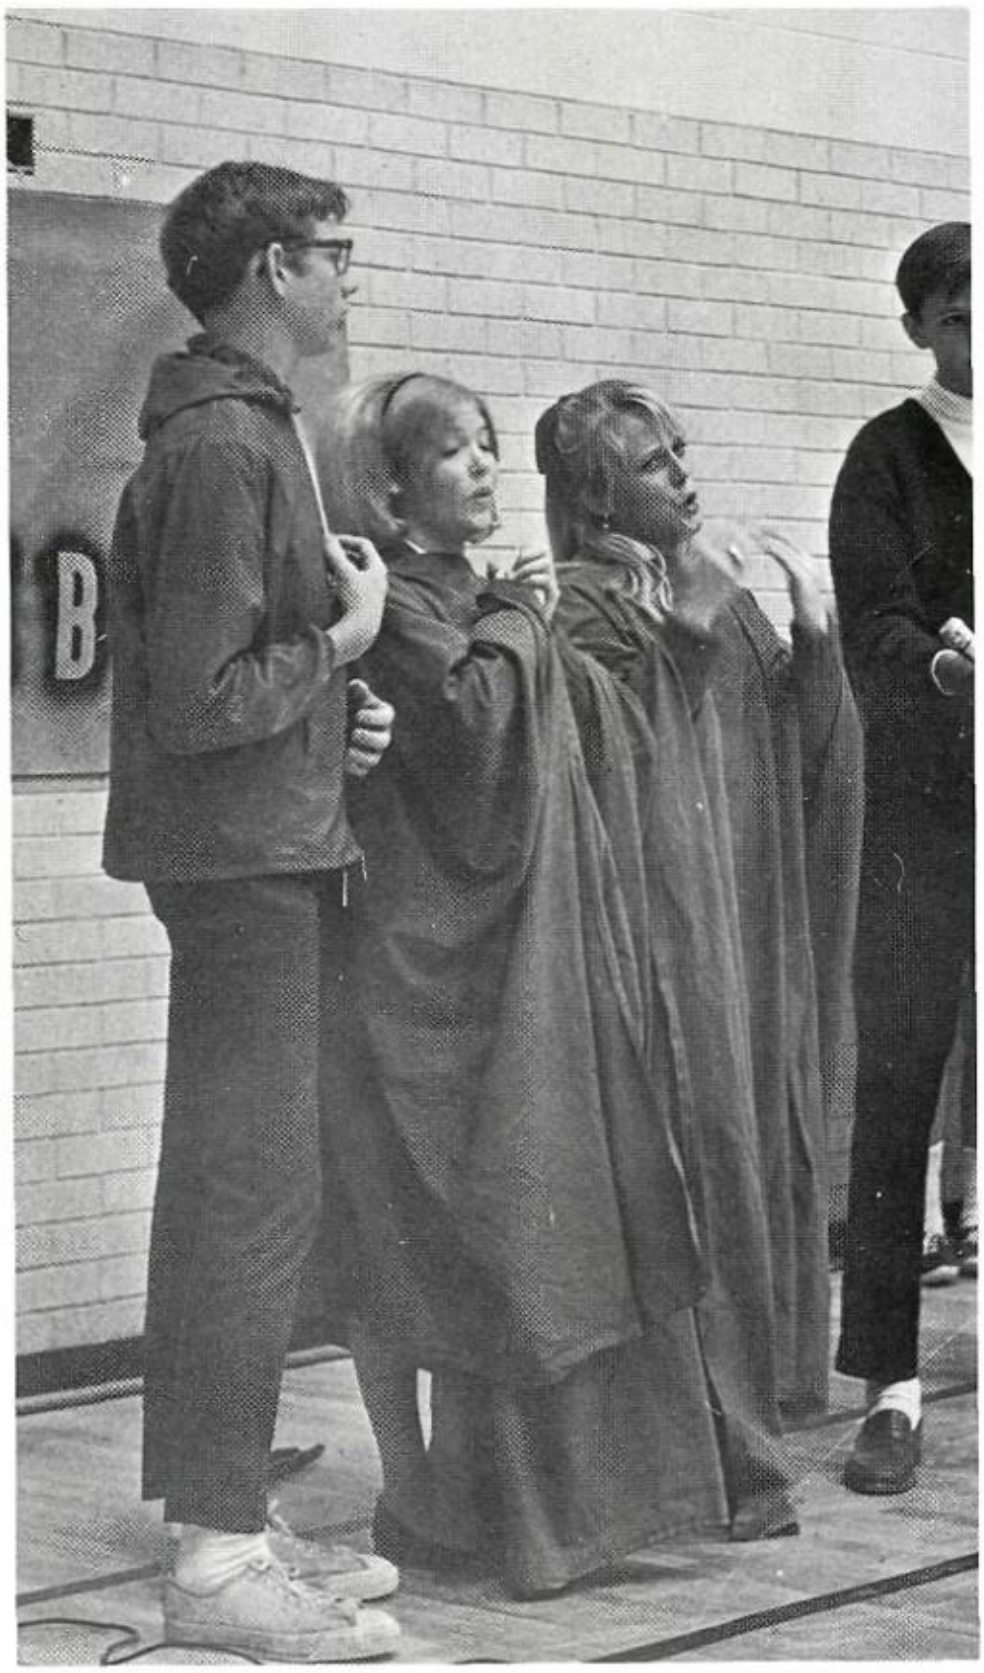
Pep Rallies . . . Assemblies Promote School Unity

Pep rallies and assemblies are a large part of the traditions started this year. Programs are presented in an effort to unify the student body. They include patriotic, holiday, informative and spirit promoting topics.

Uum, ungauwa, we've got that Trojan Power!



Mr. Sowell addressed students at assembly held during Patriotic week.

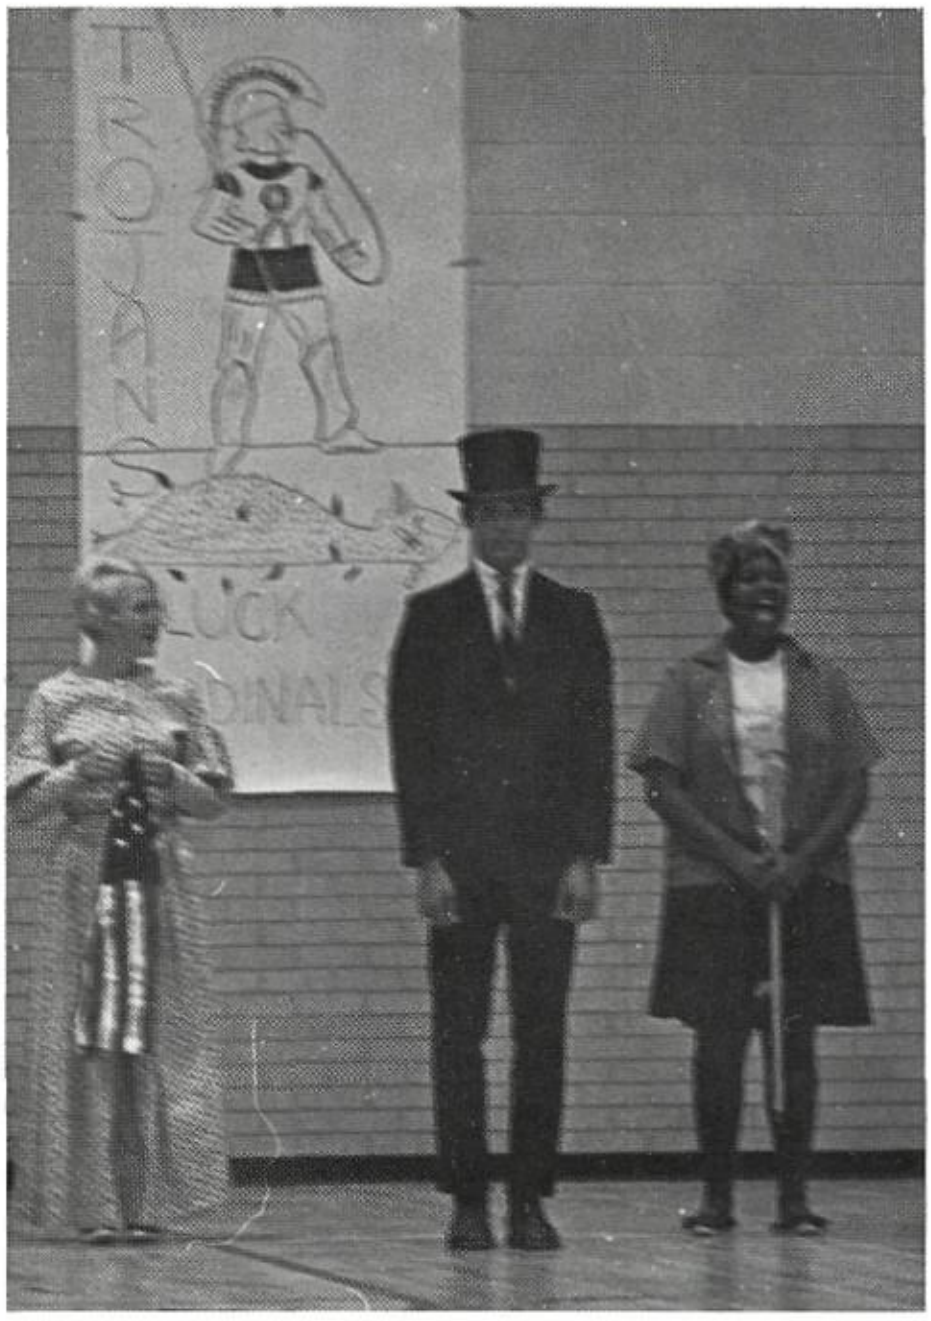
Student Drama



In a Patriotic Week assembly, students portray characters ranging from Betsy Ross to Abraham Lincoln.

Marsha Lively and John Cooper calm a hippie demonstration in the production "Peace on Earth?"

Janet Hyde performs an intricate pirouette.

Jody Christopherson, Miss Euless of 1969, beware!

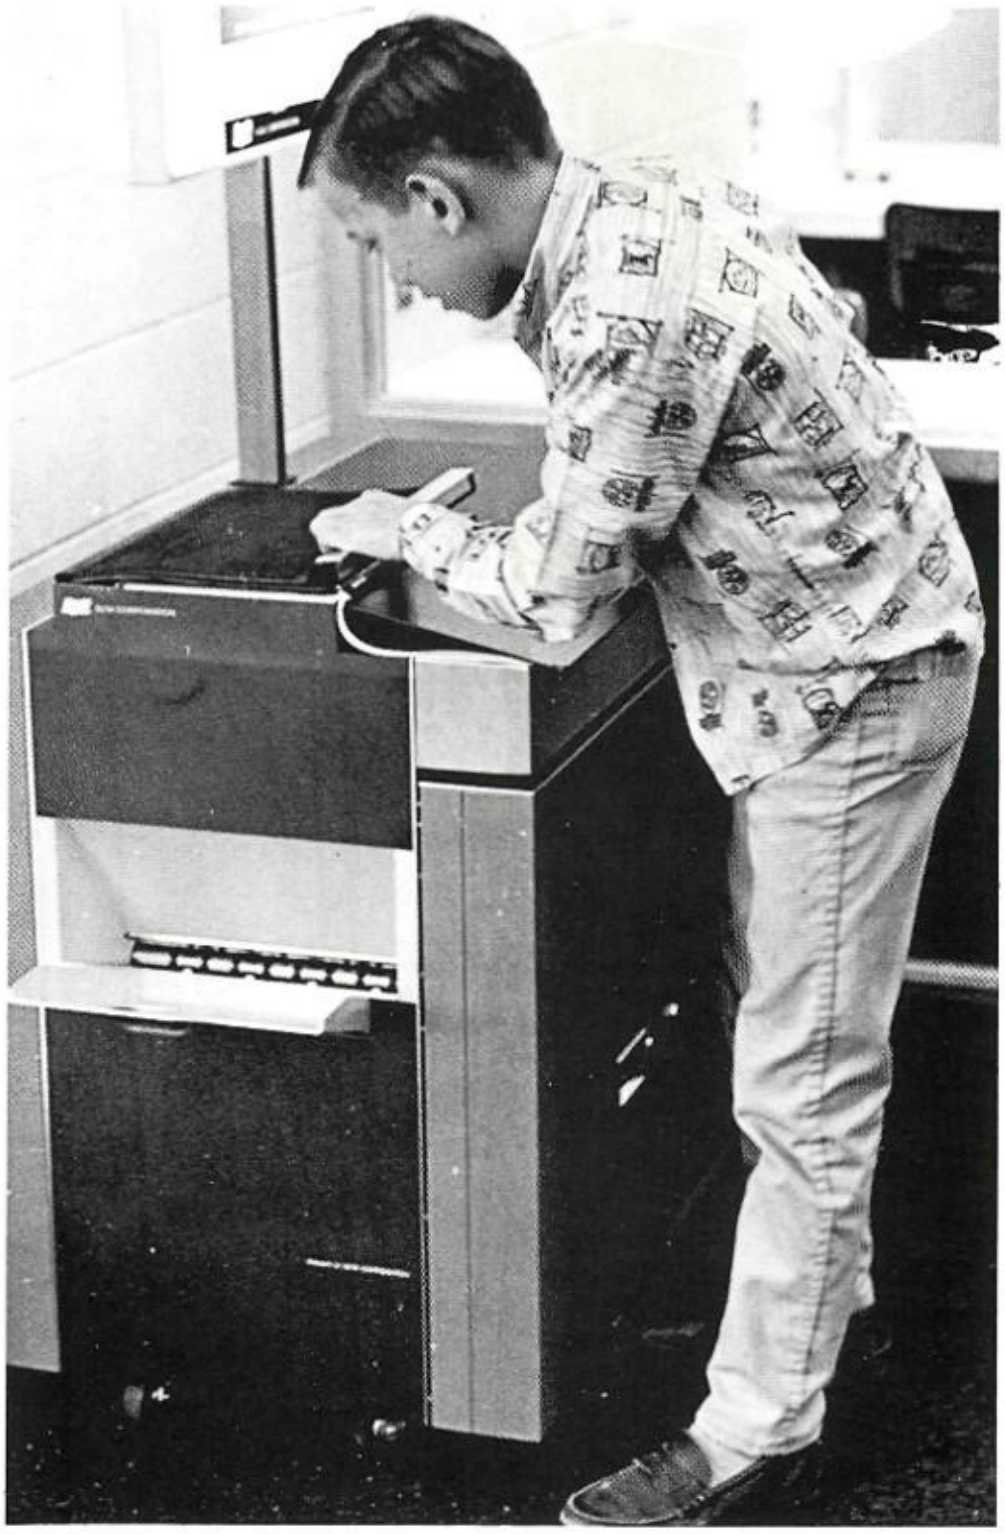
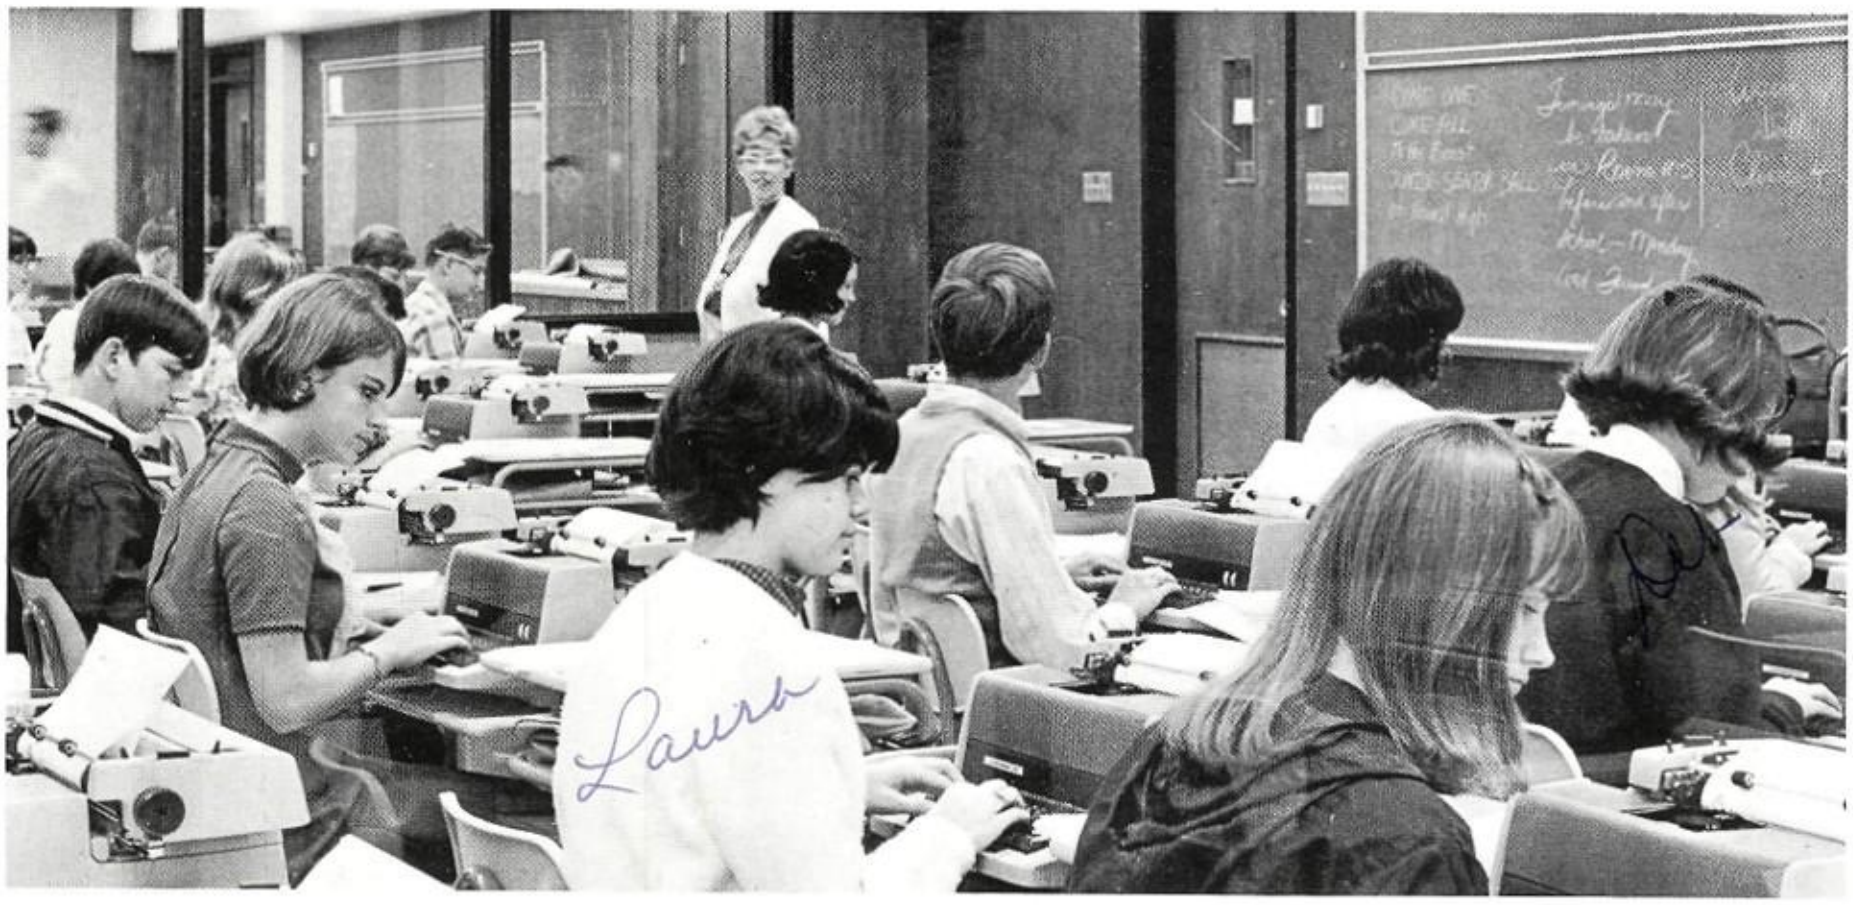
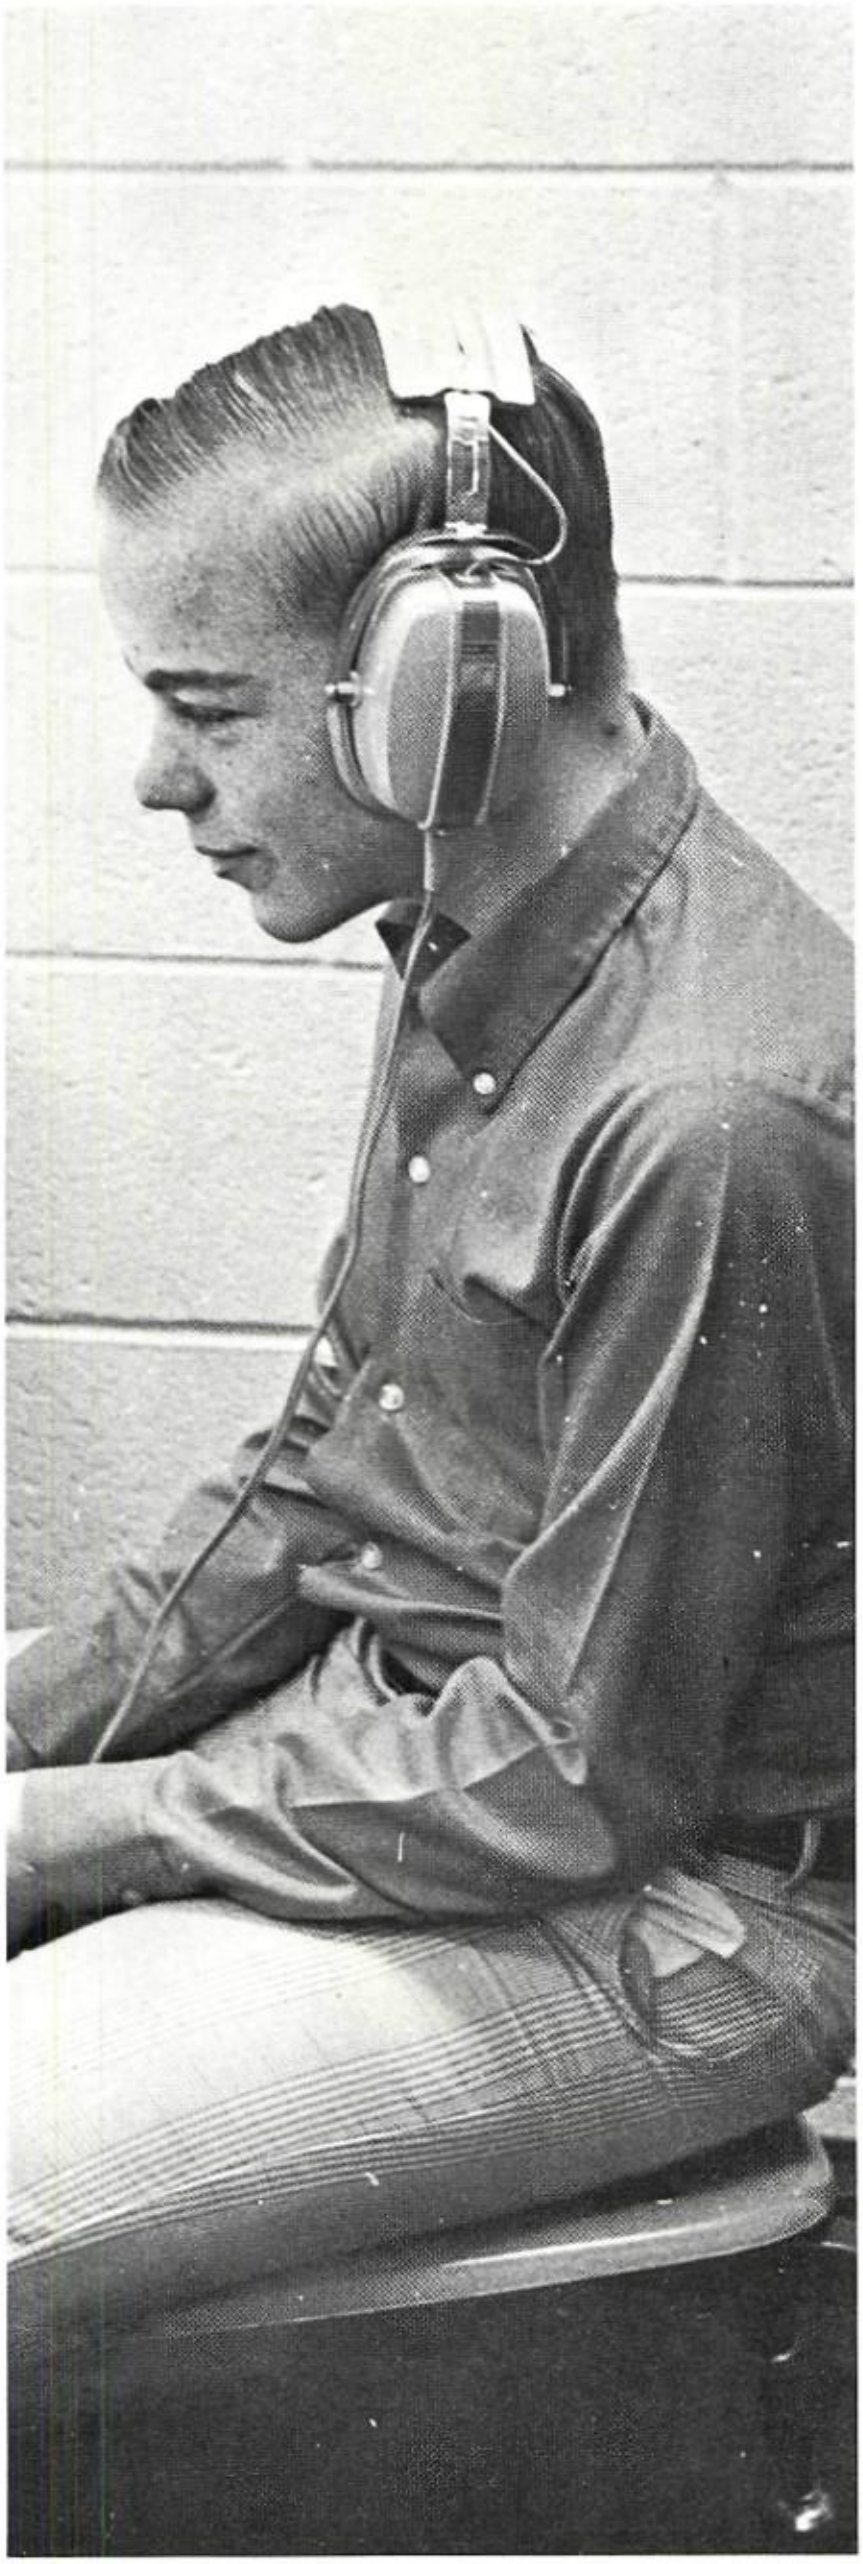
The Academic Process Stimulates Learning

The wide scope of facilities available to students enhances the curriculum of Trinity High School. Innovated teaching techniques are also being employed. The science, English, math and history departments participated in pilot programs ranging from new course offerings to team teaching and packet programs which permit the student to progress at his own rate of speed. By utilizing these material aids to learning and creative approaches to teaching, the Trinity campus strives to stimulate learning.



Don't push what button?

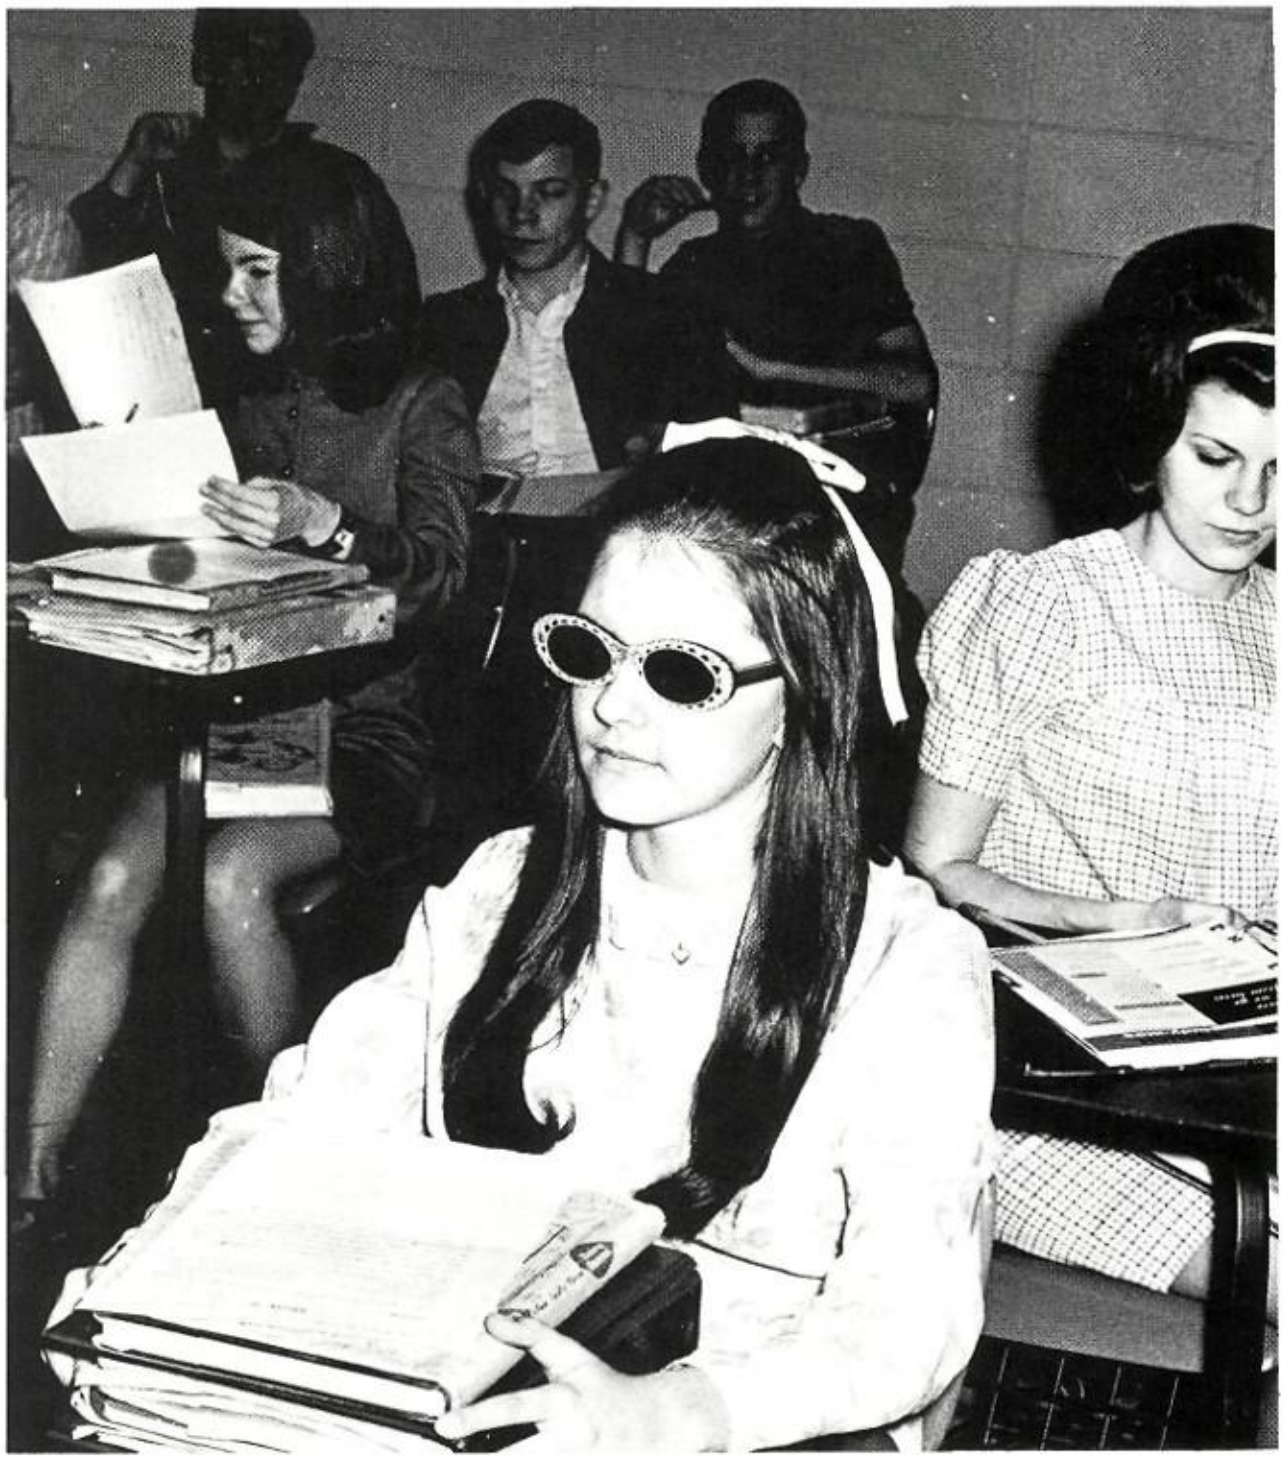




You've got to be putting me on!

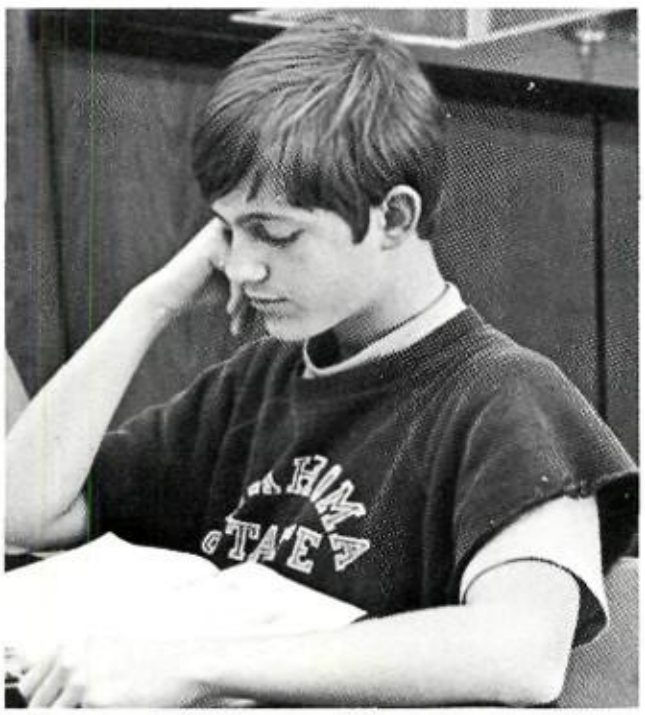
Student Dress

Gayland McNeal, the "L" stands for "love."



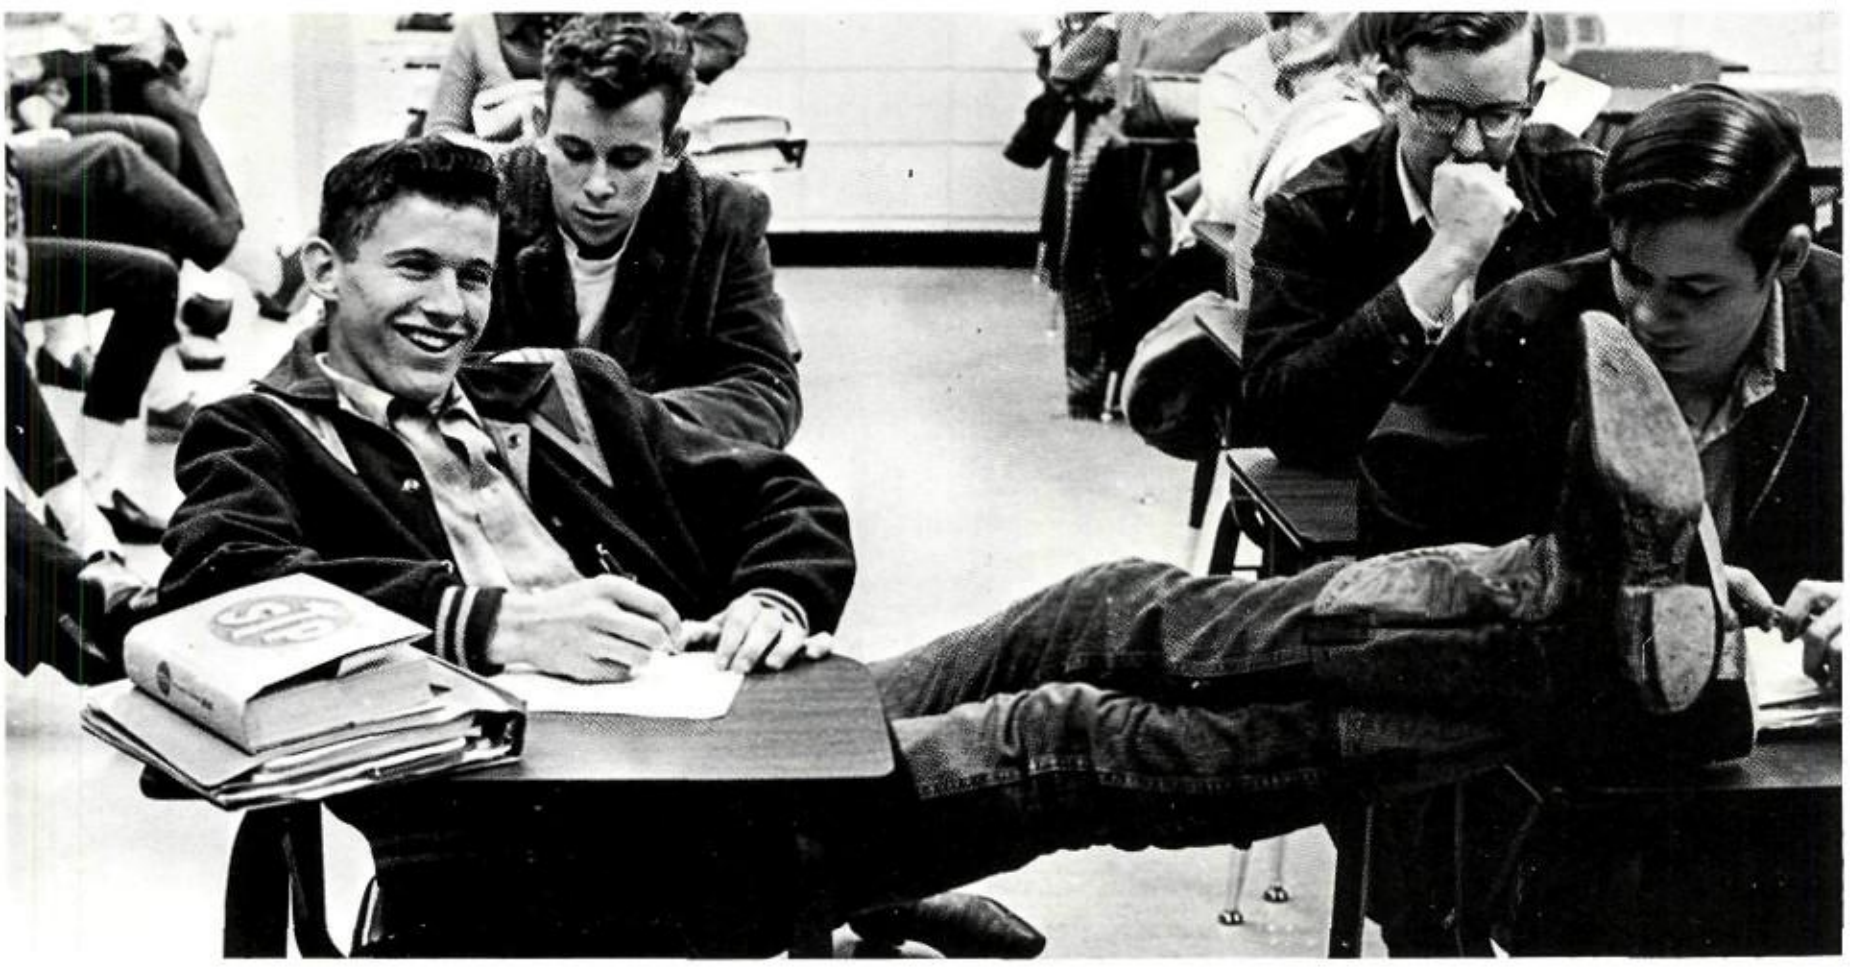
Dolores Havekorn tunes in to the daily class discussion.

Student dress at Trinity reflects individuality and personal taste. From the conservative to the mod dresser, on a small scale Trinity students represent trends and styles of our time. The controversy over dress standards was admirably met by student action through the Good Grooming Committee.



Steve Stokes introduces the comfortable sweat-shirt look.

Sherrie Larson, a striking model of secretarial efficiency.



The Great Society

Throughout the year, students participated in a variety of programs geared toward promoting wider school unity. They included the Christmas Ball, Valentine Dance, bonfires, a pre-school fashion show, Play-Day, and Twirp Week.

ACADEMICS

School Board Links School

Mr. Charles Wages, Superintendent of schools, is assisted by Mr. Ben Johnson, Mr. Bobby Hammond, and Mr. Parks. These men deal with the fields of finance, curriculum, and other important functions in the H.E.B. school system. Mr. Wages has been in the H.E.B. school system for twelve years, this being his first year as the superintendent of schools.

The main goal of the Board of Education is to link the schools with the community. Mr. Carl Huetter, president of the Board, has been in office for four years serving as secretary and president. The Board and Administrative staff are to be commended for their constant dedication to the tasks of planning schools and their location and attempting to meet the educational demands of a rapidly expanding system.

Thus the Board of Education assumes the heavy responsibility of linking the schools with the community.

Mr. Charles Wages, Superintendent of schools, reviews notes in a board meeting.

Mr. Wages' assistants are from left to right, Mr. Ben Johnson, Mr. Bobby Hamilton, and Mr. Richard Parks.

With Community

Mr. Murray Foresees Tomorrow . . . Today

Mr. B. J. Murray, principal of Trinity High, has been in the field of teaching for fifteen years. He served as principal at Central Jr. High for three years, he has also had previous experience as a teacher, associate principal, and football coach. Mr. Murray takes a special interest in student body activities. His contacts with faculty and students, his leadership and encouragement are a great asset to THS.

Mr. Murray and Mrs. Hill conduct workshop on the media center.

Mr. Murray makes the Monday morning announcements.

Mr. Murray gives student assistant Norma Kleiber last minute instructions.

To the Students and Faculty of Trinity High School:

Opening a new school at best is a real challenge. I feel that our first year has been a good one. This is due to the excellent cooperation of the student body, and faculty, and the acceptance of the community. In this first annual from Trinity High School, I simply want to say thank you.

Your principal,

B. J. Murray

B. J. Murray

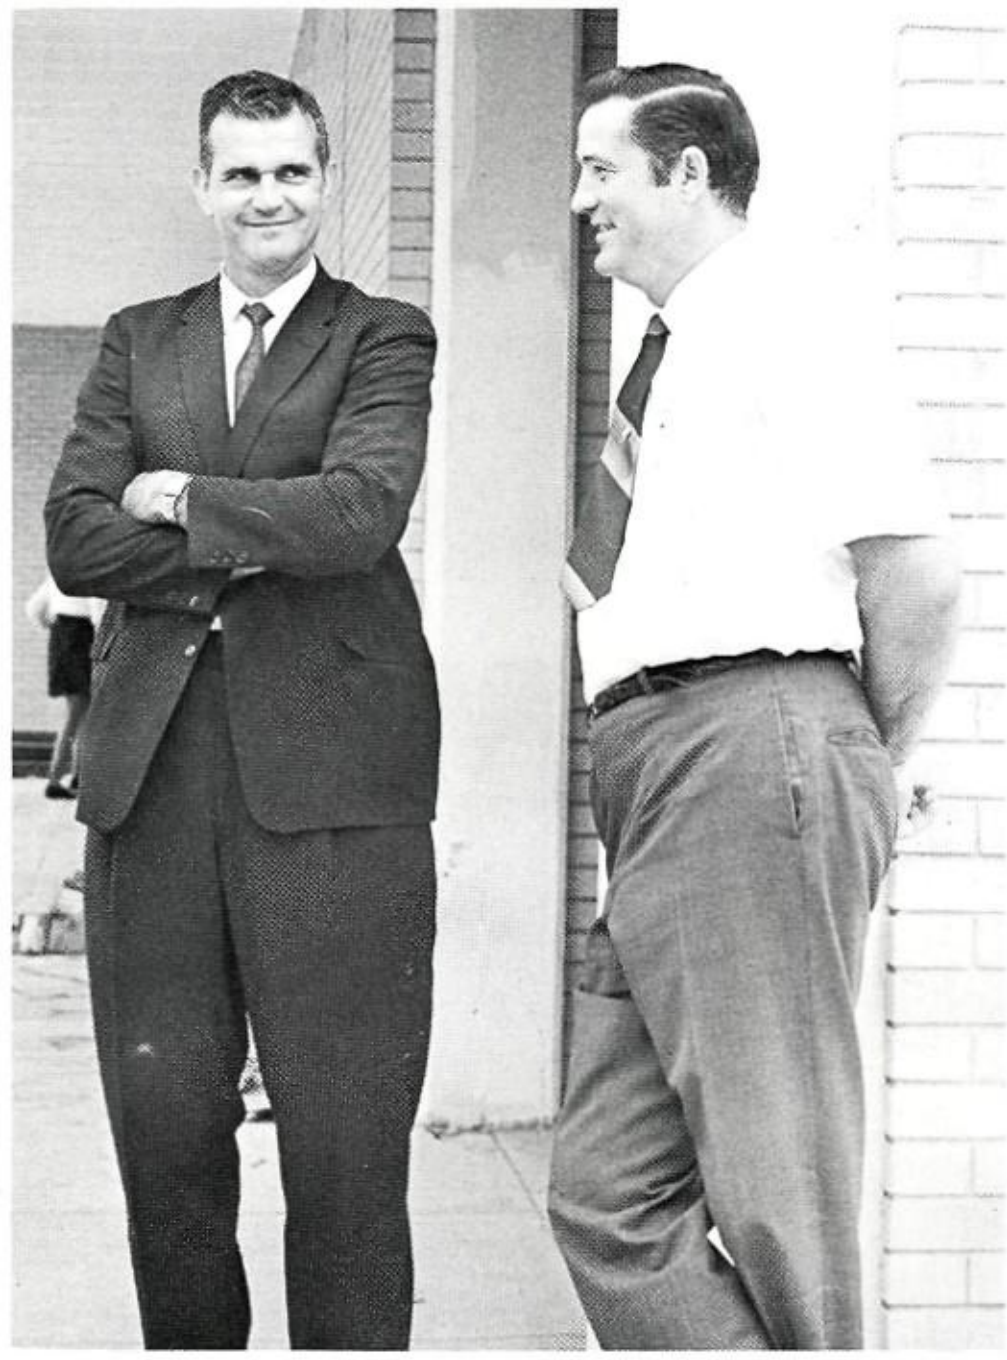
Best of luck, Linda
V. K. Shearburn

Mr. Shearburn — Associate Principal

Mr. Shearburn, associate principal, adds to Trinity's pride by enacting discipline policies, assisting in administrative purposes and supervising textbook distribution.

Mr. Shearburn attempts to keep communication lines open between students and administration.

Mr. Shearburn begins another day at Trinity.



Mr. Shearburn and Mr. Murray are constantly aware of the necessity of teamwork.

Mr. Murray and other administrators are in constant demand as tour guides for the Trinity campus.

Mrs. Ingram and Mrs. Sewell's co-operative efforts contribute to efficiency in the attendance office.

Registrar . . . Dean of Girls

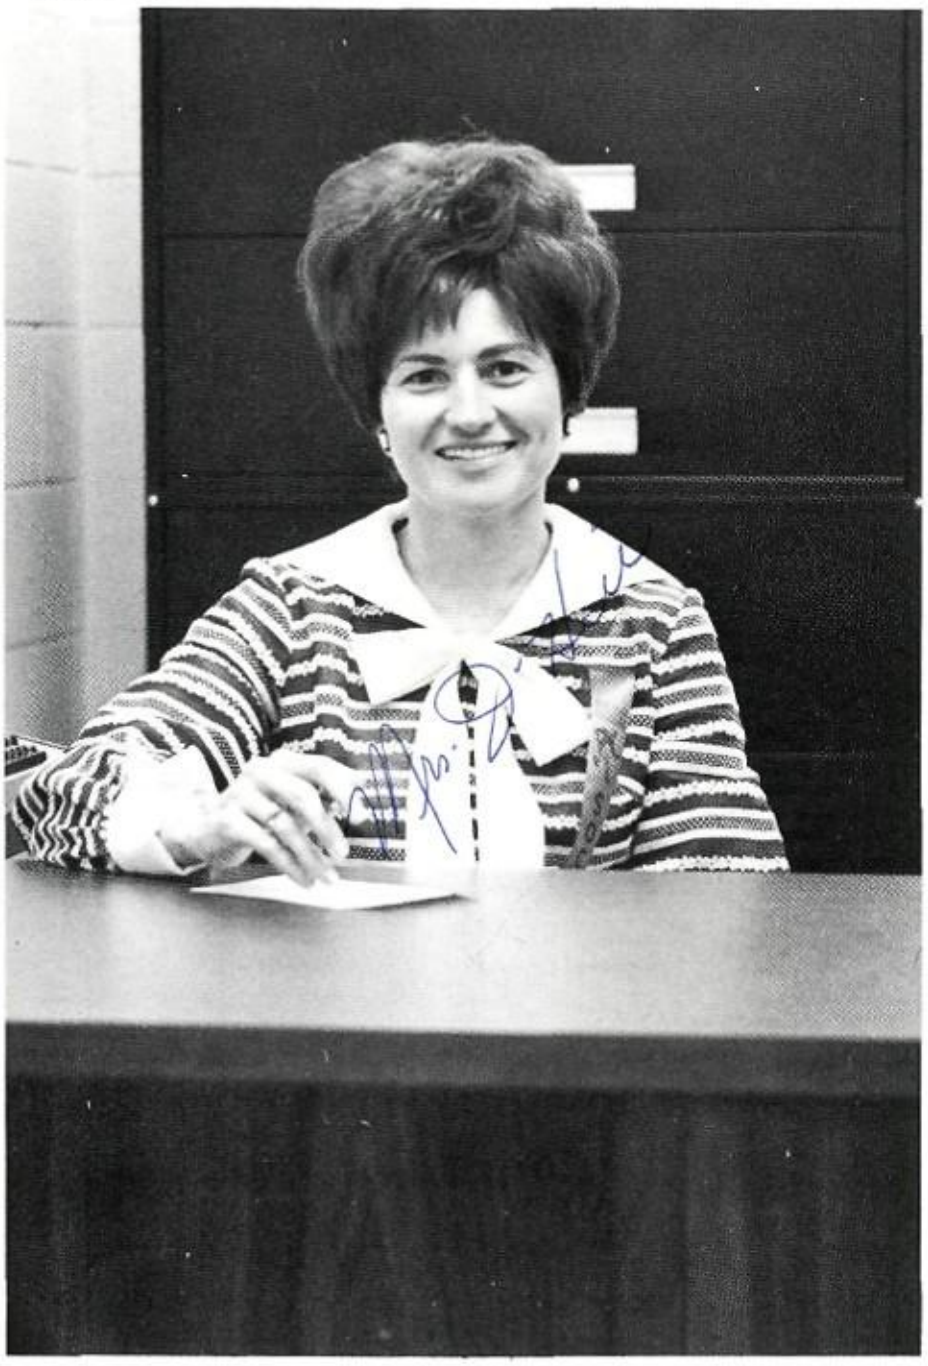
Mrs. Bettye Rucker, Dean of Girls, adds to Trinity's pride by encouraging high standards at Trinity.

Mrs. Rucker's duties also include publicity.

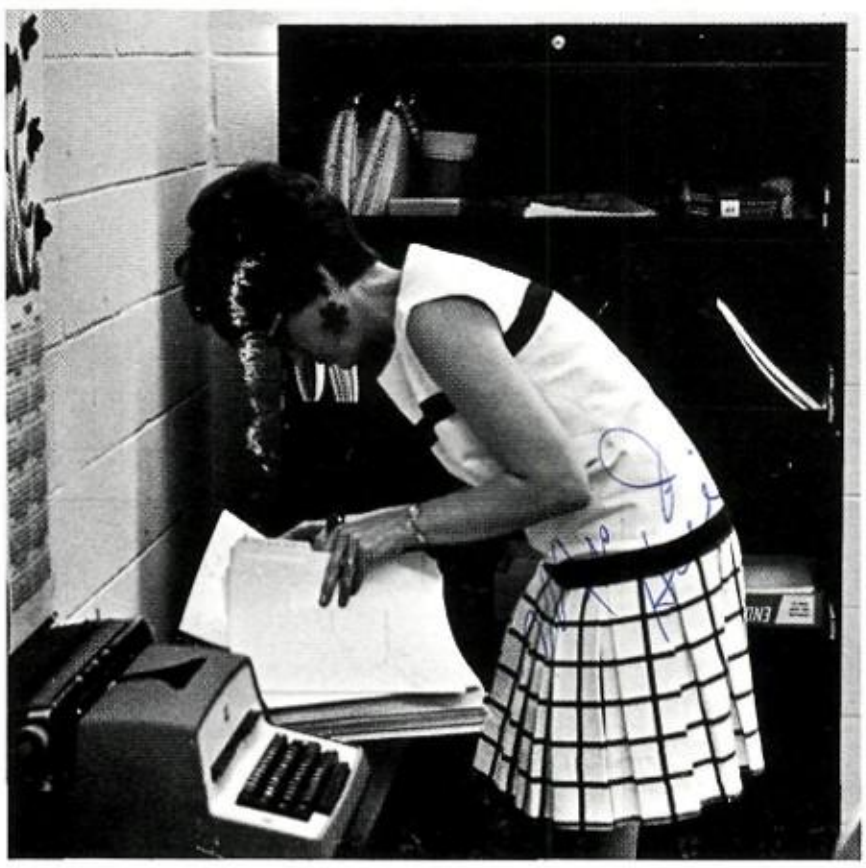
Mrs. Juana Hill, registrar, has the task of co-ordinating student schedules, along with other jobs, making Trinity number one.

Mrs. Rucker's friendly disposition assists in everyday problems.

Mrs. Rucker works diligently on student data.



Mrs. Hill, registrar, in her usual good humor.

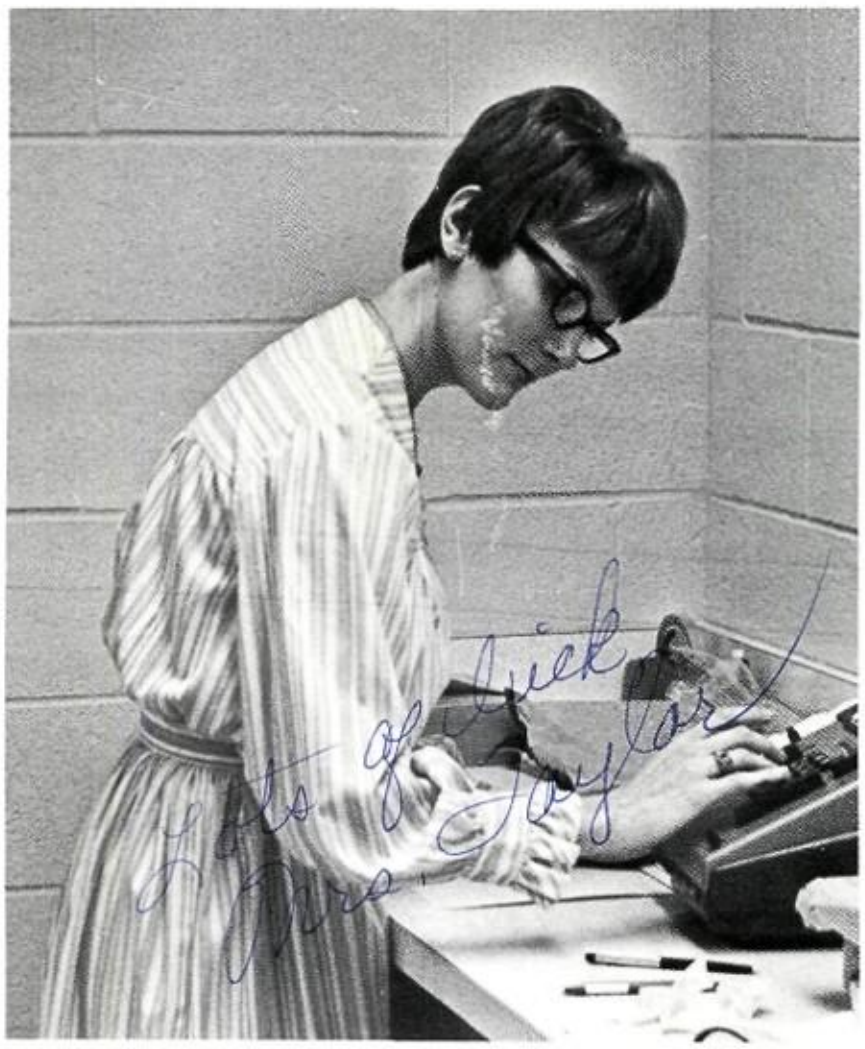


Mrs. Hill consistently keeps track of student schedules.

Counselors

The Trinity High School student counseling program encourages students to develop self-understanding, gain a general knowledge of the world of work, and plan for his future.

Counseling services are available to all students. Through a one-to-one relationship, professional personnel guide students in helping themselves. Pre-college and achievement testing programs evaluate student progress and capabilities. Preregistration counseling further directs the student in planning a curriculum to meet his personal needs.



Mrs. Taylor uses one of the adding machines.

Mr. Ingle prepares for a big year.

Mr. Murray and Mr. Ingle look over the sight of the future Trinity High School.

Secretaries

Mrs. Ingram, attendance clerk, stays busy answering the phone.

Counselor's secretary, Mrs. Boyce assists the counselor.

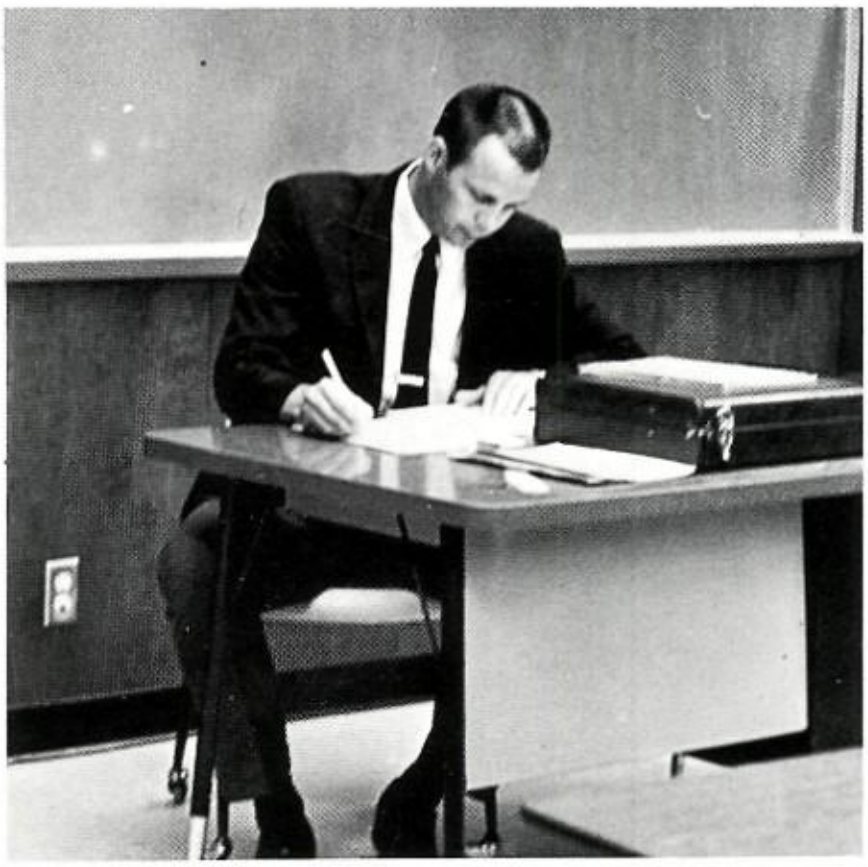
Work never ceases for Mrs. Corbin, Mr. Murray's secretary.

FACULTY

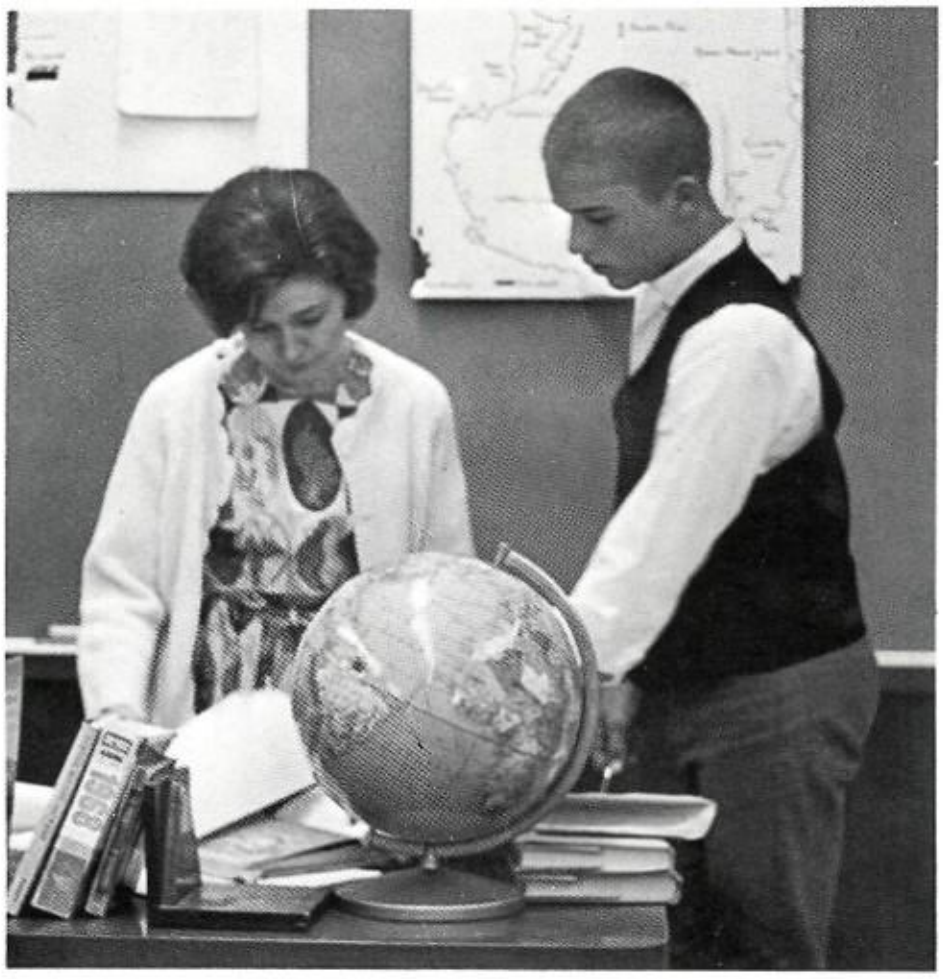
Social Studies Enriches Curriculum



Mr. Wiley plans another day of classwork.

Mrs. Hamilton catches her breath between classes.

Mr. Banner expounds on current trends in American politics.



Students find geography an aid to the study of history.

Smile, Mrs. Foreman you're on candid camera.

Mr. Haws takes advantage of Thermo-Fax facilities.

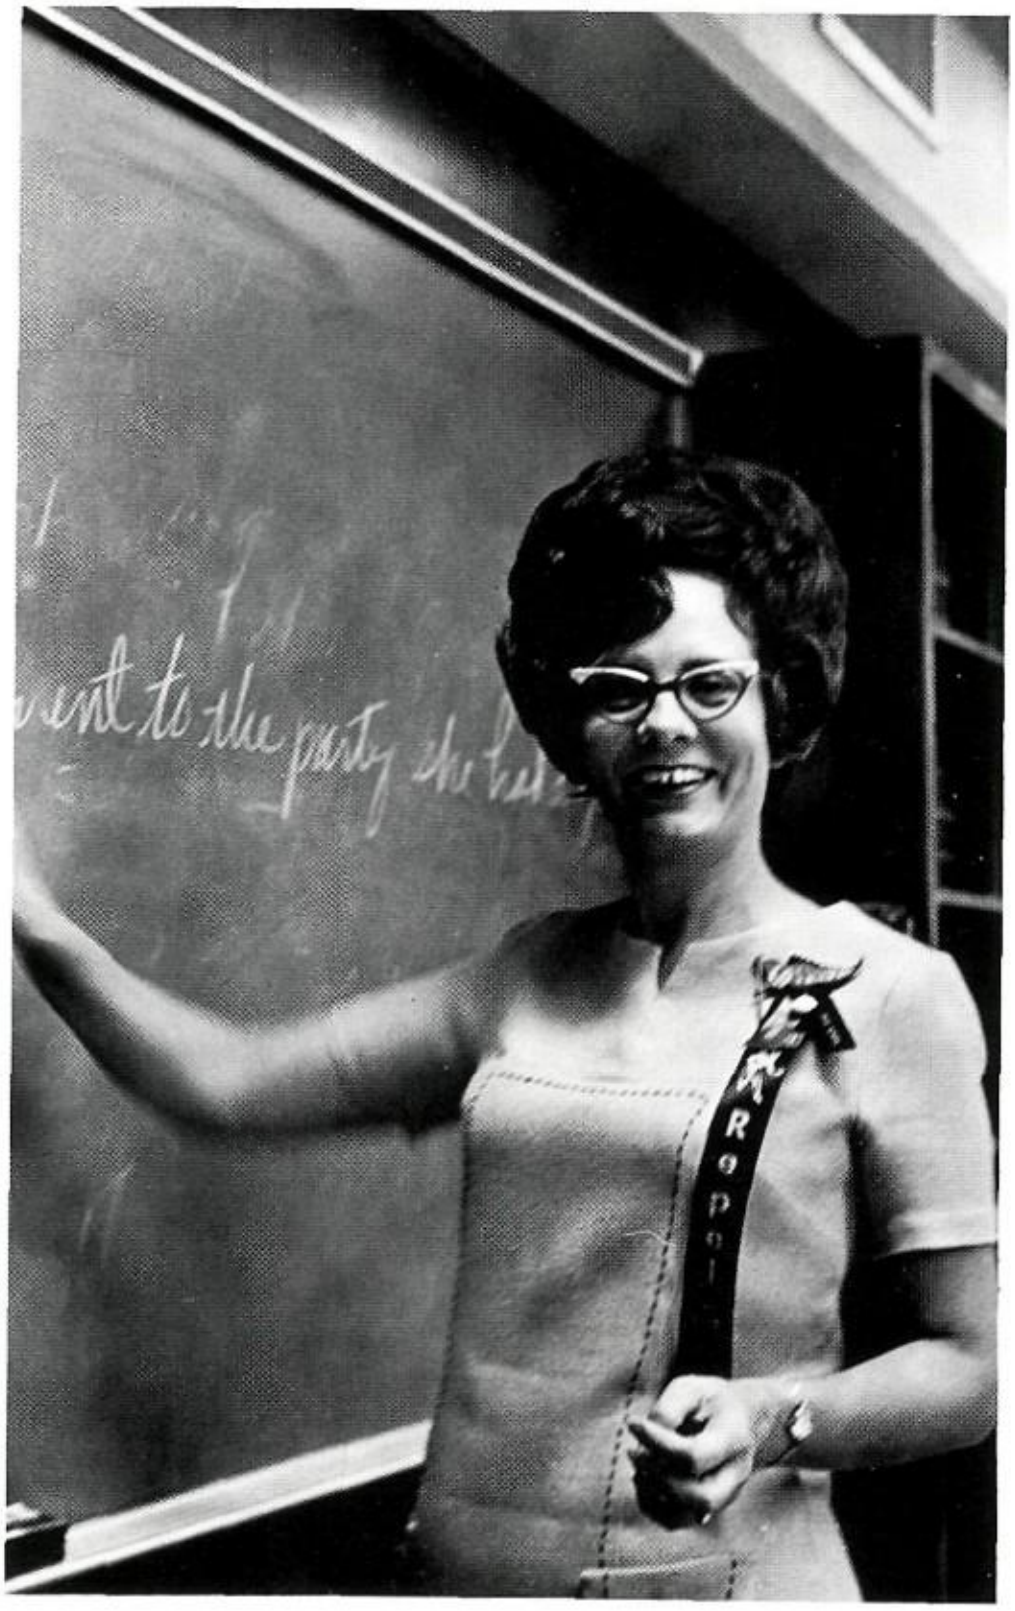
The goals of the Social Studies Department, include helping the students gain a better understanding of contemporary America and an appreciation for our Democratic way of life. Through a study of history, students acquire a better idea of their fellow men and how to react in their environment. In order to understand the present and to develop an appreciation of our American ideals, students must have a knowledge of other governments and ways of life.

The curriculum of this department includes: American history, world history, and world geography. Available to all social studies teachers are filmstrips, films, records, record players, transparencies, overhead and movie projectors.

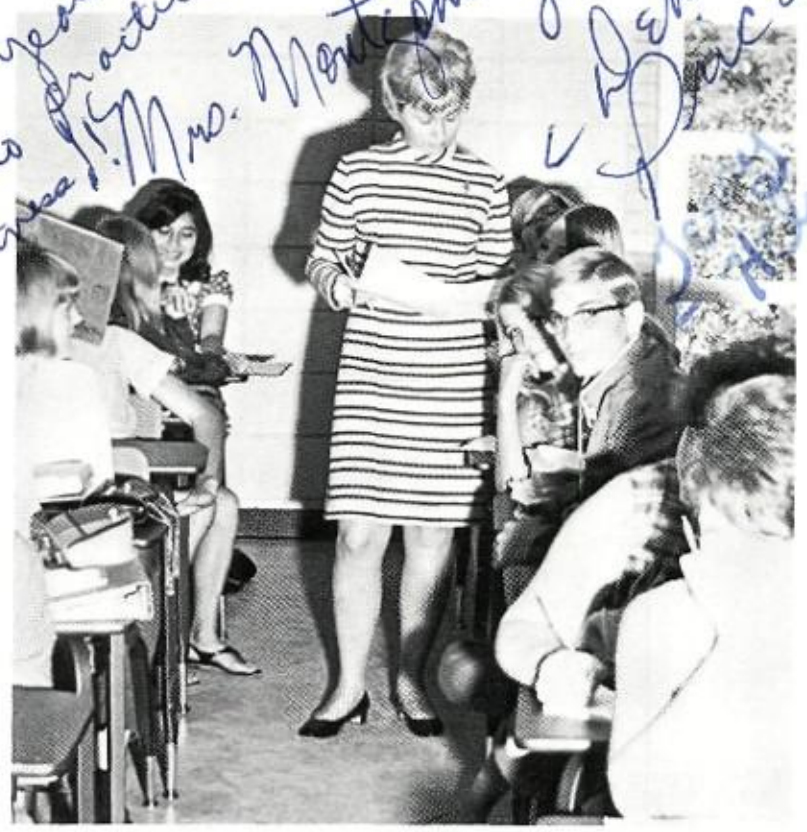
Mr. Garrison plans another one of his inspiring lessons.

English Curriculum Is Communication Conscious

Mrs. Daunis enjoys herself.

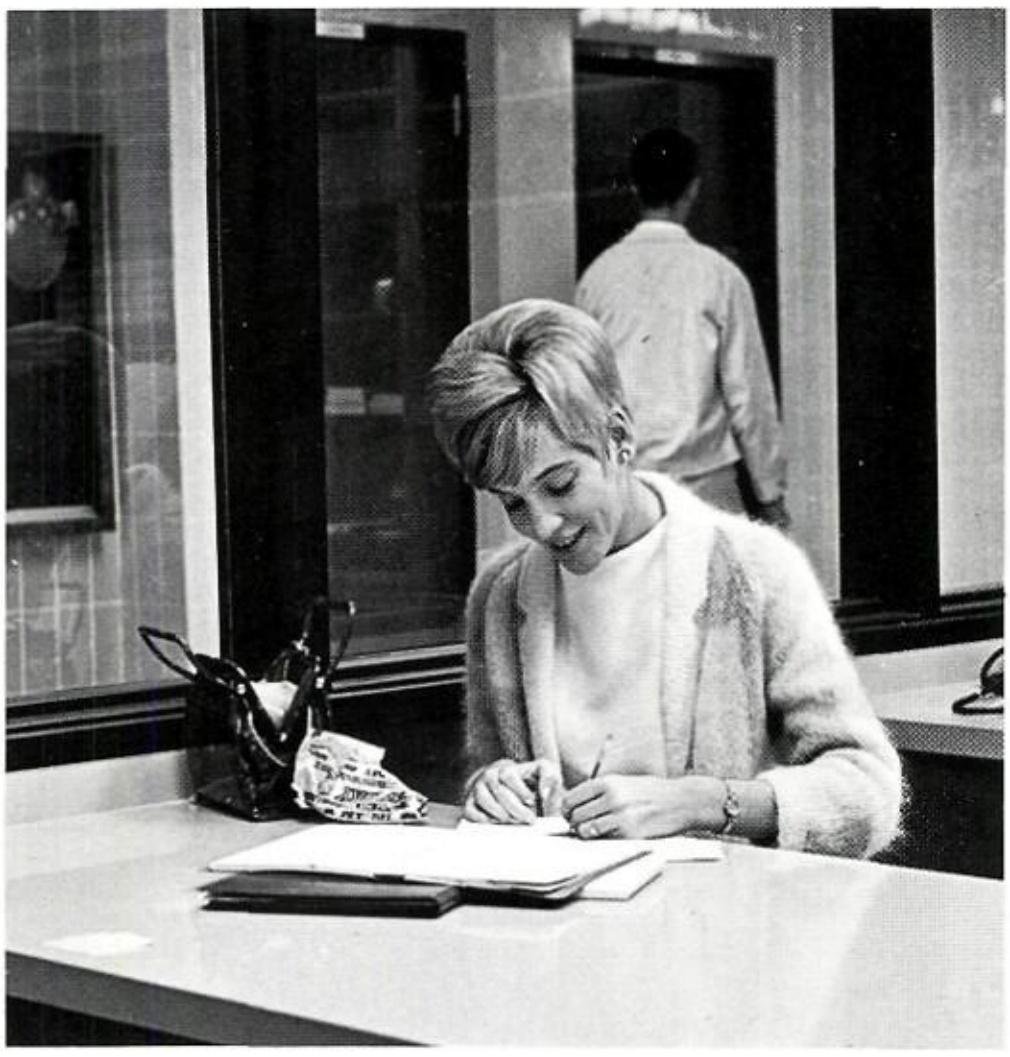


Mrs. Johnson teaches grammar in the true "Trojan Spirit."



English class is not always work, is it?

English teachers discuss curriculum.



Miss Farrell records six weeks averages.

Mrs. Monroe leads in class discussion.

Mrs. Johnson cheerfully faces another day.

Communication skills serve as a basis for the English course of Trinity High School. These skills include public speaking, discussion, recitation, creative writing, writing of all standard types, spelling, grammar, and literature. Literature is correlated through the study of English literature on the senior level, American literature on the junior level, and a combination of the two on the freshman and sophomore levels. The use of the Scholastic Literature Units, an innovation in the use of paperback books, presents theme centered literature on topics ranging from survival to personal codes. The living textbook, a study made possible by the Star-Telegram, introduces the newspaper as a vital form of literature. In the classroom, literature becomes a mode of action; students develop an empathy for others and acquire self-understanding.

The Practical Writer, an aid in the development of compositions skills, attempts to prepare juniors for college by providing a plan of study on the topics ranging from procedures for taking an essay test to theme and paragraph writing.

Team teaching facilities will provide the opportunities of combining efforts of the faculty in the future. A record library, overhead, filmstrip, opaque, and movie projectors; tape recorders and record players are also valuable teaching aids provided for departmental use.

Fine Arts Adds to Curriculum

Mrs. Gordon expresses ingenuity, the key to creativity.

Band director Mr. Reavis aids in making Trinity number 1.

The department of Fine Arts enriches students in such fields as drama, art, band, and chorus. Trinity's Fine Arts department is well equipped with all the materials needed to make a successful department. Our teachers are well qualified to help students interested in any one of these fields.

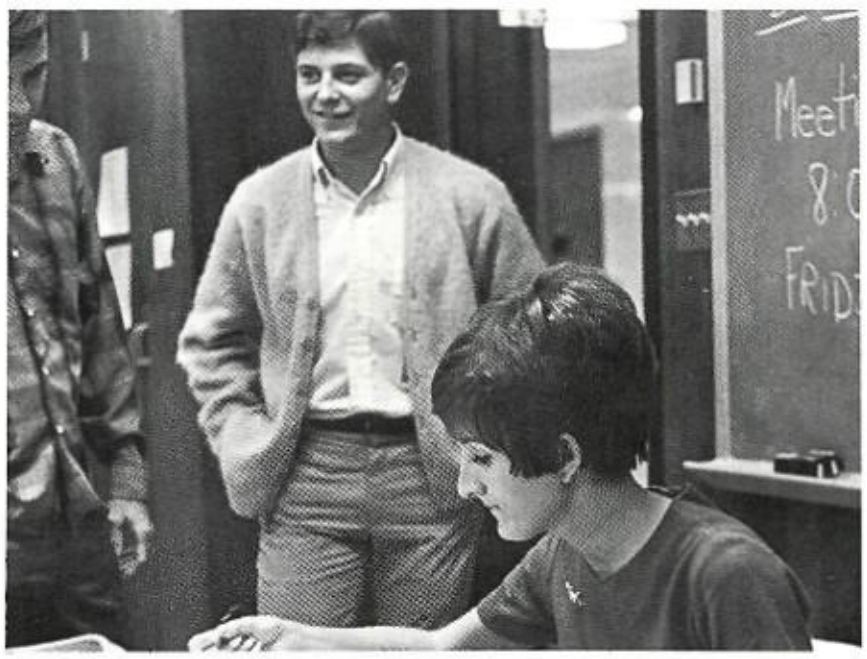
Mrs. Richards, chorus teacher, directs the Trinity High School choir.

Mrs. Brown is in charge of the fine Speech and Drama Department at Trinity.

Business

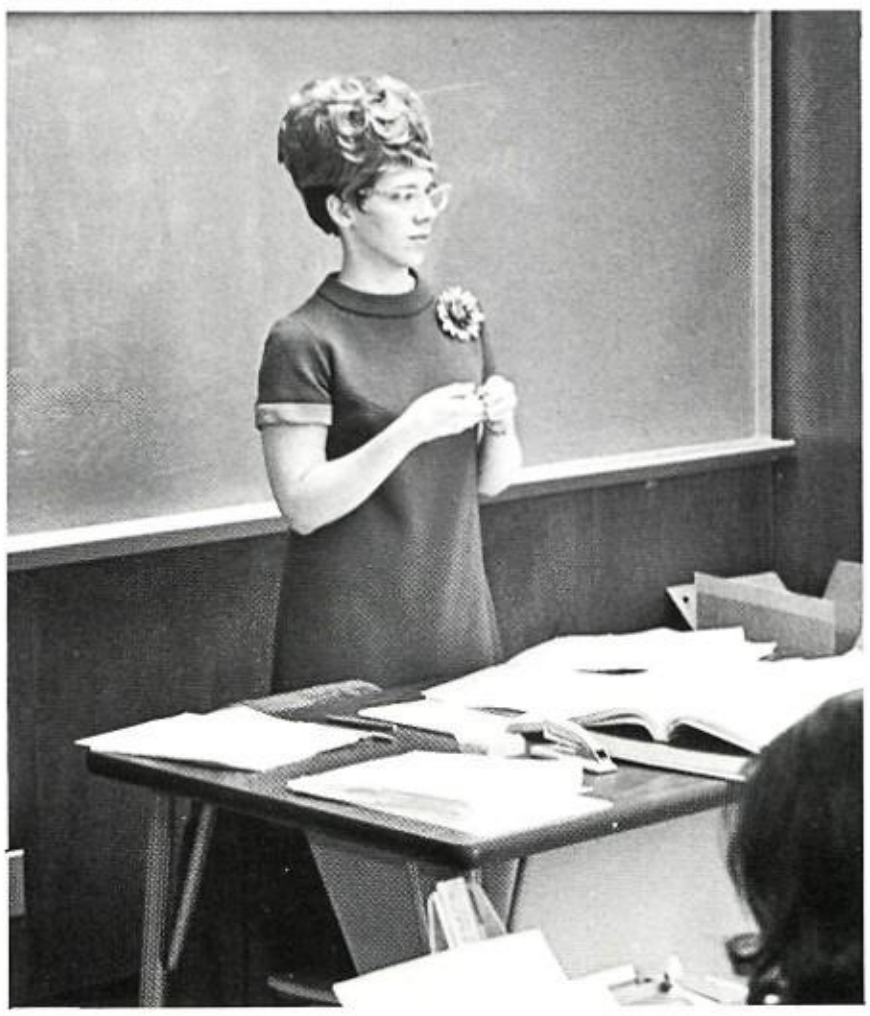
The primary goal of the Business Department is to help our young people learn to live and work in the world around them. Our students learn skills that will enable them to go to work in the business community prepared for the challenges of life. Our students also know something of the business world around them after they graduate. Trinity High School is fortunate to have one of the best business departments in the state.

Miss Horton stresses time is of the essence.



Mrs. Miller works with D. E. in an effort to enrich curriculum.

Mrs. Moore illustrates the effectiveness of a good business back ground.



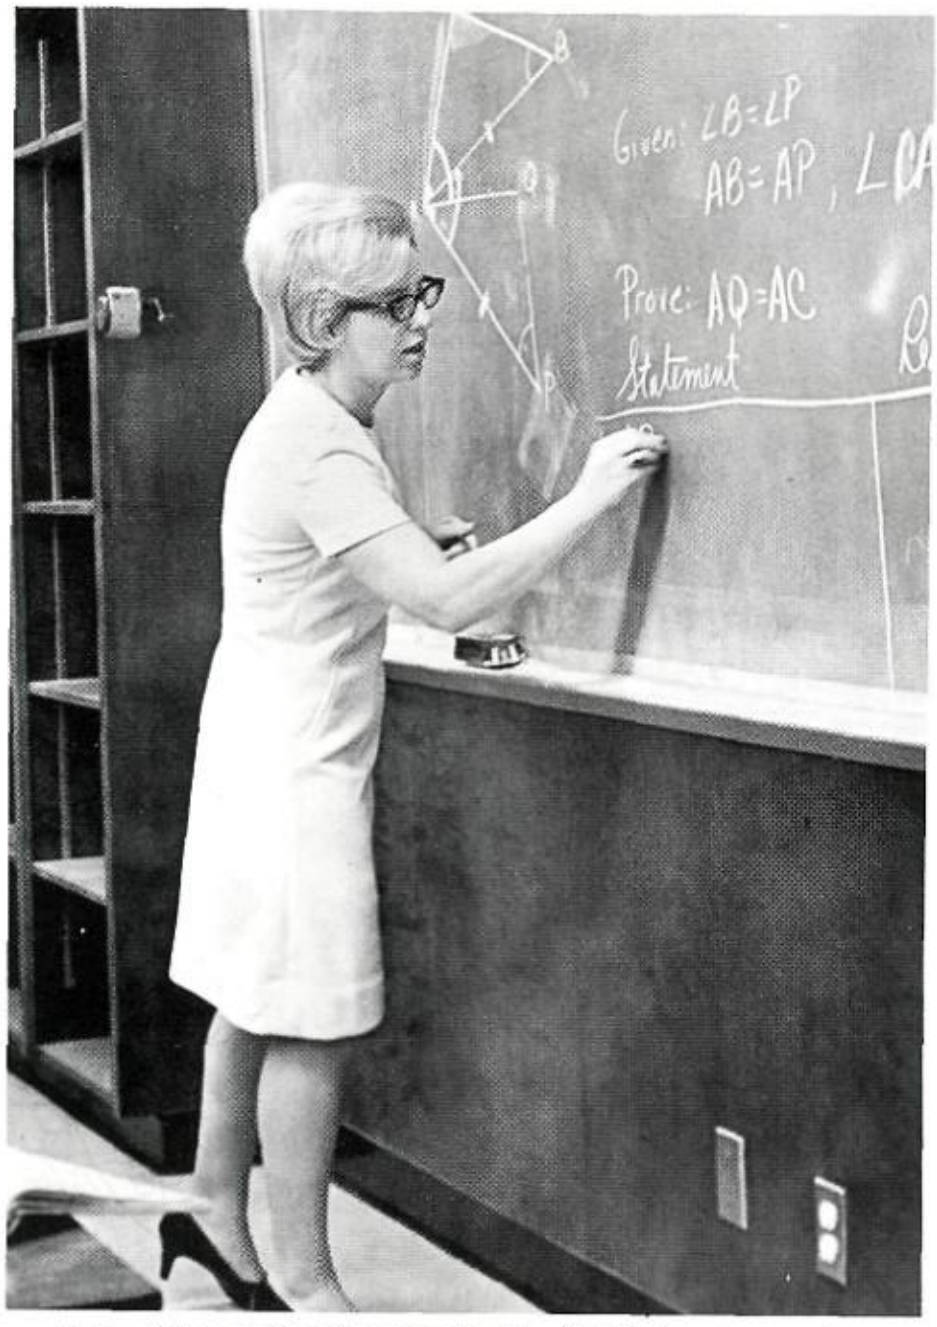
Mrs. Hamilton expresses the importance of practice.

Mathematics

The purpose of the mathematics curriculum is two-fold: to provide the students with the necessary understanding and skill in dealing with the quantitative aspects of life and to make available to the college-bound students courses that will structure the background necessary for many of today's technical fields of study.

Every mathematics classroom is equipped with an overhead projector and adequate chalkboard space with painted-on graphs. Math teachers have available to them a variety of mathematics teaching aids and supplies including chalkboard drawing instruments, overhead transparencies, demonstration math tables, and miscellaneous visual aids.

Several math teachers are currently involved in formulating a programmed course of study for selected areas in mathematics whereby the student can work at his own rate with teacher's supervision.



Mrs. Giesler teaches methods of solving geometry problems.

Use of the overhead is made by Mrs. Dolbow.

Miss Wilkinson prepares her daily plan.

Mr. Key finds his slide rule amusing.

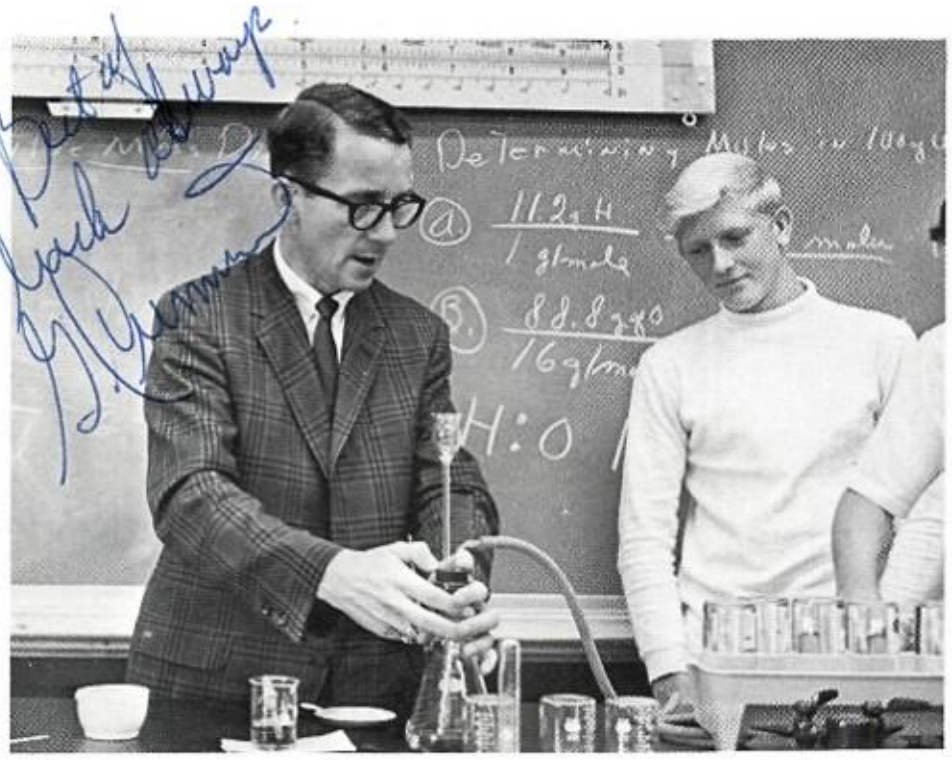
Mr. Phillip starts out another Monday.

Mr. Pogue's transparency machine strikes again!

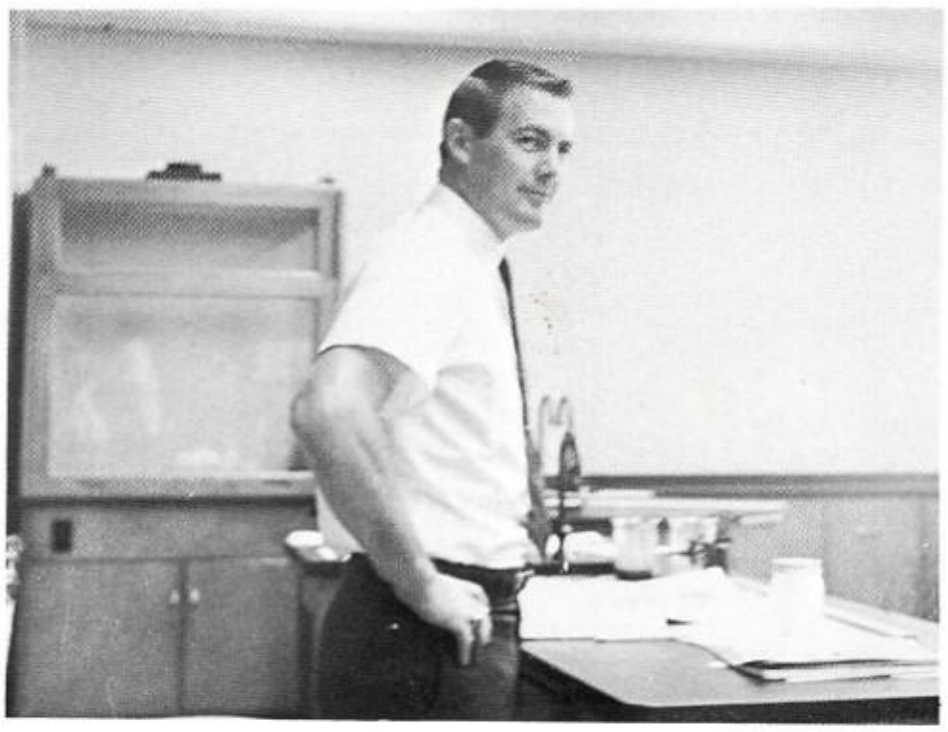
Miss Reynolds has one, too ---!

Mr. Glover pauses in mid experiment, "Alright, already who dropped the fizzie in the bottle?"

Mr. Schutts gives the photographer a hurried glance on his way to the science building.



Mr. Cummins conducts another experiment in the realm of science.



Mr. Teddlie greets his students with an ominous gaze.

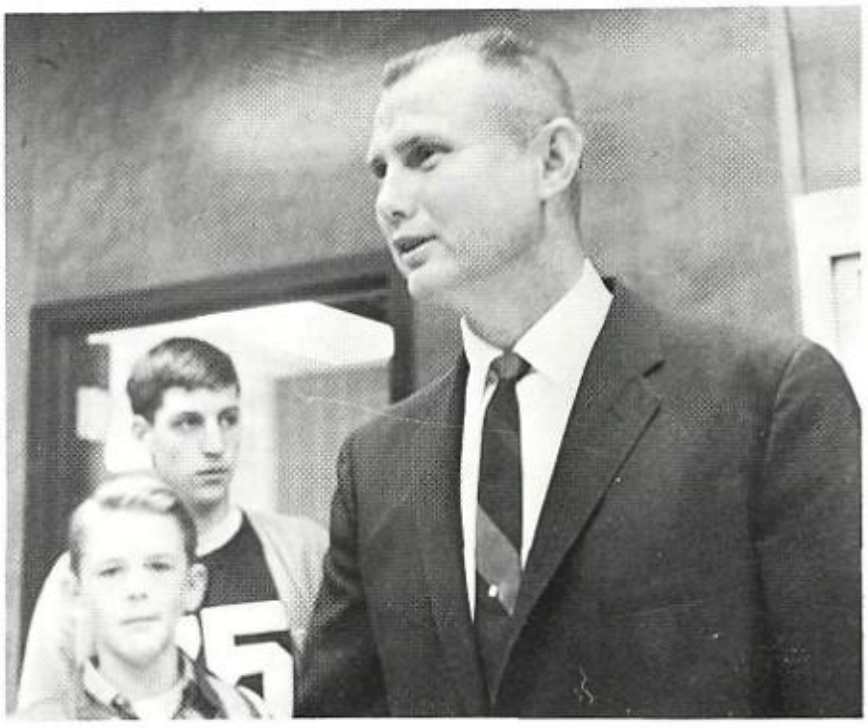
Science

The primary goal of the science department is to provide students with the opportunity to select science courses that will prepare them for work or college after graduating from high school.

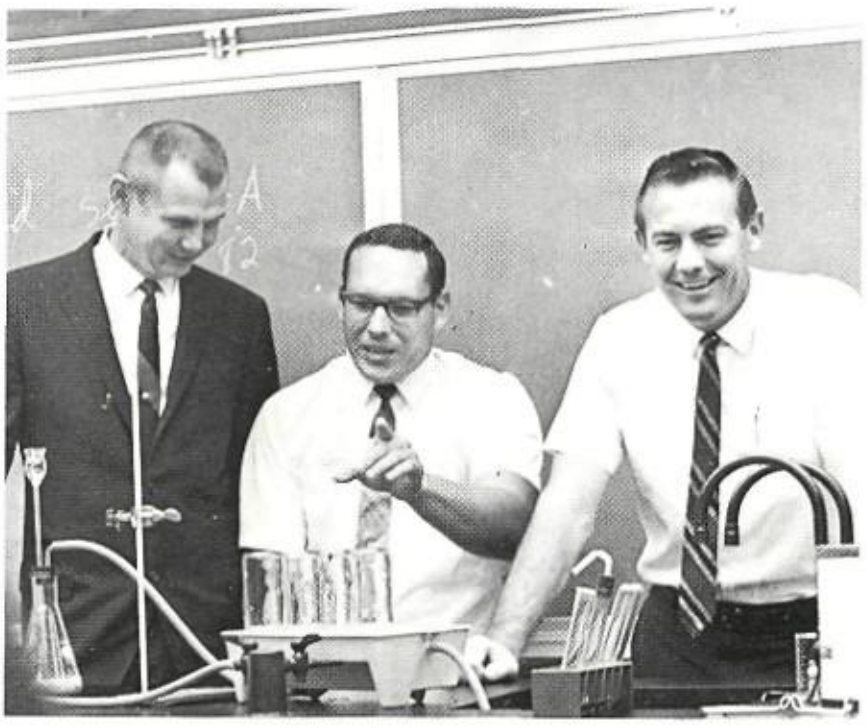
The curriculum includes physical science, biology, and chemistry.

Departmental facilities consist of three chemistry rooms, one physics room, four biology rooms, and a lecture room and adjoining projection room designed for team teaching.

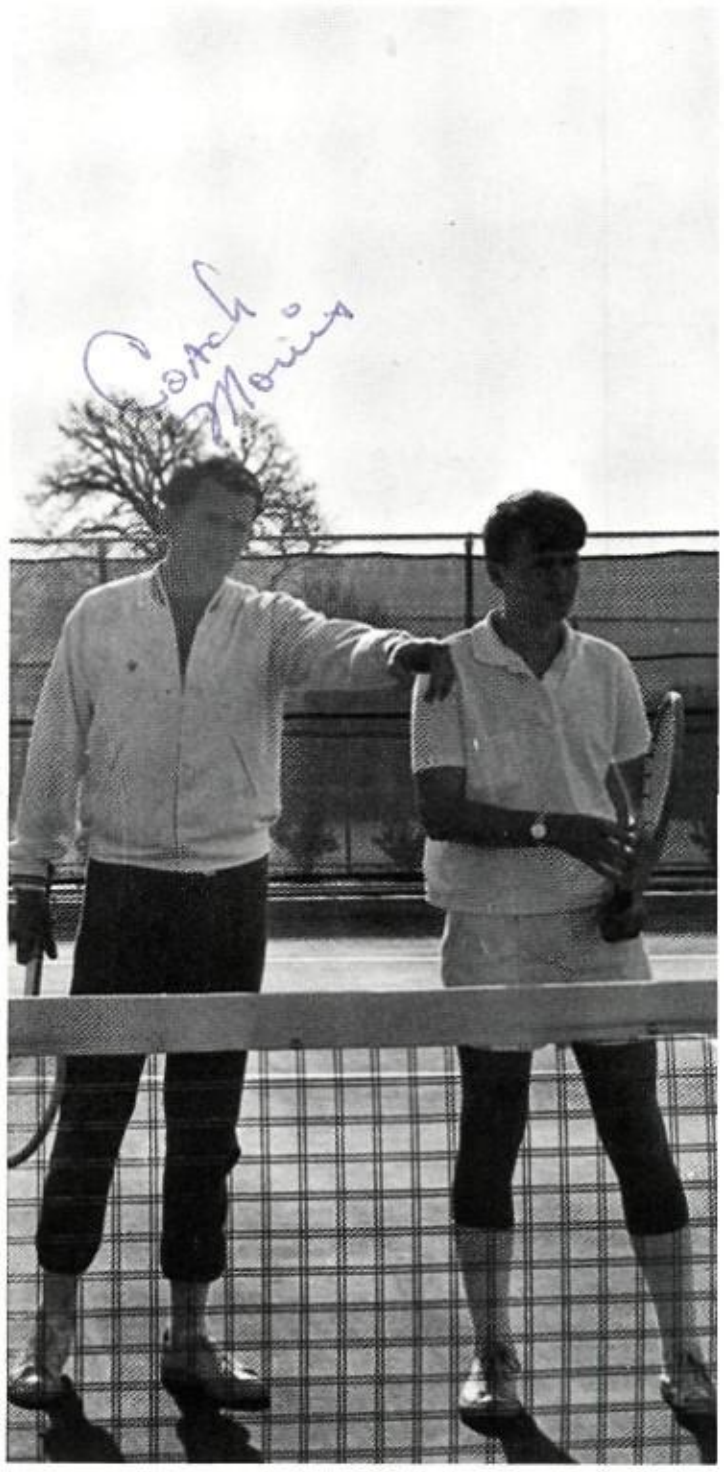
Mr. Lade strikes again!



Mr. Curtis the epitomy of - - -



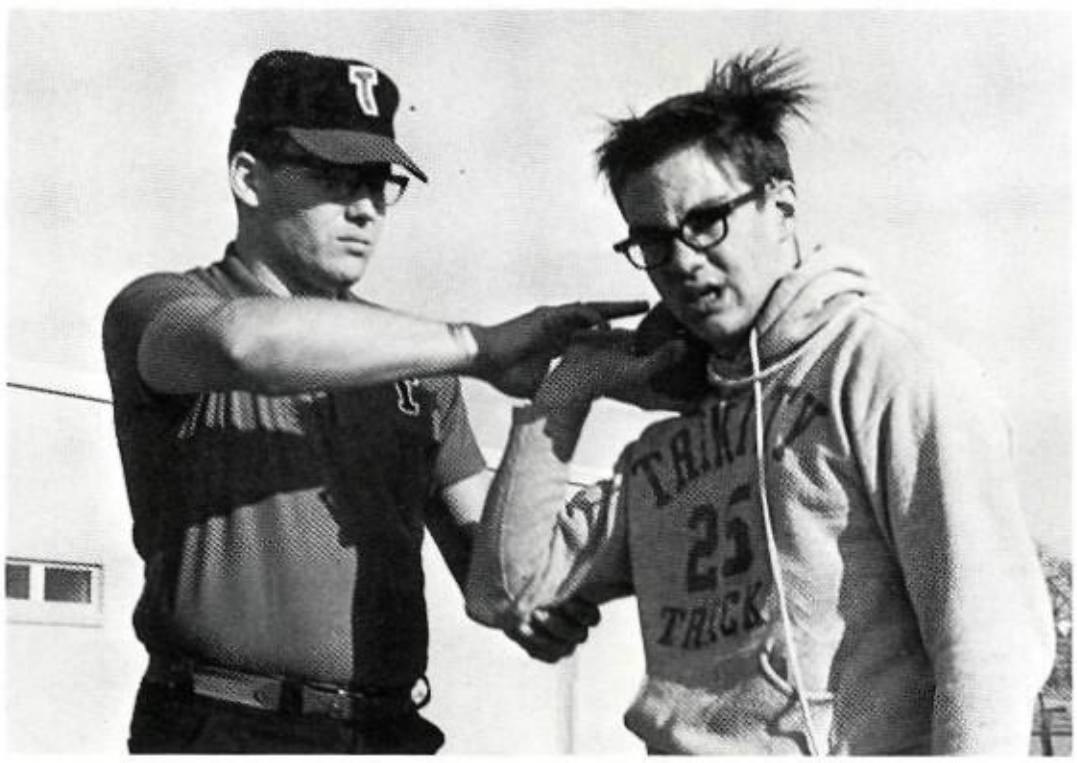
Mr. Curtis, Mr. Glover, and Mr. Teddly - "The Big Three"



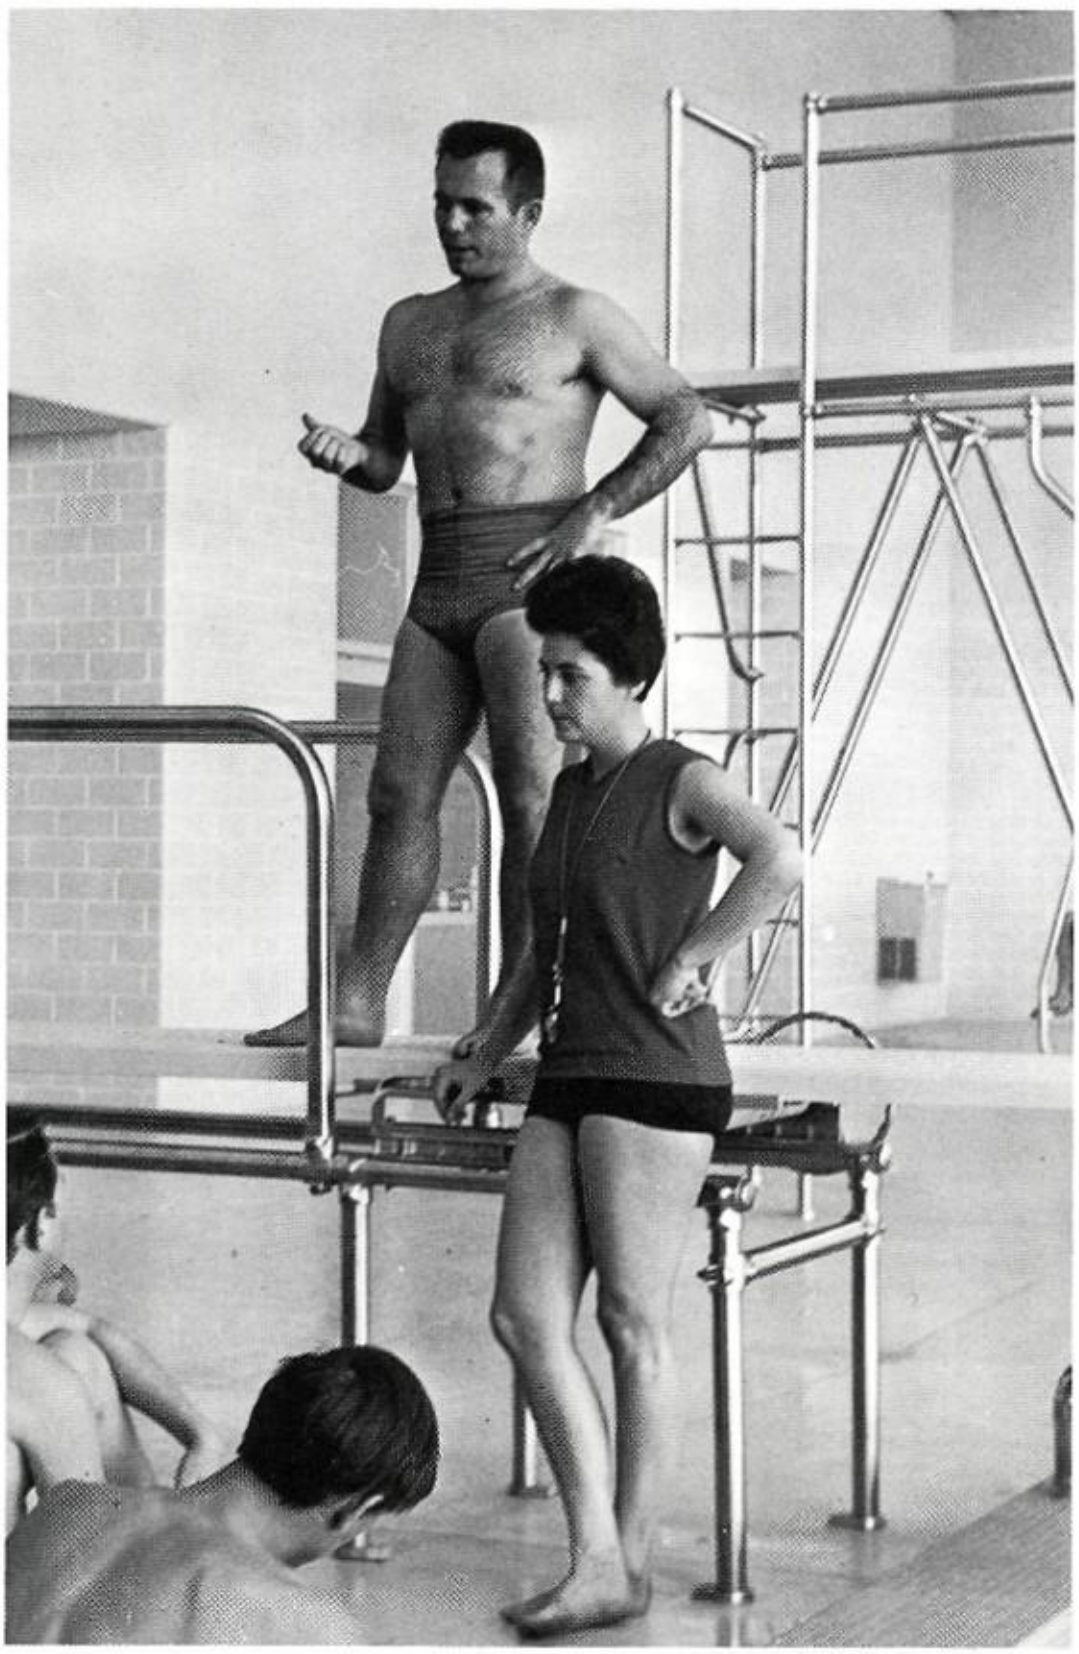
Mr. Morris directs Randall Davis in positioning his ball.

Trinity's P.E. Department provides excellent facilities for our physical education program. Gymnastic equipment is available for use, also a special weight room is provided. For swimming purposes a new Olympic-size pool is furnished. A boys' and girls' gym are also used regularly.

Our Health Department provides background knowledge for a more healthful existence in our modern society. Students are instructed in the functioning of the human body and cause and prevention of disease.



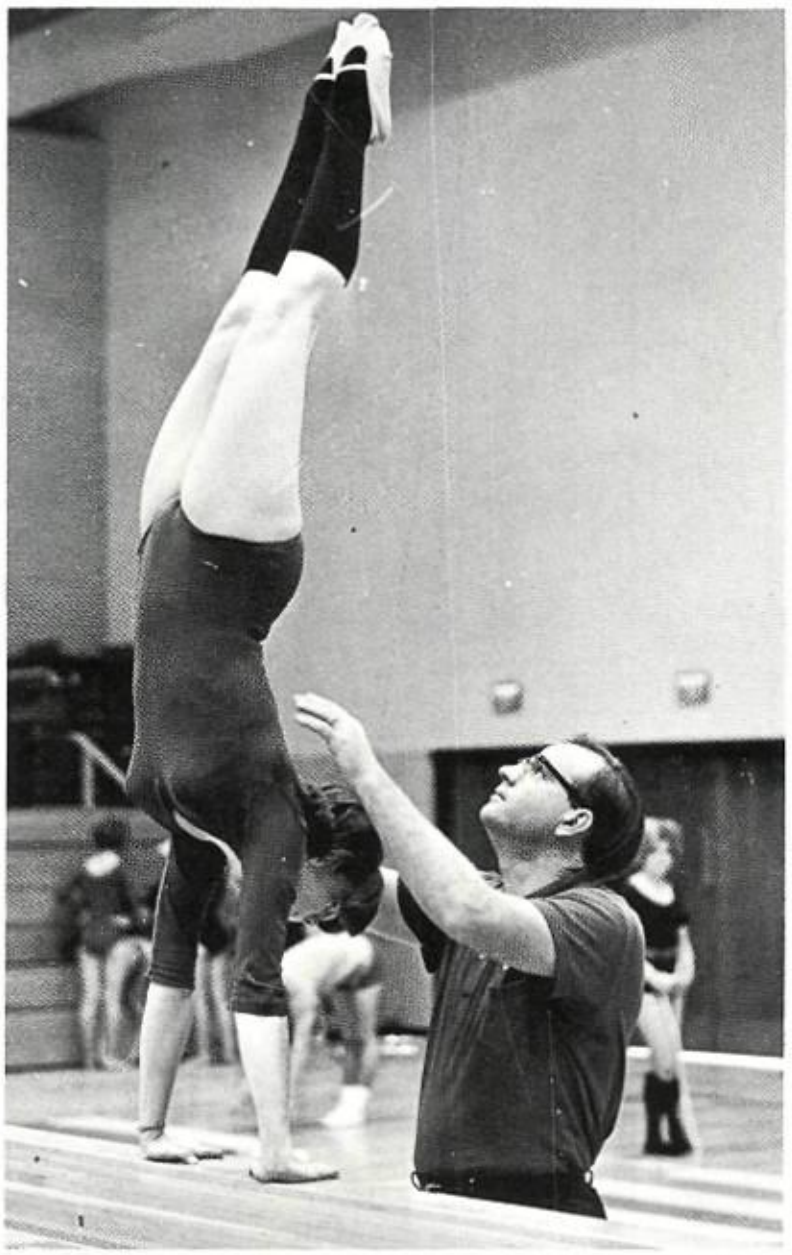
Ronnie Wren's pained expression shows need of assistance from Mr. Glover in handling the shotput.



Coach Foglesong (alias Charles Atlas) assisted by Miss Holleman, instructs swimming classes.

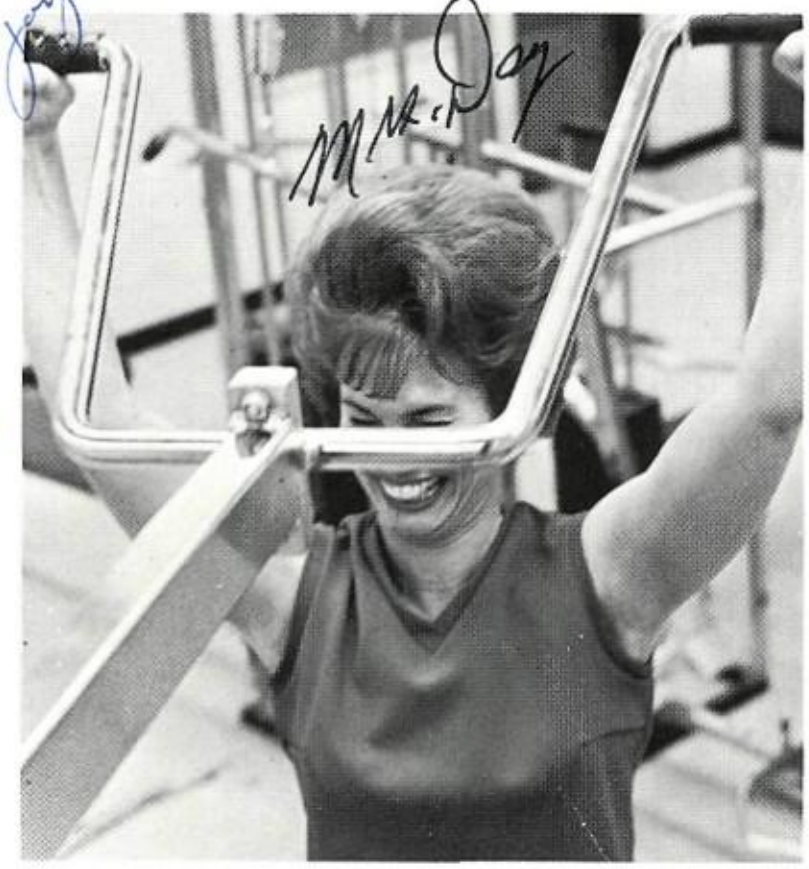
P.E. — Health

Mr. Harville and Mr. Higginbotham wait to see who's next in line for the printing machine.



Mr. Milan, gymnastics instructor, assists Pam Clemmens on balance beam.

Mrs. Forman - a good example of a versatile teacher, teaches P.E. and history.



Mrs. Day practices her daily exercises.

It has been nice knowing you - Best of luck in the future - Mrs Day

Home Economics

The goal of the homemaking department is to help the individual to live a useful and satisfying personal family and community life.

The course of study is designed to assist students in developing within themselves outstanding ideals, attitudes, convictions, purposes, understandings, and loyalties which help them achieve satisfying home living.

The program is centered on home activities and relationships which will enable the youth to assume the responsibilities of homemaking.

Trinity High has provided us with complete lab facilities. The methods of teaching homemaking include group discussions, demonstrations, and an opportunity to join millions of other girls in the nation in the Future Homemakers of America.

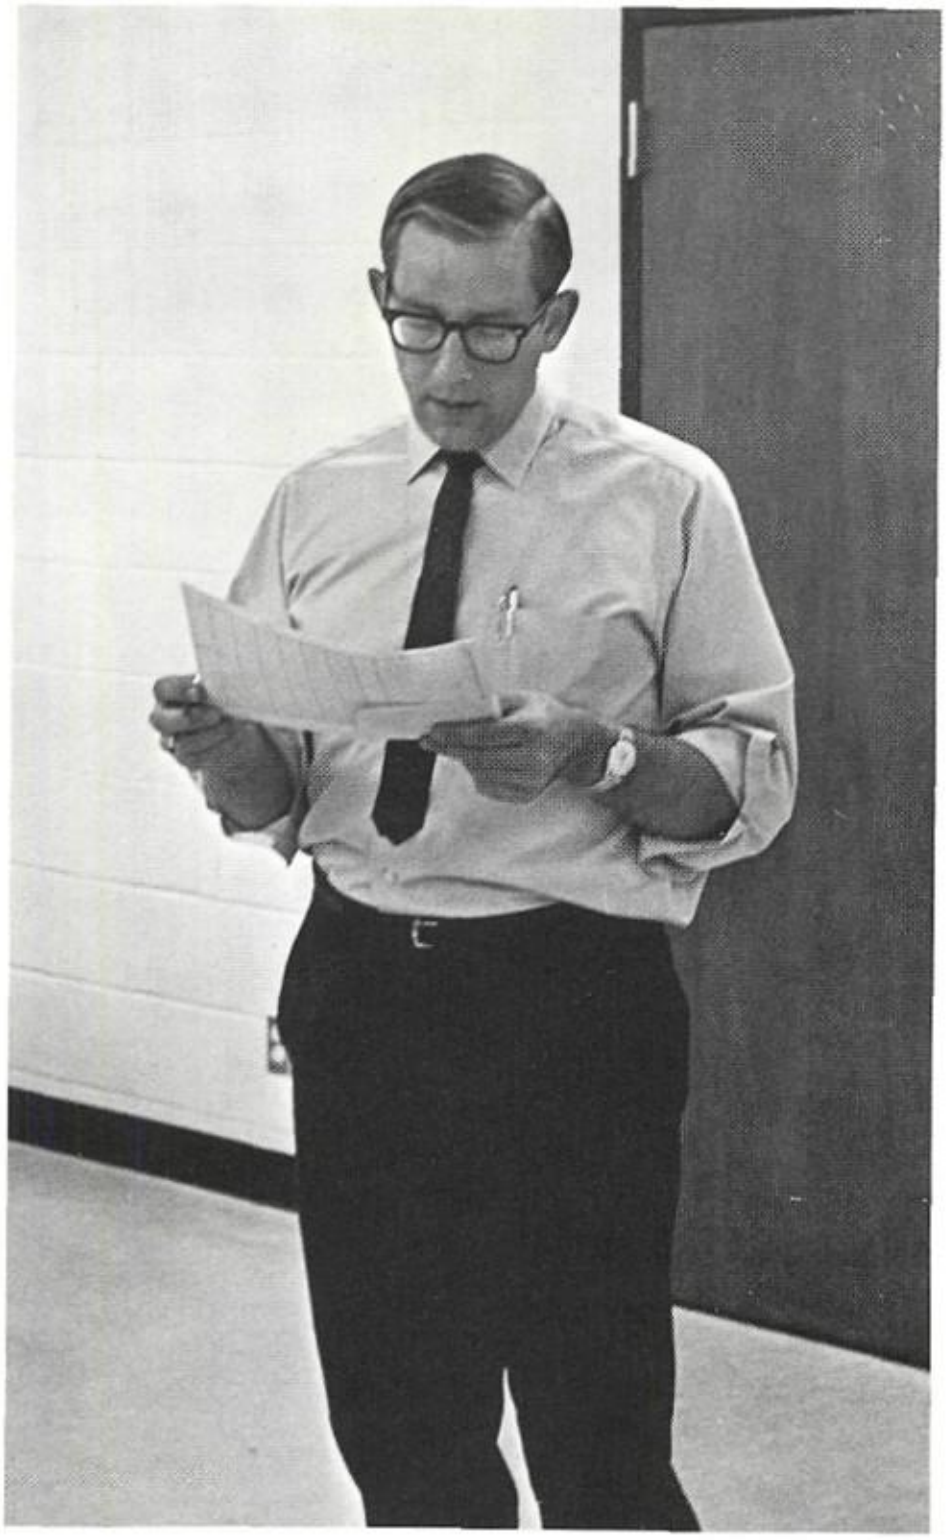
Mrs. Henry gives step by step instructions for homemade apple pie!

Mrs. Smith plans daily Home Eco. assignments.

A stitch in time saves nine!

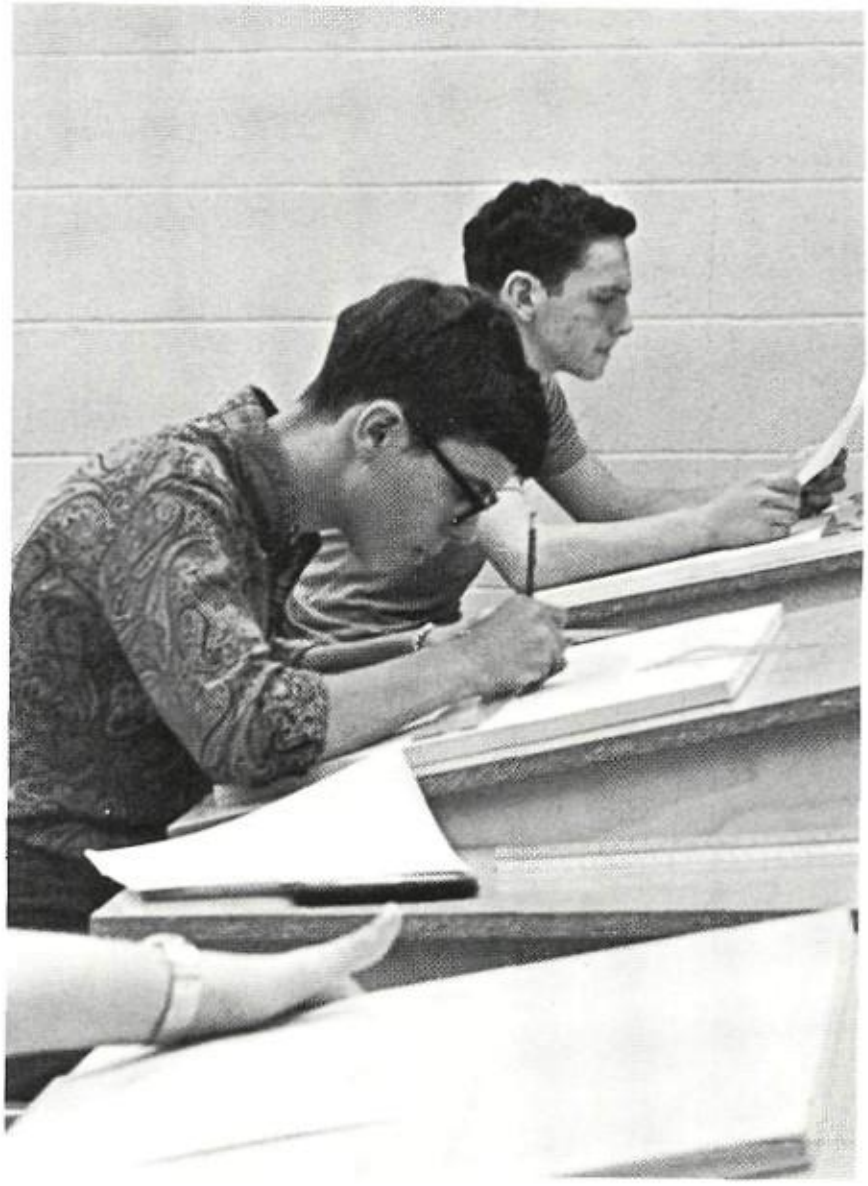
Industrial Arts

Industrial arts courses are designed to give student exploratory experiences in several areas of industry. Although the courses are not vocational in nature, they may lead to a vocation for some students. Metals, woodworking, and drafting are three areas of industry studied in general shop. Students work in bench and wrought metal, sheet metal, welding, foundry, and machine shop. Both hand and machine methods of constructing projects of wood are incorporated in woodworking. Two approaches to drafting, industrial and pre-college, are also provided.



"Help, I've been drafted!!!"

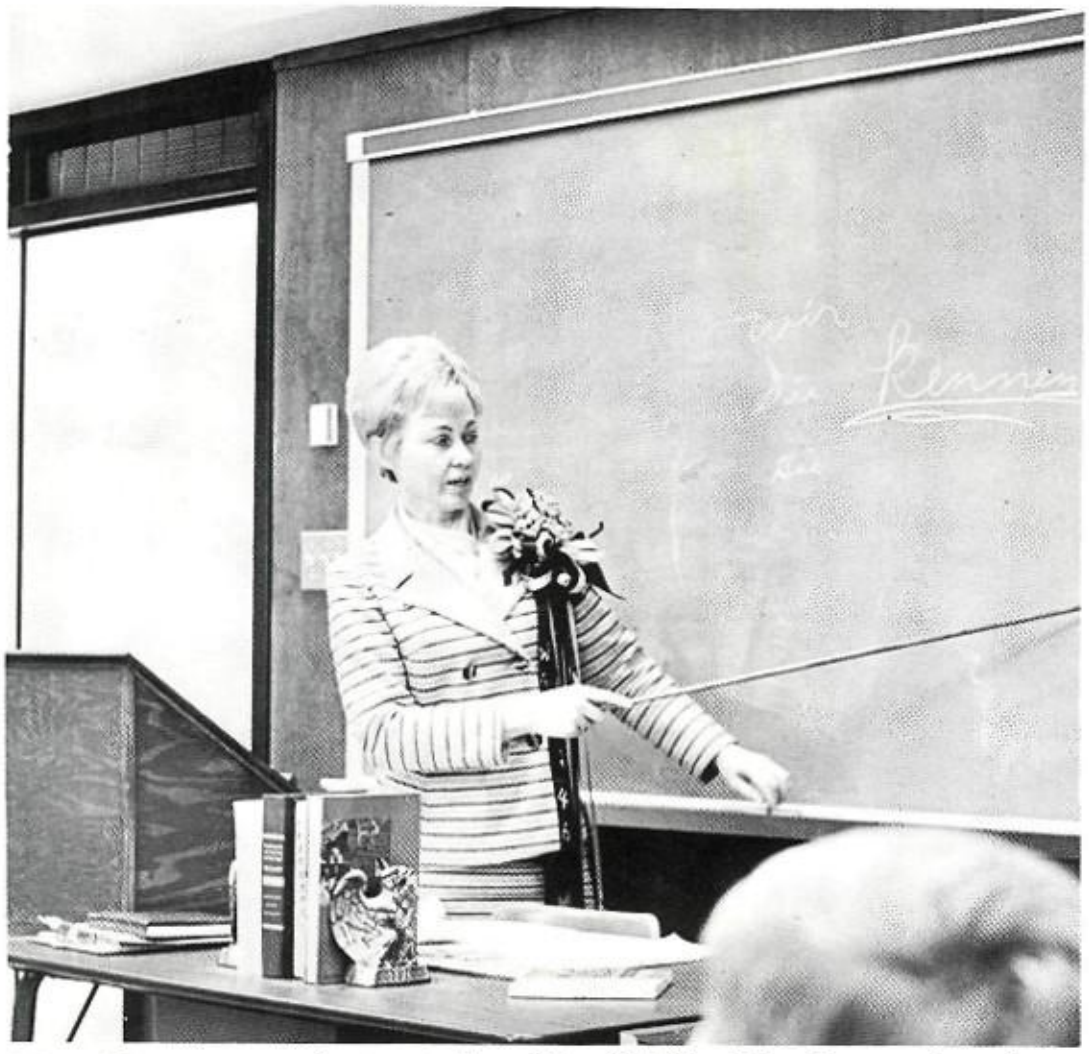
"No, that goes over there, that thing-amagig goes here."



"It sure is hard to make a straight line with this compass"

Foreign Languages

The curriculum of the foreign language department includes French, Spanish, and German. The main purpose of this department is to enable students to communicate with other nationalities, thus solving some of the world's problems of today. Communication leads to understanding.

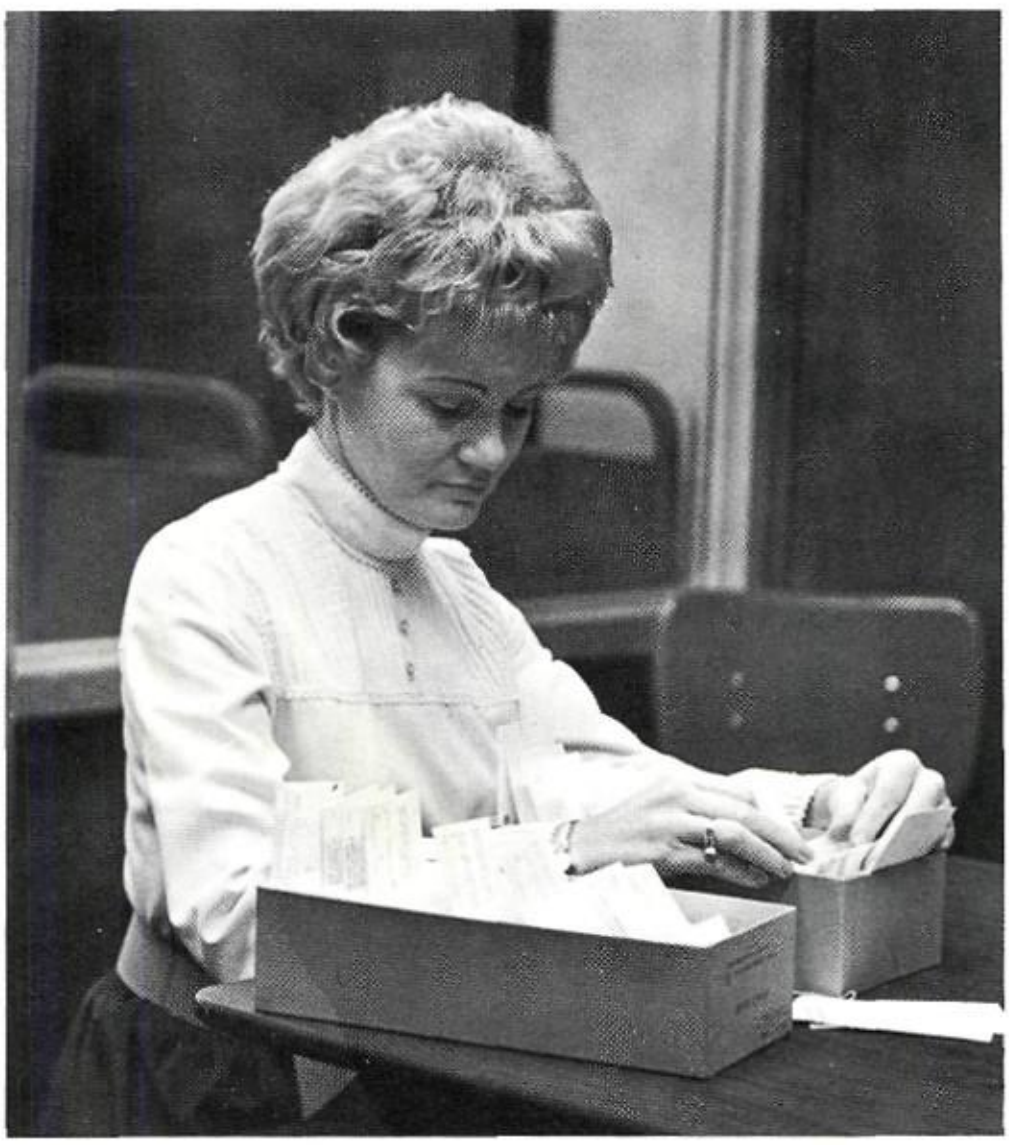


Mrs. Montgomery instructs her "der Sehüler" in the conjugation of another German word.

Mrs. Seaman develops language skills in a Spanish dialogue.

Library Provides Helpful Resource Material

MISSION IMPOSSIBLE: #000007 checks out vital piece of information for a book report.



Mrs. Myers, librarian, works on student library cards.

The library at Trinity provides many resource materials for all scholastic areas of study. Study cubicals with earphones for tapes and records are provided for student usage. Several areas in the main section of the library are filled with numerous tables for students to use while reading books or writing research. Mrs. Myers, the librarian, is very helpful in assisting students with books or looking up research.

God luck to a 6th period pest! (I'm Kidding) Vern Myers

Guest Speakers Enrich Curriculum

Herbert Marshall, a specialist in cinematography and professor at the University of Illinois, initiated the Trinity auditorium with a lecture contrasting the democratic and communist ways of life. Mr. Marshall reflected upon his experiences during the regime of Stalin and his travels in Europe, including his stay in Czechoslovakia during the initial invasion of that country by the Russian military in August of 1968. The reading of the poem "The American Nightingale" and a question and answer session were highlights of the program.

Athletes Craig Baynam of the Dallas Cowboys, Don Shinic of the Baltimore Colts, and Darryl Bagget of SMU represented the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in another special schoolwide assembly.

Craig Baynam tells the student body about "the one that got away."

Herbert Marshall contrasted the democratic and communist ways of life.

ORGANIZATIONS

Backbone of Student Life

The Trinity High Chapter of the Texas Association of Student Councils was brought together with the first official meeting November 4, 1968, with Clifton Sorrell presiding. Throughout the year members have joined in a mutual effort to promote the American ideas. Projects undertaken have included Patriotic Week, flag contest, student directory, etc. Plans are underway for the sponsoring of a foreign exchange student, financed by the student body.

OFFICERS: Clifton Sorrell, Kim Zieschang, Mike Rutledge, Jimmy Killion, Susan Browning, Randall Davis, and Dorris Soule.

The Octagon Club of Trinity High

The Octagon Club of Trinity High,. under the supervision of Mr. Key, is primarily a service club for the community. It is an all boys organization, associated with the Optimist Clubs of America. Leading the Octagon Club for the year of 1968-69 is junior Robert Moore. In this club are some of Trinity's finest students that may eventually become future leaders.

OFFICERS: Steve Harris, John Clark, Bruce Watson, Clifton Sorrell, and Robert Moore.

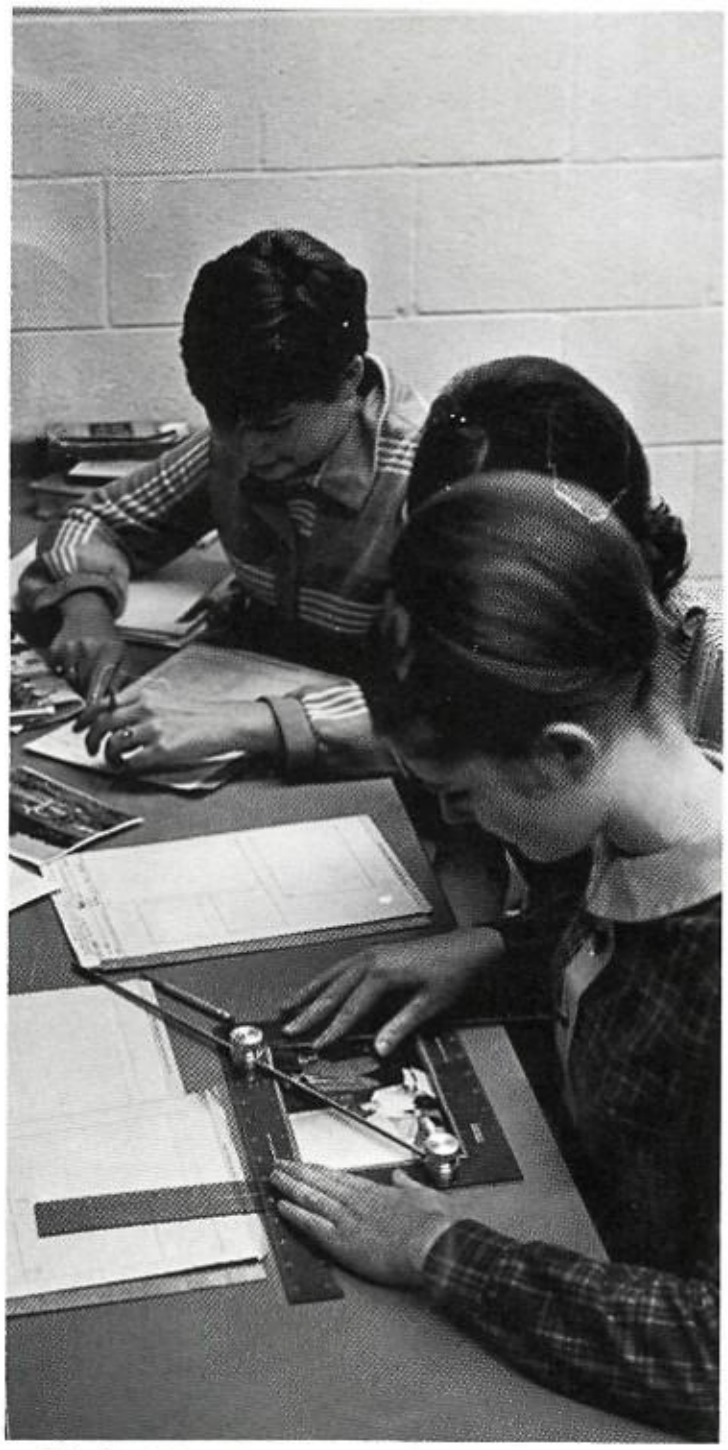
Capturing the Year's Memories

The Trojan staff visits Taylor Publishing Co. to see how an annual is made.

Jeff Grimm and Jack Courtney look through proofs for the sports page.



Gloria Montgomery, Janet Shelton, and Dorris Soule crop pictures for the annual.

No, we don't pay you to take the annual.

Virginia Shull gives Miss Farrell another one of her brillant ideas.

Need this be explained?

The annual staff began its year in August when members journeyed to Lubbock to attend the yearbook workshop held at Texas Tech. Here, they prepared for the 1968-69 school year. During October, the staff announced the mystifying OFRAGOTA CAMPAIGN, which proved to be a great success in arousing everyone's curiosity. Through the year, the staff worked diligently trying to capture YOU, the students of Trinity High in action. We have tried to accurately record the first year at Trinity, binding these memories into one book.

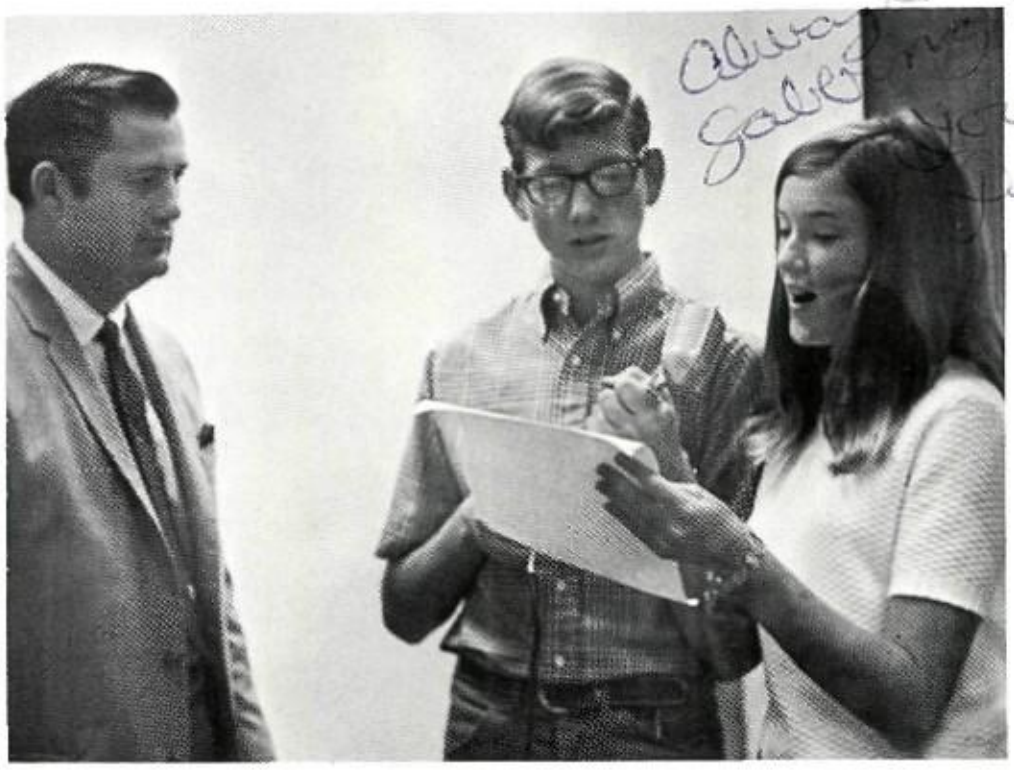
Jeff and Dorris spend time together, working on layouts.

Miss Farrell, the annual sponsor, spends a great deal of her time making the Trojan annual the greatest!



Debby Fuller and Bill Lindsey contribute to the OFRAGOTA Campaign.

Trojan Spirit Comes Alive!

Juniors: Debby Baker, Mary Meserole and head cheerleader, Kathy Murphy.

Sophomores: Becky Durbin and Jody Christopherson

The cheerleaders teach the spirit club a new yell.

It's a bird! It's a Plane! It's a cheerleader??

The 1968-69 Trojan Cheerleaders

Trojan cheerleaders are the backbone of Trinity spirit. As representatives of the entire student body, the cheerleaders set the pace of school spirit. The sale of spirit ribbons, skits at pep rallies, and "Sock it to 'em" posters were constant reminders of the efforts of the seven member team. Our cheerleaders "lead the field" in every cheer and accept the responsibility of creating tradition and generating student's support in a first time situation.

Freshman Cheerleaders: Alana Nichols and Frances Pannell.

Mrs. Forman contributes support in more ways than one.

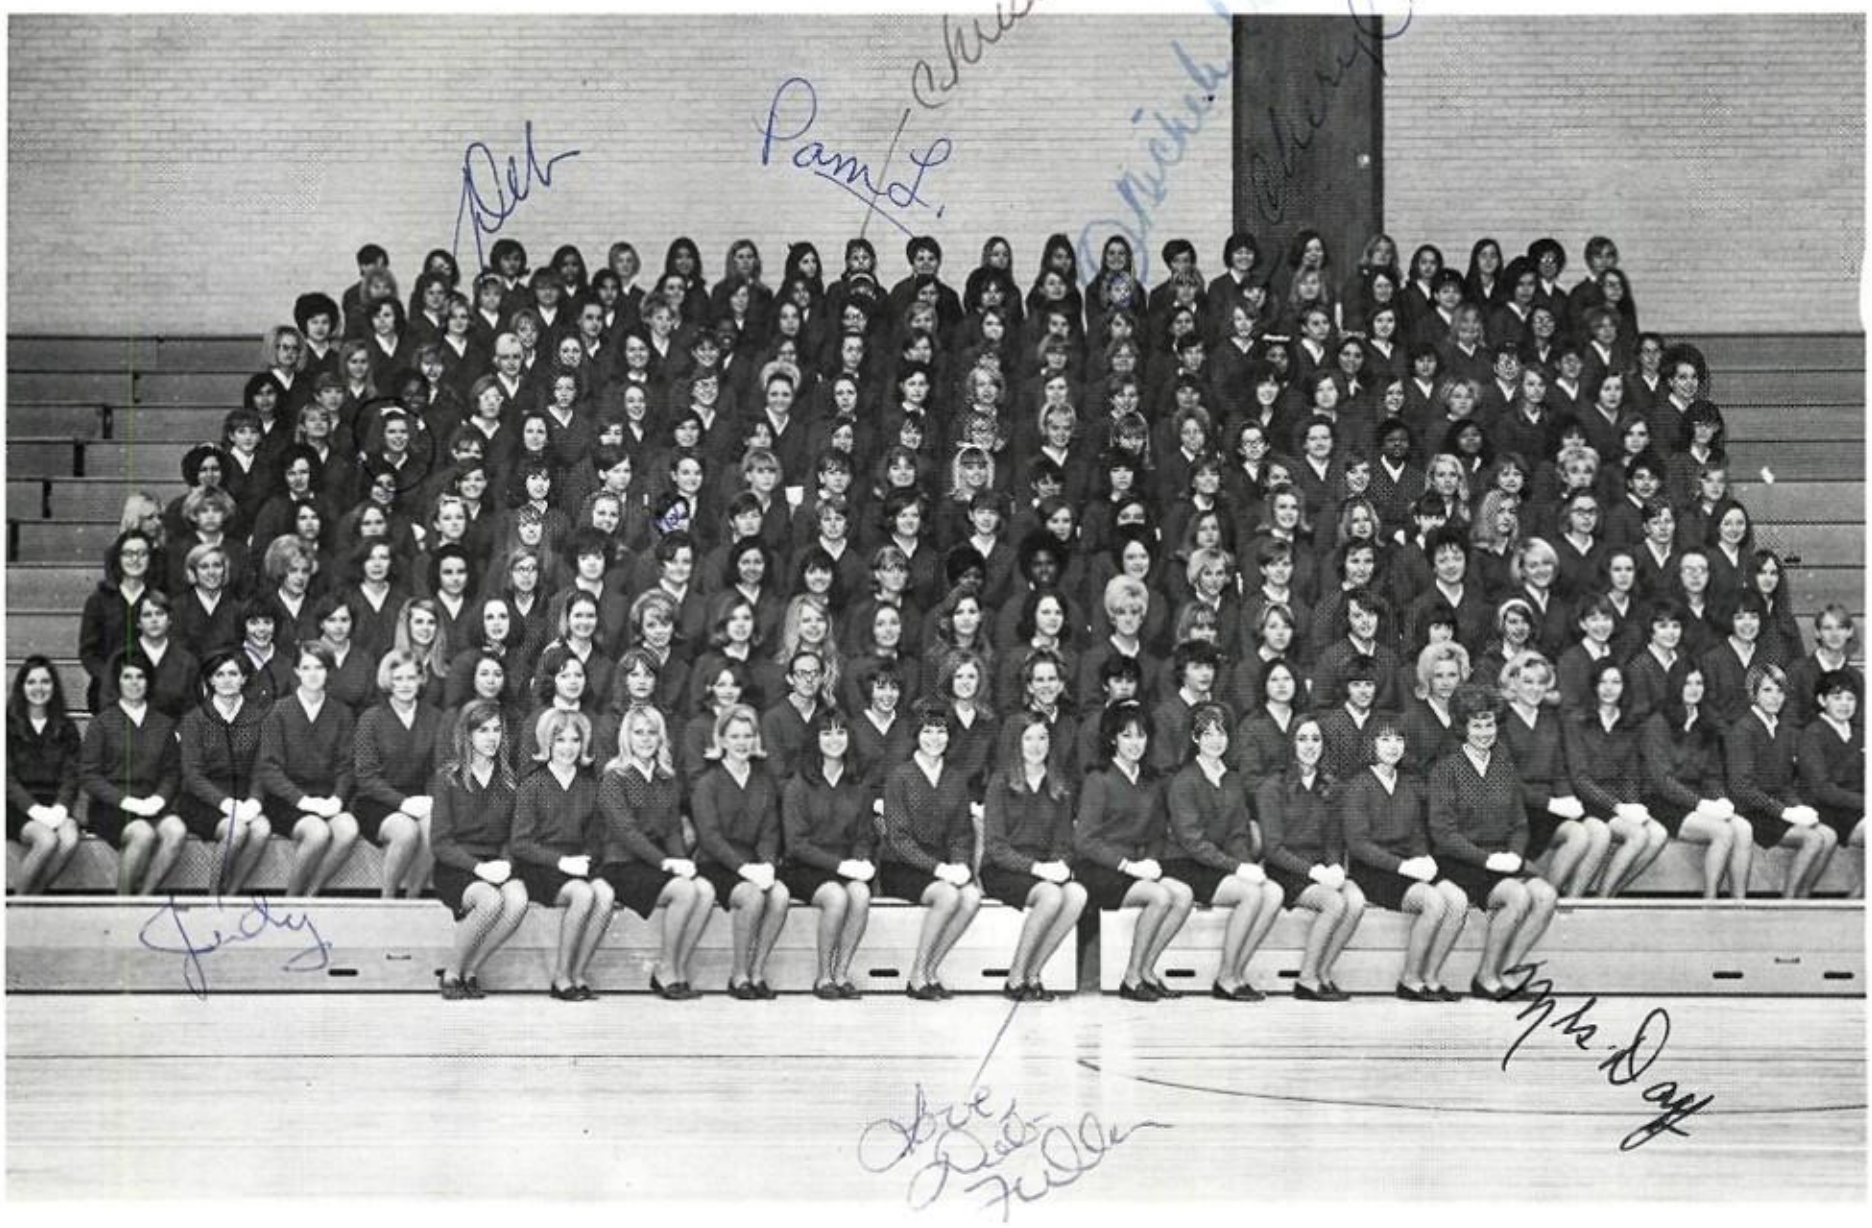
Clap 2-3-4 . . .

The Troy-Anns Echoed Voice

The voice of the Trojan spirit is echoed by the Trinity Troy-Anns, who provide pep rally skits, spirit posters, and special pom-pom routines during sporting events. Being a Troy-Ann is the first step in becoming a cheerleader or a drill team member. The Troy-Anns are under the fine leadership of Mrs. Loretta Day. Next year this group will serve as the card section for the Trojans.

OFFICERS: Debby Fuller, Mrs. Day, Vicki Dooley, Amy Griggs, Lynda Baldwin, Vickie Kinsey, Drenda Lindsey, and Lynn Dunn.

REPRESENTATIVES: Norma Garza, Deretta Riggs, Velma Morse, Terry Young, Caren Carter, and Janet Hyde. 2nd Row: Margret Thompson, Ramona Strahan, Jackie Grunwald, Gay Lewis, Pam Kerns, Geni Hinojoza, and Marsha Daughtery.



The 1968-69 Trinity Tro-Anns

Give 'em a big hand!

Go, go, get um . . .

Band Awarded First Trojan Trophy

In 1968 the Trojan band had the honor of winning the first award for Trinity High. Last November they received a superior rating in U.I.L. Marching Competition. This was truly remarkable because they had only marched three weeks prior to the contest. This award marks the first of many more awards to come for Trinity High.

We owe Mr. Reavis a great deal of thanks for the extra hours with the band, preparing half-time shows, pep rallies, and concerts for us to enjoy. The Trojan band certainly adds a lot in helping to build the name of Trinity High.

Mr. Reavis carefully inspects uniforms.

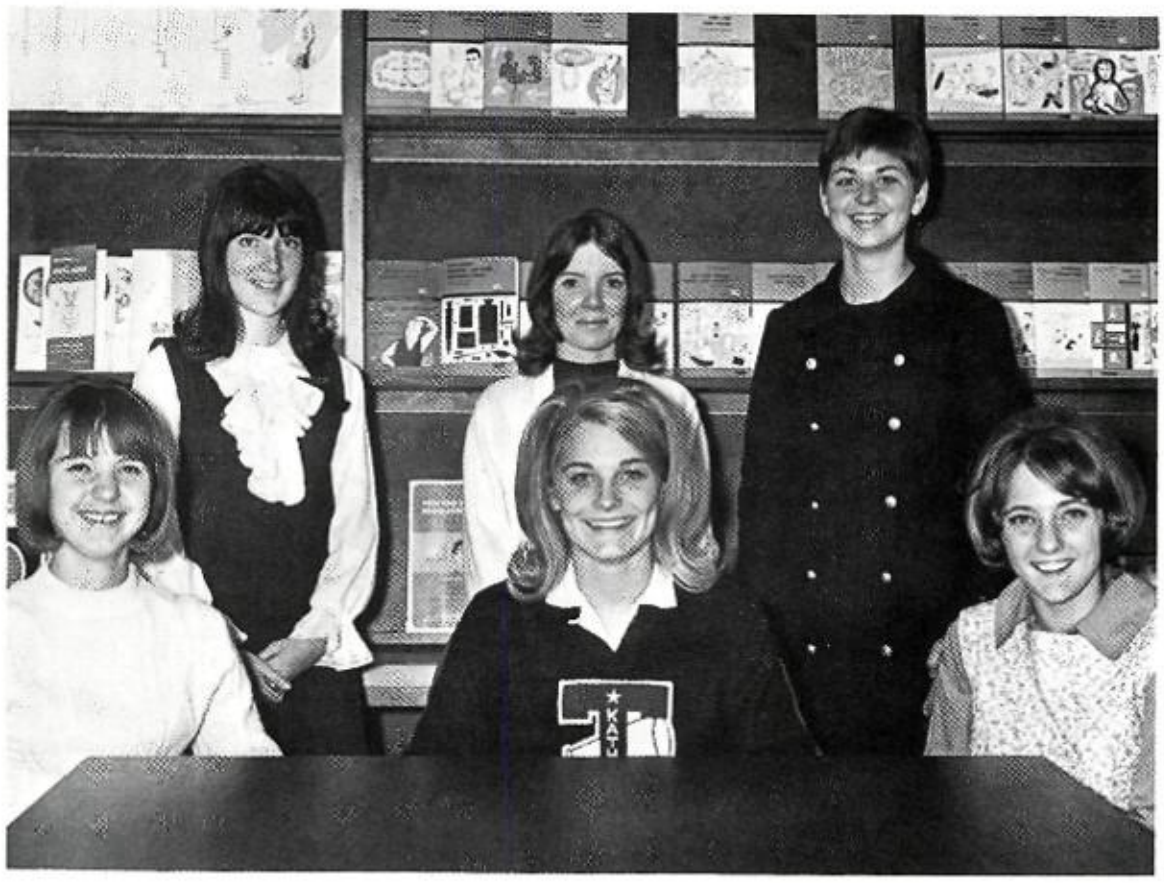
ALL-REGION JR. HIGH: Donna Rodgers, Carol Caldwell, Paula McNeese, Joni Mullins, Pete Allport, Nicky Osborne, Mark Jarrett, and Gerald Houy.

OFFICERS: Dudly Cottle, also manager, Steve Washington, and Carol McCann.

Future Teachers of America

L. D. Bell FTA members installed the officers of Trinity High.



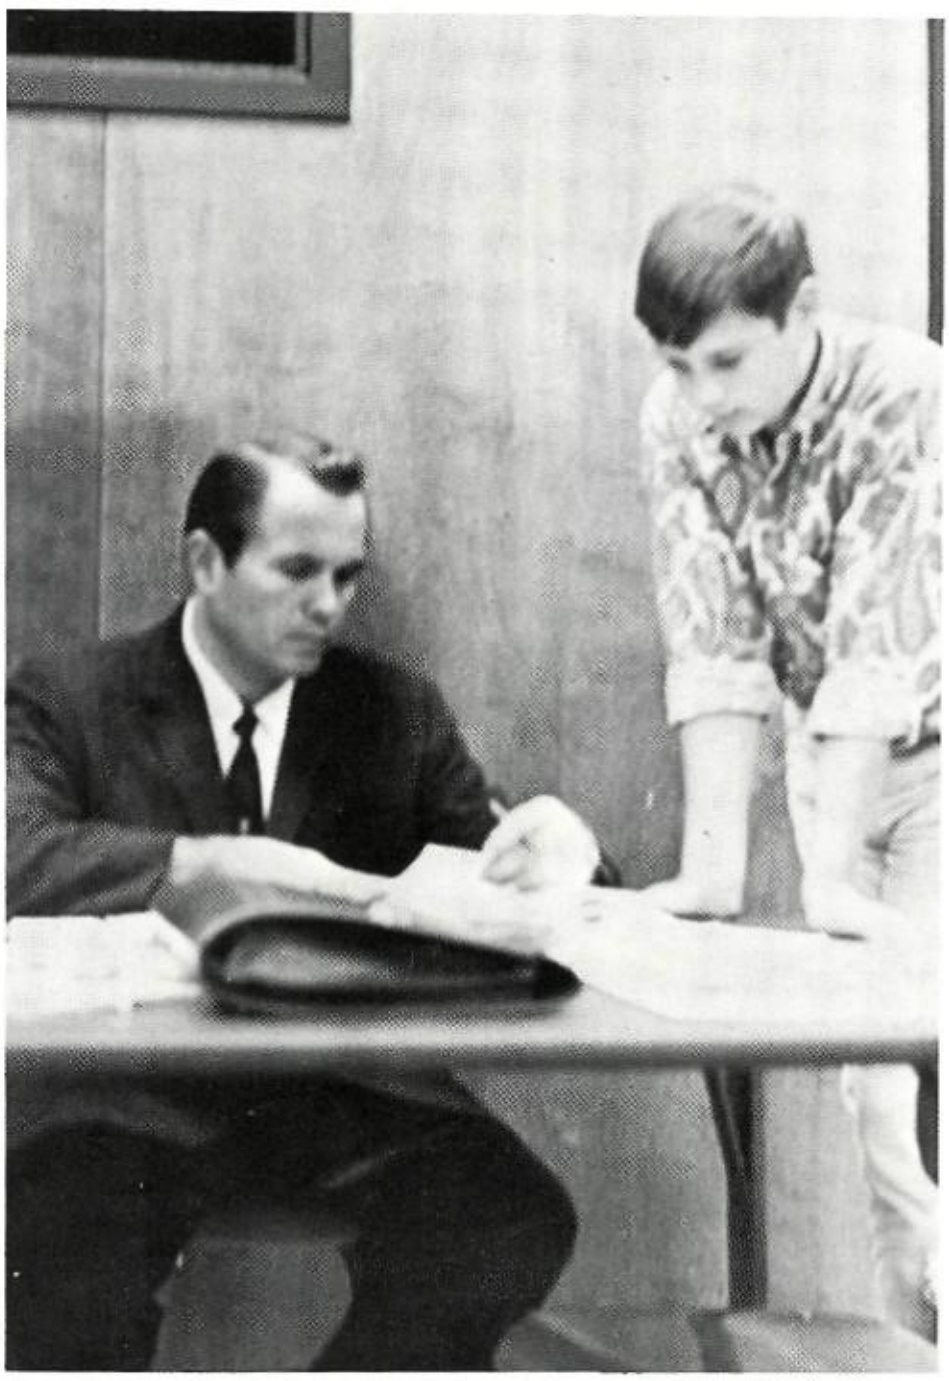
OFFICERS: Vickie Kinsey, Kathy Murphy, Camara Clifton, Denise Valentino, Teresa Hambright, and Gloria Montgomery.

Members of the Future Teachers of America might someday become teachers.

FTA SPONSORS: Mrs. Glenda Johnson, Mrs. Juana Hill, and Mr. Jack Ingle.

The Future Teachers of America attempts to stimulate student interest in the teaching profession. By working with faculty members, students are given the opportunity to see the teaching profession from a new perspective. The club's activities included Twirp Week - five days highlighted by slave auctions, play day, and the hillbilly dance. Mrs. Glenda Johnson, Mrs. Juana Hill, and Mr. Jack Ingle direct the activities of the newly formed organization as club sponsors.

Members obtain points for assisting teachers. Some, like Pam Saleh, grade papers.



David Blaker volunteers his services to Mr. Foglesong.

Future Homemakers of America

The FHA is a voluntary organization that teaches its members citizenship and moral standards in and out of the community. By being a member, one learns the qualities of being a good housewife and mother. This year the FHA made gifts for the convalescent home and later went Christmas caroling. The FHA is under the leadership of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Henry.

OFFICERS: Lynn Dunn, Tena McMinn, Ramona Strahan, Terry Young, Frances Pannell, Paula McNeese, and Pam Foster.

REPRESENTATIVES: Marsha Daughtery, Suzanne Franks, Vickie Smith, Marsha Lively, Margret Risenhoover, Tena McMinn, Pam Foster, Debbie Orlorwski, Lynn Dunn, Mary Meserole, Frances Pannell, Ramona Strahan, Vicki Maynard, Pam Kerns, Janie Coble, Stacy Neel, Terry Young, Nancy Mitchel and Paula McNeese.

The Future Homemakers of America

The sponsors of the FHA are Mrs. Roberta Henry and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith.

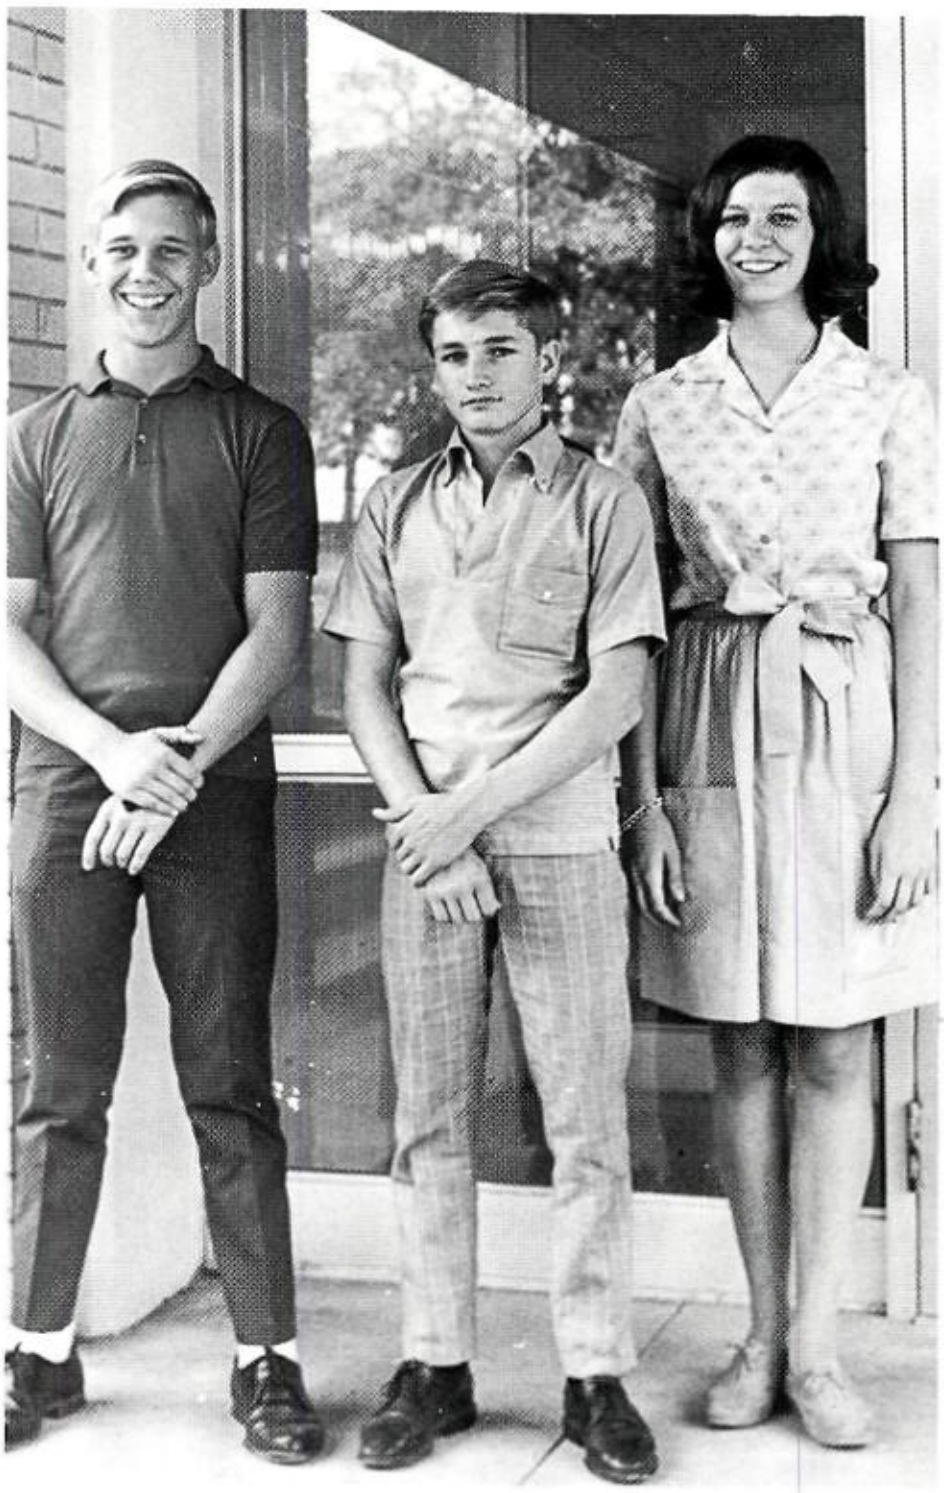
At the Christmas Ball, Lynn Dunn was chosen Miss FHA and Max Brown, as FHA Beau.

Trinity's Choir

The Trojan Choir of Trinity High had the honor of having several members in the All-Region Choir. They were Lynda Baldwin, Lisa Ross, and Darlene Maloney. One member, Dale Harris, went on to State competition. The choir is under the direction of Miss Karen Gustavus. Miss Gustavus took Mrs. Doris Richards place after she resigned.

The Trinity High Choir

MISS KAREN GUSTAVUS



OFFICERS: Lanny Hill, Steve Wright and Cathy Dunham.

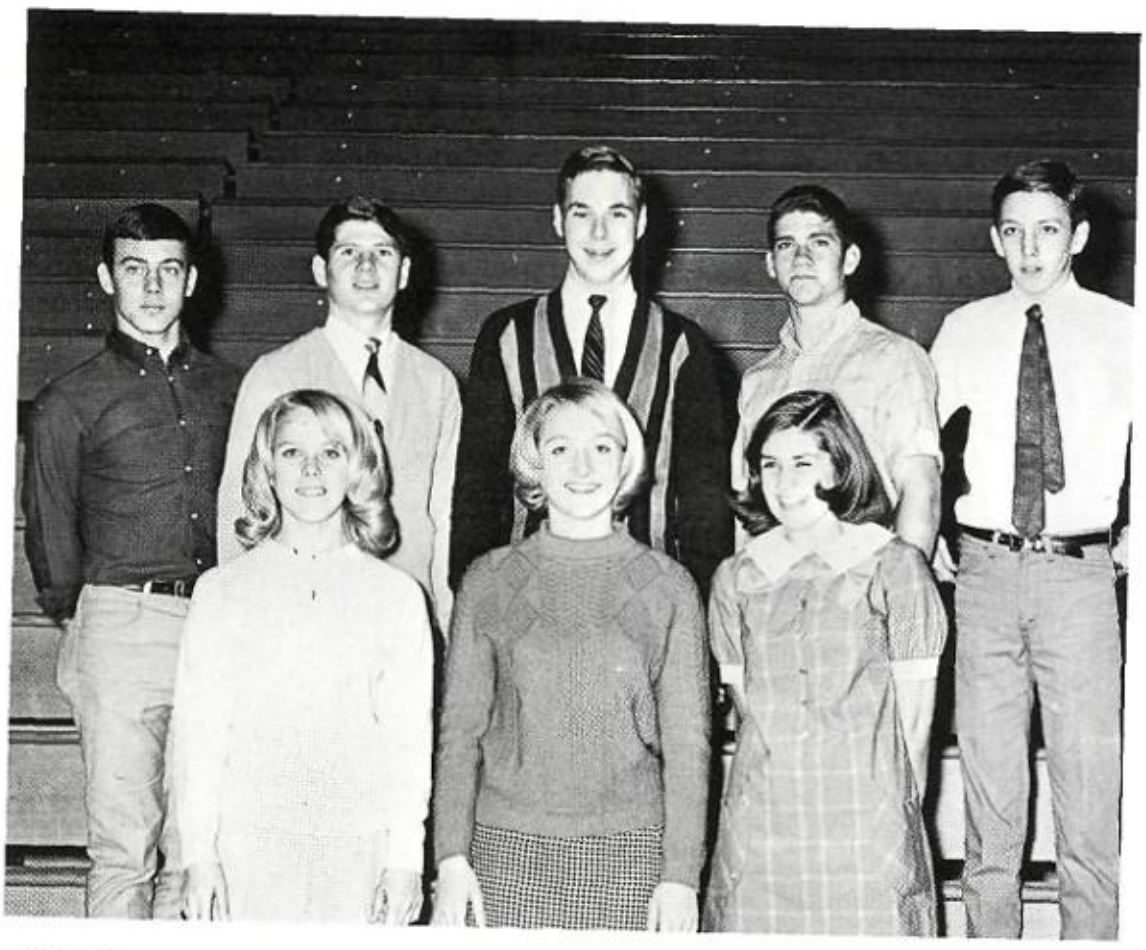
National Thespians

The National Thespians is an honorary organization of the Speech and Drama Club. It is by invitation only that one is able to become a member. Members of the club presented the one-act contest play "The Affected Young Lady." It is certainly quite an honor for one to become a "Thespian."

The National Thespians of Trinity High School.

Trinity Troubadours

Students interested in speech and drama share membership in the Troubadours.

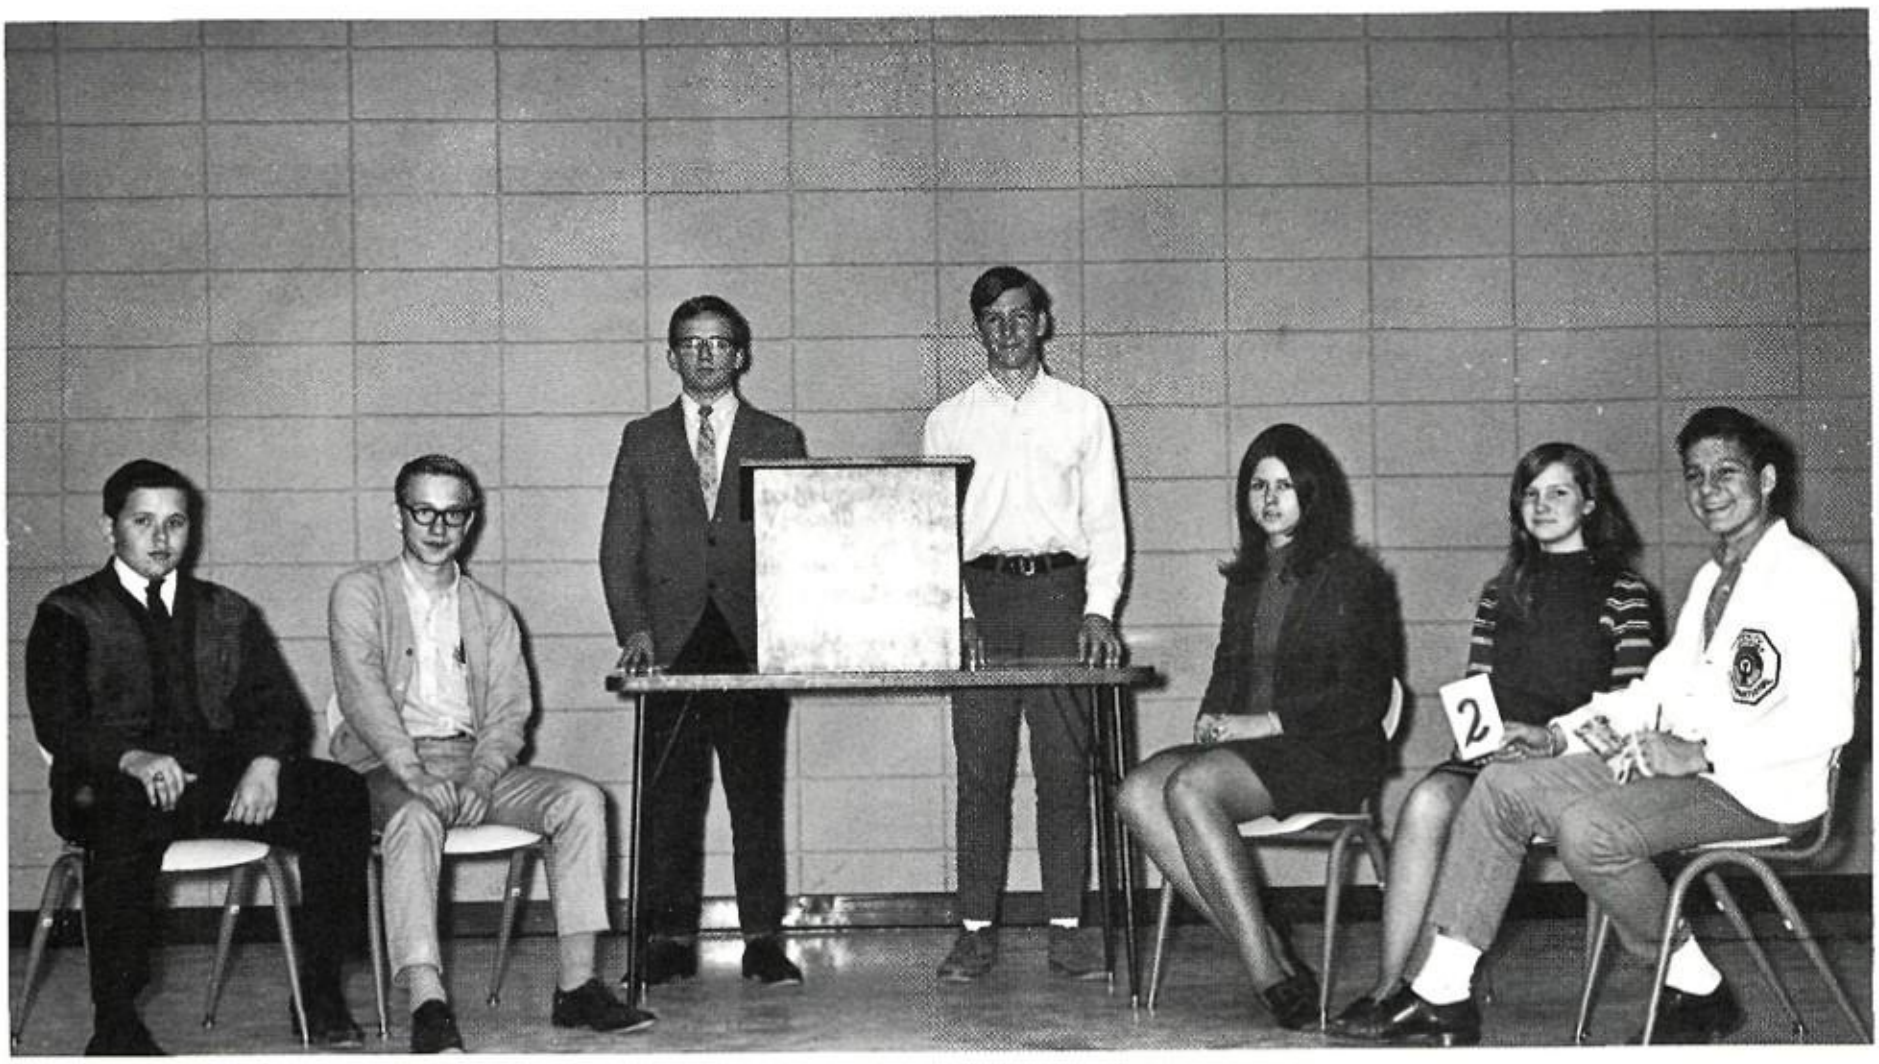


OFFICERS: Drenda Lindsey, Janet Hyde, Julia Owen, Steve Smith, Mike Rutledge, Jerry Smith, Ricki Sowell, and Richard Methany.

Pat Parker challenges the real image of Christmas.

Watch it! My eyelash is permanent!

Troubadours, an old Greek term, refers to old traveling musicians. The Troubadours of Trinity make up the Speech and Drama Club. The Christmas Show, entitled "Peace on Earth," was presented to Trinity High by the members of the club. Trinity's first play "Our Town" was presented late in the year after a long delay. These activities are only a few of the many projects of the very active "Troubadours." The next year will even be greater.



Mrs. Brown's Debate Club

Rodeo Club

The Rodeo Club of Trinity High, with Mr. Schutts as sponsor, was one of the first clubs organized at Trinity. Each week, members journey to rodeos held throughout the Mid-Cities area, with some of the members riding in the rodeo.

OFFICERS: Bob Barkley, Debby Baker, Lynn Dunn, Hank Beaver, Amy Griggs, Jackie Grunwald, and Allen Anderson.

Rodeo Club of Trinity High School

Sprechen Sie Deutsch?

Members of the German Club

The German Club of Trinity High, under the guidance of Mrs. Wanda Montgomery, meets twice monthly to learn more about the history and culture of Germany. Activities for the year included a Christmas Party, a spring "bike hike," attending plays and lectures presented by the Goethe Institute of Dallas, and preparing and serving a typical German meal under the supervision of Karen Changkosky.

The German Club is the only foreign language club of Trinity High.

Karen Changkosky, a native German, is a honorary member.

OFFICERS: Kim Zieschang, Bob Tillinghast, Walter Mills, Connie Mitchell, Julie Moore, and Richard Goodrich.

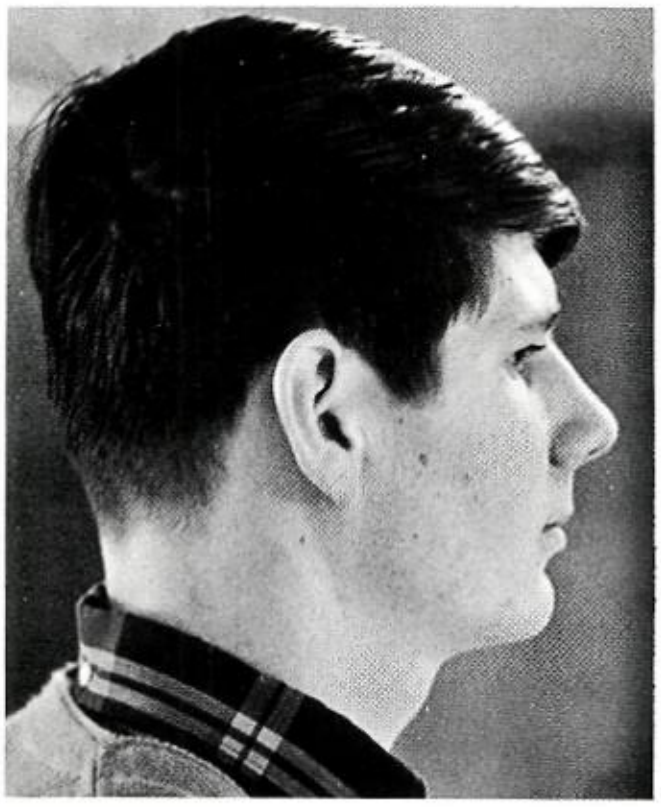
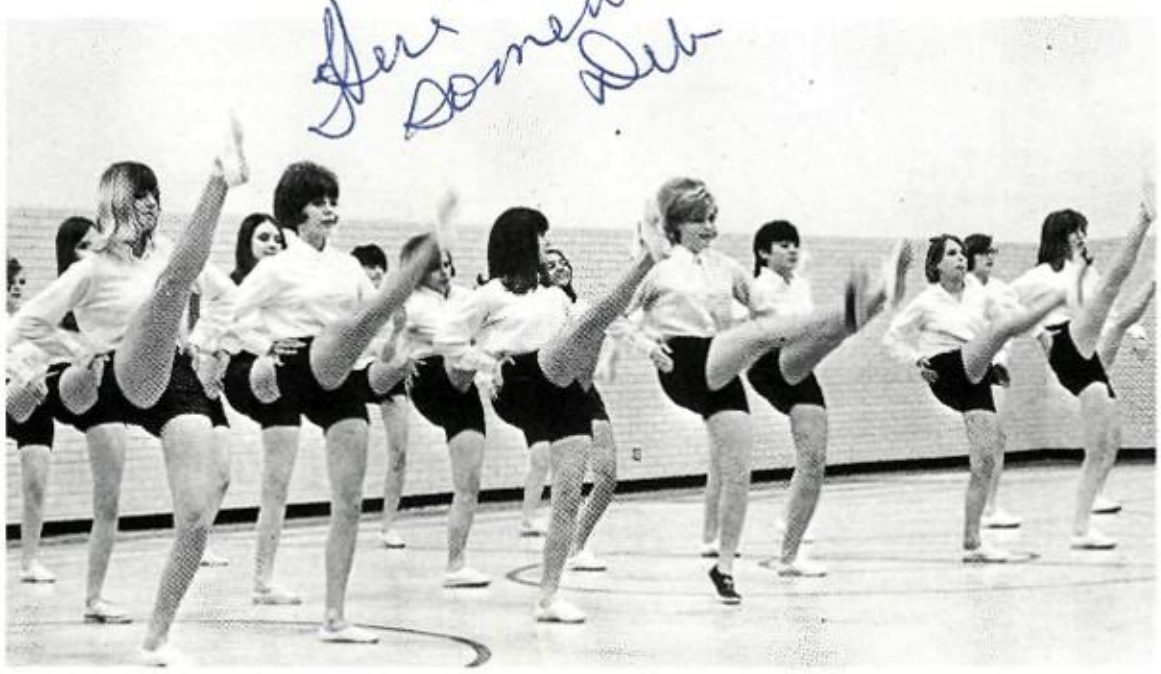
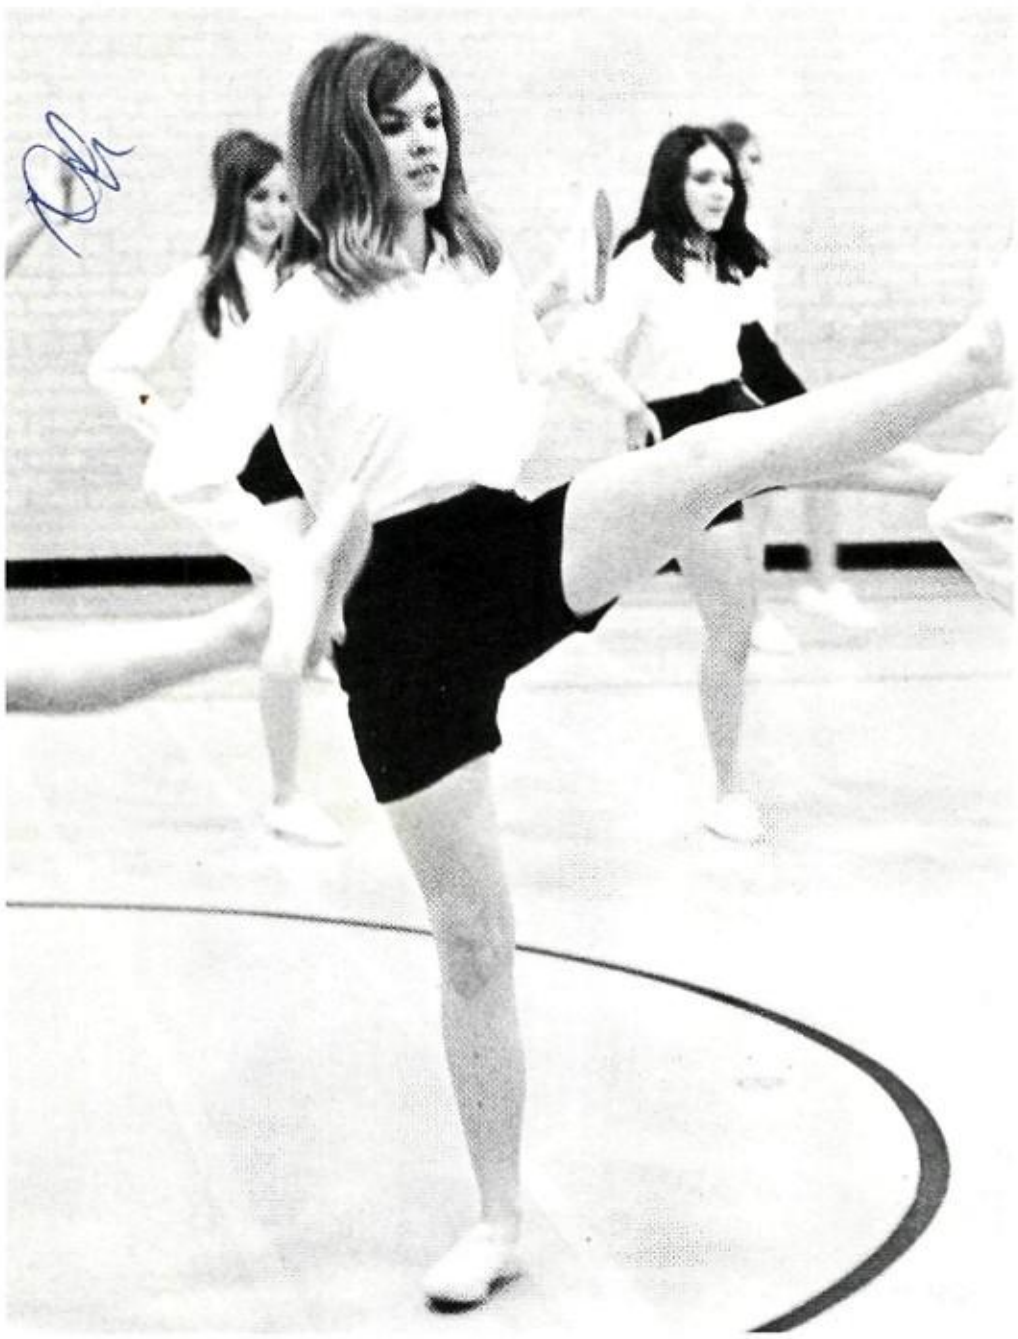
Drill Team for 1969-70 School Year Is Organized



MIKE RUTLEDGE - Troy-Ann Beau.



The Drill Team was organized in February by Mrs. Loretta Day. Drill Team members were also Troy-Anns. The Drill Team will start performing, as a group, throughout the 1969-70 school year.



"Work out" enables one to "Work up."

All poised and pretty!

Distributive Education

The D.E.C.A. Club of Trinity High is a vocational club that is designed to train students to become future leaders in the world of business. Under the direction of Mrs. Pat Miller, the students go to school half a day and work the other half at jobs which they must obtain themselves. Members have promoted school spirit by selling Trojan license plates and key rings.

DECA OFFICERS - Philip Gann, Sandy Williams, Claudia Adair, Lana King, Tanis Smith, Eddie Hinojoza, Ronald Green, and Freddy Walton.

FOOTBALL COACHES: ROW 1: Harville, Haws, Bookout, Garrison. ROW 2: Teddlie, Glover, Curtis, Wiley, Higginbotham.

Ninth grade team shows varsity potential.

Football kicked off the athletic program at Trinity High School. The Trojans fielded a varsity team of forty-four juniors and sophomores, and a freshman team of thirty-eight ninth graders. The freshmen played a nine game schedule in the "Big Twelve" Conference and finished the season with an excellent record of six wins and three losses.

The varsity played an extremely tough ten game schedule of Ft. Worth-Dallas teams. Although the Trojans were defeated five times during the season, the coaches felt that it was a very successful start for the young Trojans. Next year the Trojans will compete with some of the top 4A teams in the area.

In addition to playing the game well and striving for victory. The Trojan coaching staff and players promote a spirit of good sportmanship and teamwork, emphasizing the qualities of honesty, integrity, loyalty, perserverance and strength of Character.

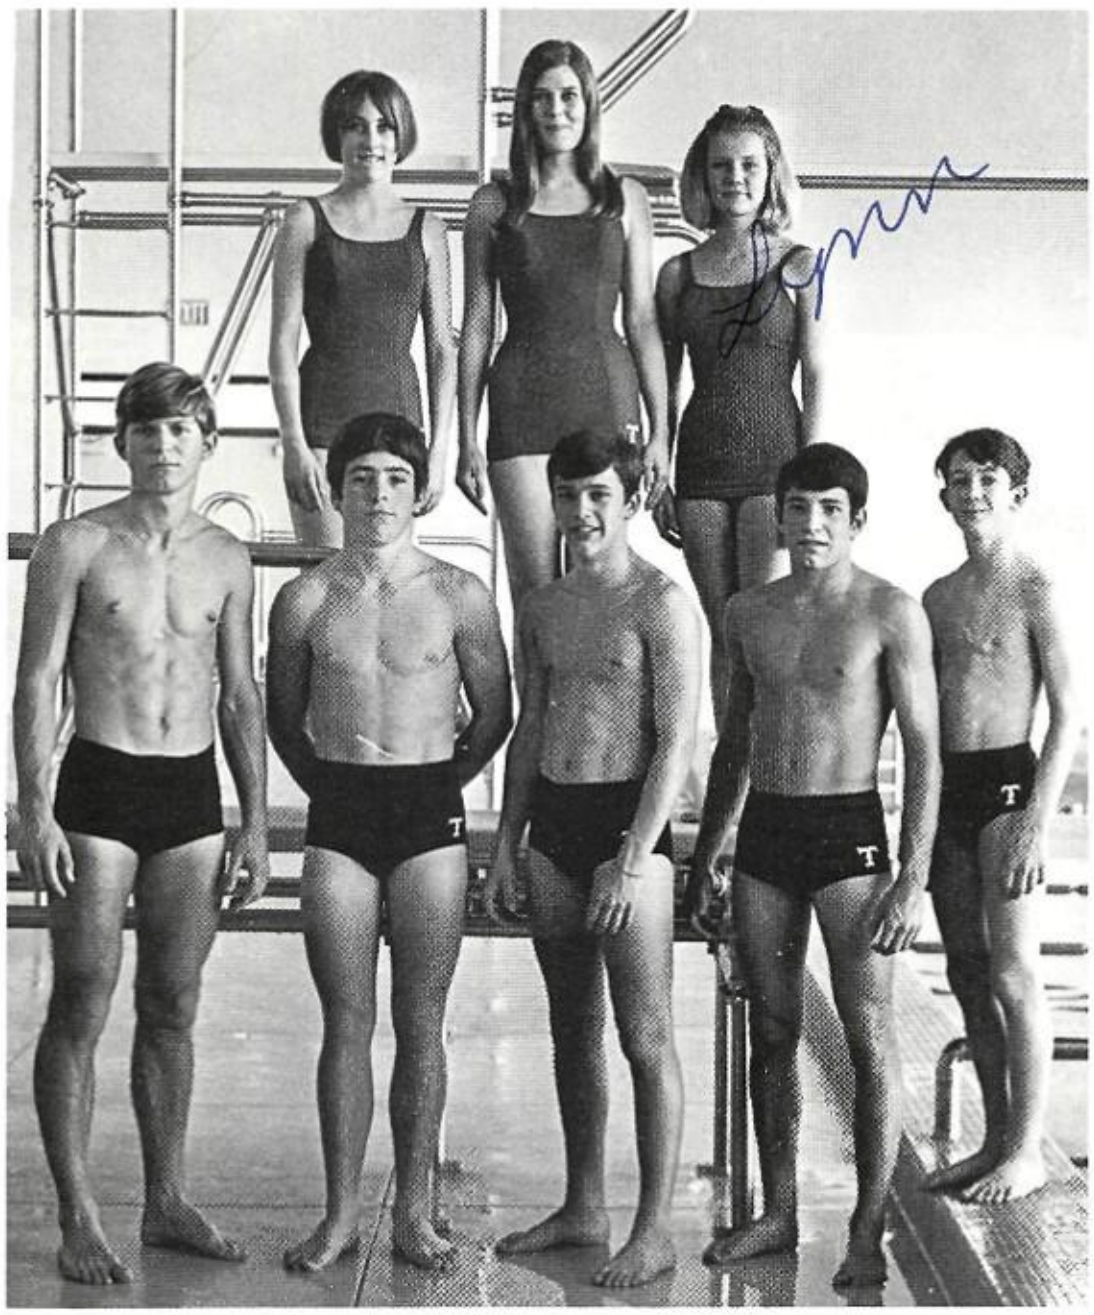
MIDDLE: Bowles, Kalina, Grimm, Mills, Yarbrough, Riley, Austin, Young, Meeks, Hyde, Lindsey. BOTTOM: Stevens, Hammel, Kinler, Middleton, Gammon, Glaze, Hendrickson.

Swimming is a new sport in the HEB District. In spite of delays which kept team members out of the water until mid-December, the team gave a fine showing in their first two meets. They defeated Grady Spruce 77-16 and Dallas Sunset 50-43 in very exciting contests.

SWIMMING AND DIVING TEAM COACHES: Don Foglesong and Kay Holleman.



The diving team of Trinity High practices daily, constantly striving for precision. In competion at dual meets, team members are required to perform six dives. Competitors must execute one required dive and five optional dives (forward, backward, inward, reverse, and twist). Boardwork and form are emphasized.

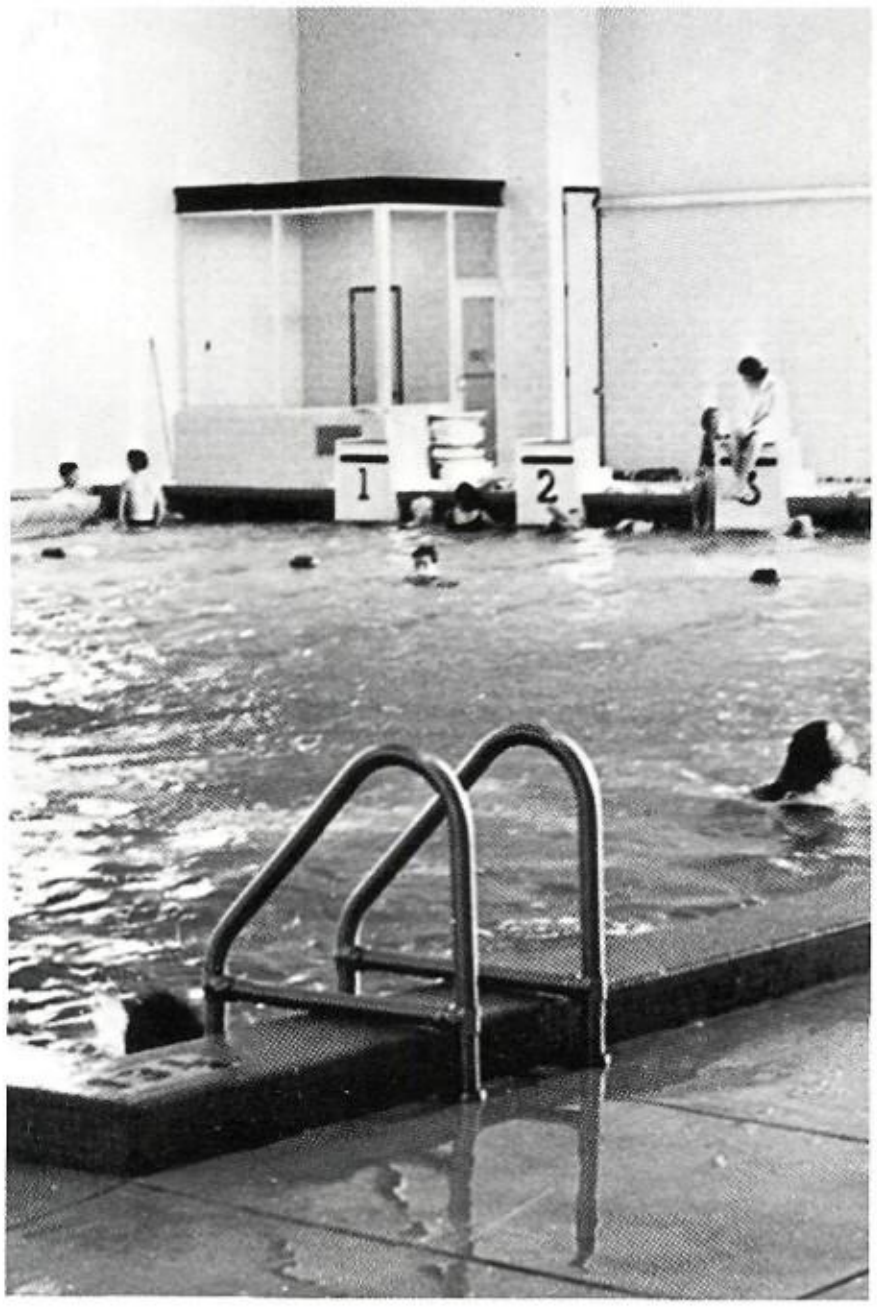
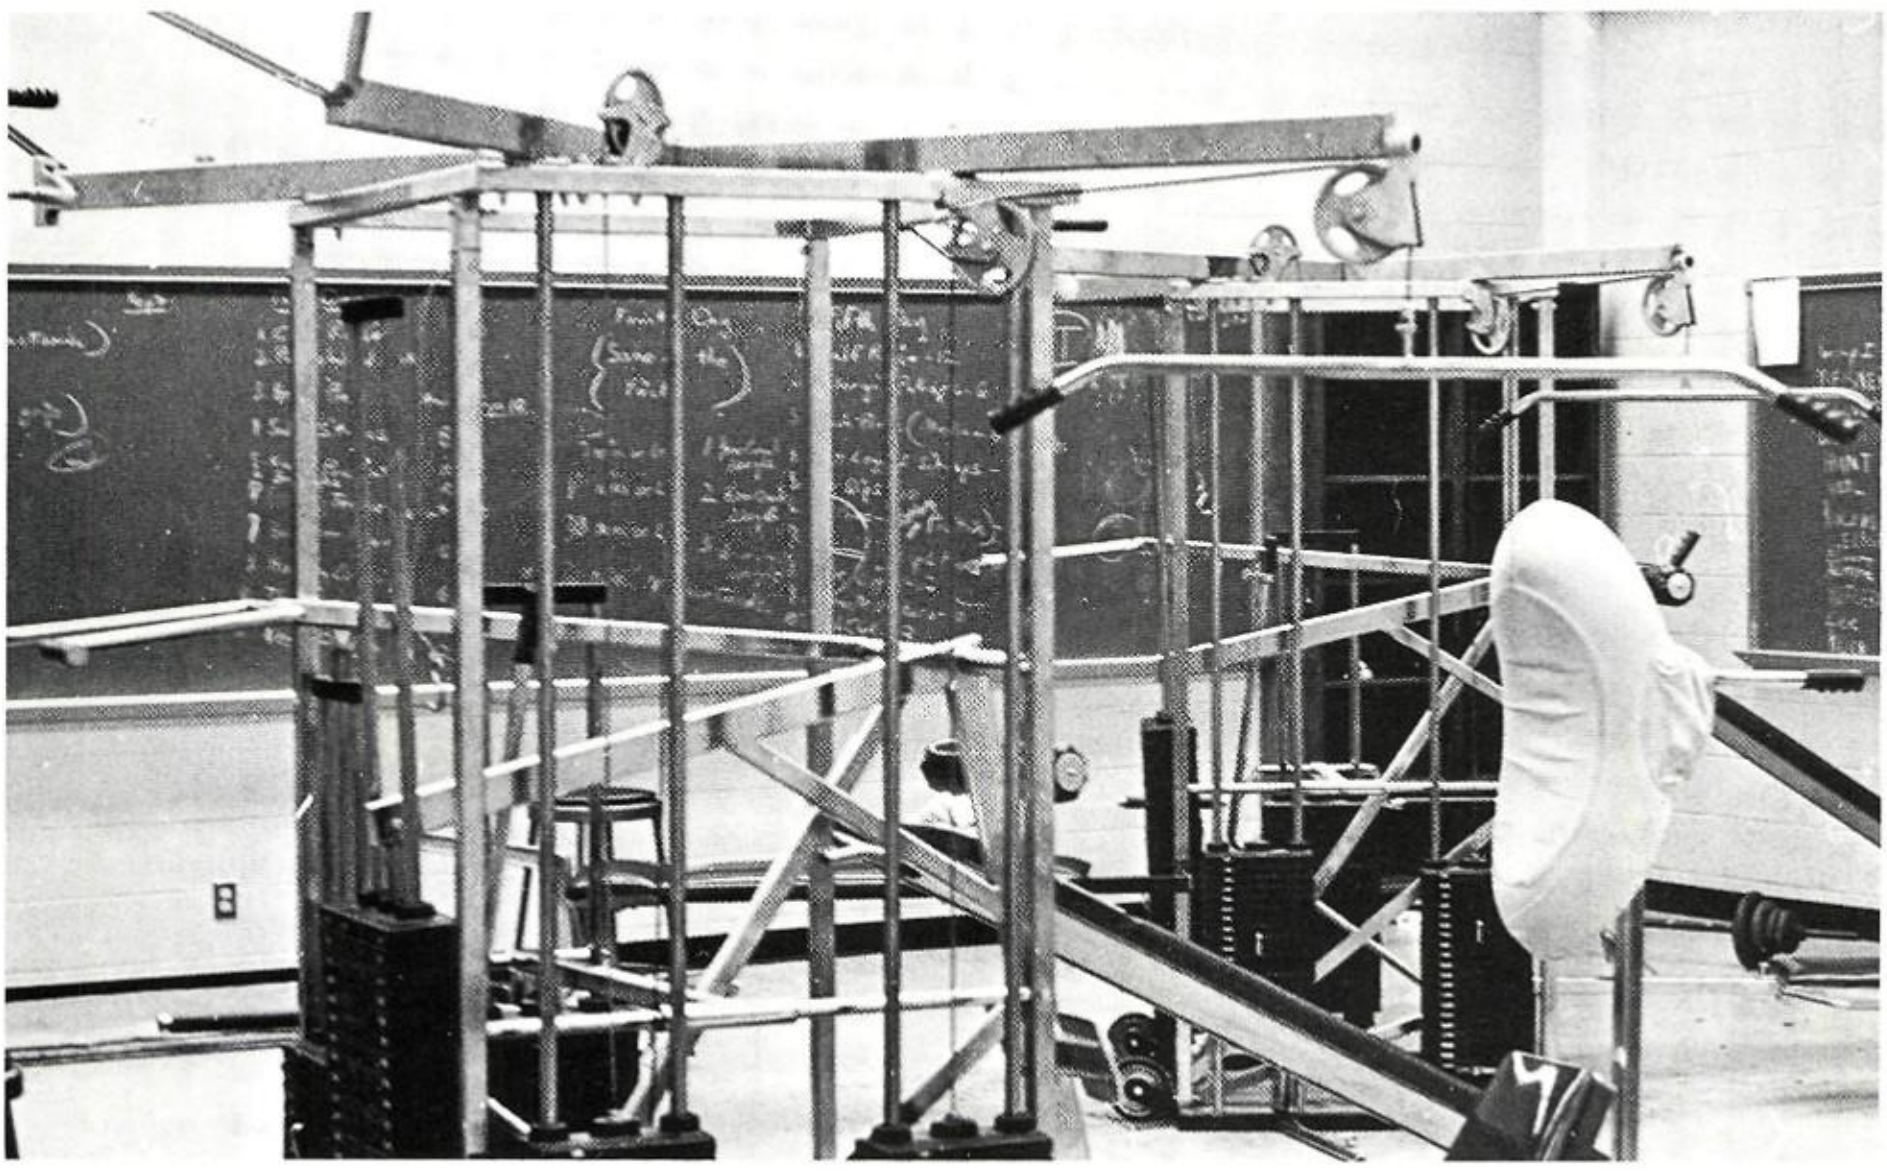
P.E. Facilities



The athletic facilities of Trinity are second to none in the state including many colleges. They consist of an Olympic-size pool, a handball court, weight machines, indoor and outdoor basketball courts, football fields, gymnastic equipment, baseball diamonds, track, volleyball equipment, tennis courts, a soccer field, and a nine hole golf course.

"All right, who's got the balls?"



"Weight machines build strong bodies twelve ways."

Coaches Earn Respect Through Fear and Encouragement

Ask any team member? An essential aspect of sportsmanship and competition is the mixture of fear and encouragement provided by a coach. The discipline involved in any competitive sport often begins in sternness and ends in achievement and pride.
